figures in European culture The Seduction of the Mediterranean argues that the Mediterranean classical and contemporary was the central theme in homoerotic writing and art from the 1750s to the 1950s Episodes of exile murder drug taking wild homosexual orgies and court cases are woven into an original study of a significant theme in European culture The myth of a homoerotic Mediterranean made a major contribution to general attitudes towards Antiquity the Renaissance and modern Italy and Greece Gay & Lesbian Literature Sharon Malinowski, Tom Pendergast, Sara Pendergast, 1994 Biographical bibliographical and critical information on more than four hundred authors who have figured prominently in gay and lesbian literature and culture since 1900 Female Homosexuality in Ancient Greece and Rome Sandra

Boehringer, 2021-09-06 This groundbreaking study among the earliest syntheses on female homosexuality throughout Antiquity explores the topic with careful reference to ancient concepts and views drawing fully on the existing visual and written record including literary philosophical and scientific documents Even today ancient female homosexuals are still too often seen in terms of a mythical ethereal Sapphic love or stereotyped as Amazons or courtesans Boehringer's scholarly book replaces these clichés with rigorous precise analysis of iconography and texts by Sappho Plato Ovid Juvenal and many other lyric poets satirists and astrological writers in search of the prevailing norms constraints and possibilities for erotic desire The portrait emerges of an ancient society to which today's sexual categories do not apply a society before sexuality where female homosexuality looks very different but is nonetheless very real Now available in English for the first time Female Homosexuality in Ancient Greece and Rome includes a preface by David Halperin This book will be of value to students and scholars of ancient sexuality and gender and to anyone interested in histories and theories of sexuality Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth E Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re-envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L.
