Narcissistic Narrative Linda Hutcheon, 2010-01-01 Linda Hutcheon in this original study examines the modes forms and techniques of narcissistic fiction that is fiction which includes within itself some sort of commentary on its own narrative and or linguistic nature Her analysis is further extended to discuss the implications of such a development for both the theory of the novel and reading theory Having placed this phenomenon in its historical context Linda Hutcheon uses the insights of various reader response theories to explore the paradox created by metafiction the reader is at the same time co creator of the self reflexive text and distanced from it because of its very self reflexivity She illustrates her analysis through the works of novelists such as Fowles Barth Nabokov Calvino Borges Carpentier and Aquin For the paperback edition of this important book a preface has been added which examines developments since first publication Narcissistic Narrative was selected by Choice as one of the outstanding academic books for 1981 1982

Beyond the Metafictional Mode Robert C. Spires, 2021-11-21 The term metafiction invaded the vocabulary of literary criticism around 1970 yet the textual strategies involved in turning fiction back onto itself can be traced through several centuries In this theoretical critical study Robert C Spires examines the nature of metafiction and chronicles its evolution in Spain from the time of Cervantes to the 1970s when the obsession with novelistic self commentary culminated in an important literary movement The critical portions of this study focus primarily on twentieth century works Included are analyses of Unamuno's Niebla Jarn's Locura y muerte de nadie and La novia del viento Torrente Ballester's Don Juan Cunqueiro's Un hombre que se parec a a Orestes and three novels from the self referential movement of the 1970s Juan Goytisolo's Juan sin Tierra Luis Goytisolo's La colera de Aquiles and Mart n Gait e's El cuarto de atr s Seeking a stronger theoretical basis for his critical readings Spires offers a sharpened definition of the term metafiction The mode arises he declares through an intentional violation of the boundaries that normally separate the worlds of the author the fiction and the reader Building on theoretical foundations laid by Frye Scholes Genette and others Spires also proposes a literary paradigm that places metafiction in a position intermediate between fiction and literary theory These theoretical formulations place Spires s book in the forefront of critical thought At the same time his full scale analyses of Spanish metafictional works will be welcomed by Hispanists and other students of world literature Murakami Haruki Michael Seats,2009-01-01 This book offers a new approach to dealing with Murakami s radical narrative project by demonstrating how his first and later trilogies utilize the structure of the simulacrum a second order representation to develop a complex critique of contemporary Japanese culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms Vaysman,2025-11-04 Realism is an artistic practice that aims to faithfully represent reality Historically it has been practiced across different media from early pictorial art and epic oral narratives through literature and visual arts to film music and digital media However an understanding of what it means to faithfully represent reality is not universal rather it varies from culture to culture The Oxford Handbook of Global Realisms approaches realism as a transnational transhistorical and intermedial global phenomenon It brings the diversity of global realisms to the fore showcasing previously underrepresented and marginalized theories practices forms and media of realist cultural production "Throw the book away" Amie A. Doughty,2013-05-11 Children s literature is an excellent way to educate children on everything from social behavior and beliefs to attitudes toward education itself A major aspect of children s literature is the importance of books and reading Books represent adult authority This book examines the role that books reading and writing play in children s fantasy fiction from books that act as artifacts of power The Abhorsen Trilogy The Spiderwick Chronicles Harry Potter to interactive books The Neverending Story Malice Inkheart to books with character writers Percy Jackson Captain Underpants The author finds that although books and reading often play a prominent role in fantasy for children the majority of young protagonists gain self sufficiency not by reading but specifically by moving beyond books and reading Handbook of Narratology Peter Hühn,Jan Christoph Meister,John Pier,Wolf Schmid,2014-10-10 This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in narratology and is now available in a second completely revised and expanded edition Detailed individual studies by internationally renowned narratologists elucidate central terms of narratology present a critical account of the major research positions and their historical development and indicate directions for future research Postmodern Fiction in Canada Theo D'Haen,Hans Bertens,1992 Postmodern Fiction in Canada ,1992 Meta in Film and Television Series David Roche,2022-10-31 The first book length study of meta phenomena in film and television series Between Illusionism and Anti-Illusionism Marek Pawlicki,2014-07-03 Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism Self Reflexivity in the Chosen Novels of J M Coetzee takes as its premise J M Coetzee s distinction between illusionism and anti illusionism the realist and the self reflexive traditions in prose fiction The aim of this critical study is to demonstrate that these two traditions are not opposed but rather complementary to each other and enrich the novel as a genre Based on Marek Pawlicki s doctoral thesis the book is a detailed analysis of Coetzee s oeuvre paying particular attention to the impact of the writer s literary essays on his fiction

Insofar as it looks into the ways in which Coetzee's work as a critic has affected his novels this book deals with the relation between fiction and literary criticism Chapter One is an introduction into the topic of self reflexivity Chapters Two to Five devoted to Dusklands In the Heart of the Country Age of Iron and Summertime are concerned with the issue of subjectivity in confessional discourse and the boundary between fiction and autobiography Chapters Six to Eight concentrating on Foe Slow Man The Master of Petersburg and Elizabeth Costello offer insight into Coetzee's views on literary creation and the role of the writer in society Between Illusionism and Anti Illusionism also examines intertextual references in Coetzee's novels to the works of Tolstoy Dostoevsky Kafka and Beckett

The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh, 2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present

Discourse Deixis in Metafiction Andrea Macrae, 2019-04-16 This volume advances scholarly understanding of the ways in which discourse deixis underpins the workings of metafictional novels Building on existing scholarship in the field the book begins by mapping out key themes and techniques in metafiction and puts forward a focused and theoretically coherent account of discourse deixis language which points to a section or aspect of the discourse context in which that language is used in written literary discourse highlighting its inherent significance in metafiction specifically Macrae takes readers through an exploration of discourse deixis as used within the techniques of metanarration metalepsis and disnarration drawing on a mix of both well established and lesser known metafictional novels from the late 1960s and early 1970s by such authors as John Barth Brigid Brophy Robert Coover John Fowles Steve Katz and B S Johnson This comprehensive account integrates and develops a new approach to understanding discourse deixis and innovative insights into metafictionality more broadly and will be of particular interest to scholars in literary studies postmodern literature narratology and stylistics

The Metanarrative Hall of Mirrors Garrett Stewart,2022-03-10 With its laser focus on the verbal and visual infrastructure of narrative The Metanarrative Hall of Mirrors is the first sustained comparative study of how image patterns are tracked in prose and cinema In film examples ranging from Citizen Kane through Apocalypse Now to Blade Runner 2049 then on to Christopher Nolan s 2020 Tenet Garrett Stewart follows the shift from celluloid to digital cinema through various narrative manifestations of the image from freeze frames to computer generated special effects By bringing cinema alongside literature Stewart discovers a common tendency in contemporary storytelling in both prose and visual narrative from the ongoing trend of mind game films to the often puzzling narrative eccentricities of such different writers as Nicholson Baker and Richard Powers including the latter s eerie mirroring of reader empathy in his 2021 Bewilderment The Autofictional Alexandra Effe,Hannie Lawlor,2022-01-03 This open access book offers innovative and wide ranging responses to the continuously flourishing literary phenomenon of autofiction The book shows the insights that are gained in the shift from the genre descriptor to the adjective and from a broad application of the autofictional as a theoretical lens and aesthetic strategy In three sections on Approaches Affordances and Forms the volume proposes new theoretical approaches for the study of autofiction and the autofictional offers fresh perspectives on many of the prominent authors in the discussion draws them into a dialogue with autofictional practice from across the globe and brings into view texts forms and media that have not traditionally been considered for their autofictional dimensions The book in sum expands the parameters of research on autofiction to date to allow new voices and viewpoints to emerge
