Hans Osterwalder, 2017-08-14 This book provides a theoretical introduction to the task-based methodology in language and literature teaching. For teachers, the main points of interest are Part Two and Three, where a plethora of contemporary texts both from Britain and the US are given a literary analysis which is followed by detailed task-based lesson plans. Part Two focuses on multiculturalism, one of the seminal issues of our time. Part Three tackles gender, another highly topical theme which students are naturally interested in. Well-known authors like the British Asian writer Hanif Kureish and the Indian American novelist Jhumpa Lahiri feature in the chapter on multiculturalism. The gender question is represented by Carol Ann Duffy, the current Poet Laureate, and Caryl Churchill, the main representative of feminist drama. Naming Jhumpa Lahiri

Lavina Dhingra, Floyd Cheung, 2012 This collection of nine essays by scholars in the fields of postcolonial, Asian American, and other literary studies explains why categorizing the best-selling award-winning work of Jhumpa Lahiri as either universally great and/or ethnically specific matters to whom and how. Paying attention to these questions can deepen students' general readers and academic scholars' appreciation for the politics surrounding Lahiri's works and understanding of the literary texts themselves. Reading Beyond the Book

Danielle Fuller, DeNel Rehberg Sedo, 2013-04-02 Literary culture has become a form of popular culture over the last fifteen years thanks to the success of televised book clubs, film adaptations, big box book stores, online bookselling, and face-to-face and online book groups. This volume offers the first critical analysis of mass reading events and the contemporary meanings of reading in the UK, USA, and Canada based on original interviews and surveys with readers and event organizers The resurgence of book groups has inspired new cultural formations of what the authors call shared reading They interrogate the enduring attraction of an old technology for readers community organizers and government agencies exploring the social practices inspired by the sharing of books in public spaces and revealing the complex ideological investments made by readers cultural workers institutions and the mass media in the meanings of reading
