Fading Shadows An Immigrant S Tale Of Life In America:

Fading Shadows Abettina Dell'Orfano Morano,2014-10-31 Based on the author s parents this is a novel about Italian immigrants who came to the United States to make a new life Fading Shadows Abettina Dell'Orfano Morano,2014-10-31 The author would like to invite the reader to take a journey with her back in time I am writing this novel about my family who lived in the late 1800s My parents Michael and his wife Filomena DellOrfano were born 1878 and 1882 respectively Chusiano di San Domenico d Avellino is a small town in the Province of Avellino in the Region of Campania in Naples Italy Raffael and Camella DellOrfano lived there with their sons Massimeno and Michele The DellOrfano family and others in that area were identified as Bianco or whiteheads due to their fair skin blond and red haired During the day the boys went to school and afterward worked in the fields and learned the value of hard work at a young age Later Michele became interested in a young lady by the name of Filomena though his father disapproved After a longtime disagreement between father and son Michele decided to marry his long time girl friend Filomena and left the homestead where he was born and raised Later Michele made his way to America to build a new life for his family Creating a new identity is never easy They struggled but their love keeps them strong as they remember the old country and looked forward to their new land Shadows of the Foreign

Legion or An Immigrant's Tale Oleksandr Sambor,2025-04-30 This is my attempt to capture in digital form echoes of a time spent in the L gion trang re Imagine these not as precise historical records but as memories transformed into narrative a grandfather s tales perhaps spun years later for an audience of grandchildren Bear with me the chronology may wander and strict adherence to grammar might be flexible Specific Foreign Legion terms les mots de l bas will appear in their original French Names and ranks emerge only when their significance is unmistakable Others remain veiled either lost to time or protected by discretion Let me emphasize this is not intended as a recruitment tool My perspective is deeply personal often laced with criticism and irony Those with unwavering devotion to the military or the French Republic may find my viewpoint idiosyncratic These are the reflections of a former immigrant who served those five years pursuing French citizenship and whose experiences were inevitably shaped by individual perspectives expectations and beliefs The content is divided into parts related to my stay in certain regiments of the Foreign Legion 1 RE 4 RE 3 REI These parts are divided into specific chapters and then into more particular mini themes If you aim to inform yourself about something specific you can find it in a table of contents If the topic is irrelevant the reader can skip it and go to the content he is more interested in If all goes well the content presented here will be Part 1 mainly describing my first steps of emigration boot camp and my stay in French Guiana Contentious City John Mollenkopf,2005-08-25 Few public projects have ever dealt with economic and emotional issues as large as those surrounding the rebuilding of lower Manhattan following the terrorist attack of September 11 2001 Picking up the pieces involved substantial challenges deciding how to memorialize one of America s greatest tragedies how to balance the legal claim of landowners against the moral claim of survivors who want a say in the future of

Ground Zero and how to rebuild the Trade Center site while preserving the sacredness and solemnity that Americans now attribute to the area. All the while the governor, the mayor, the Port Authority and the leaseholder competed with one another to advance their own interests and visions of the redevelopment while at least leaving the impression that the decisions were the public's to make. In Contentious City, editor John Mollenkopf and a team of leading scholars analyze the wide-ranging political dimensions of the recovery process. Contentious City takes an in-depth look at the competing interests and demands of the numerous stakeholders who have sought to influence the direction of the recovery process. Lynne Sagalyn addresses the complicated institutional politics behind the rebuilding which involve a newly formed development commission seeking legitimacy, a two-state transportation agency whose brief venture into land ownership puts it in control of the world's most famous 16 acres of land and a private business group whose affiliation with the World Trade Center places it squarely in a fight for billions of dollars in insurance funds. Arielle Goldberg profiles five civic associations that sprouted up to voice public opinion about the redevelopment process. While the groups did not gain much leverage over policy outcomes, Goldberg argues that they were influential in steering the agenda of decision makers and establishing what values would be prioritized in the development plans. James Young, a member of the jury that selected the design for the World Trade Center site memorial, discusses the challenge of trying to simultaneously memorialize a tragic event while helping those who suffered find renewal and move on with their lives. Editor John Mollenkopf contributes a chapter on how the September 11 terrorist attacks altered the course of politics in New York and how politicians at the city and state level adapted to the new political climate after 9/11 to win elected office. Moving forward after the destruction of the Twin Towers was a daunting task made more difficult by the numerous competing claims on the site and the varied opinions on how it should be used in the future. Contentious City brings together the voices surrounding this intense debate and helps make sense of the rival interests vying for control over one of the most controversial urban development programs in history. New Strangers in Paradise Gilbert H. Muller, 2014-07-11 New Strangers in Paradise offers the first in-depth account of the ways in which contemporary American fiction has been shaped by the successive generations of immigrants to reach U.S. shores. Gilbert Muller reveals how the intersections of peoples, regions and competing cultural histories have remade the American cultural landscape in the aftermath of World War II. Muller focuses on the literature of Holocaust survivors, Chicanos, Latinos, African Caribbeans and Asian Americans. In the quest for a new identity, each of these groups seeks the American dream and rewrites the story of what it means to be an American. New Strangers in Paradise explores the psychology of uprooted peoples and the relations of culture and power, addressing issues of race and ethnicity, multiculturalism and pluralism and national and international conflicts. Examining the groups of immigrants in the cultural and historical context both of America and of the lands from which they originated, Muller argues that this fourth wave of immigration has led to a creative flowering in modern fiction. The book offers a fresh perspective on the writings of Vladimir

Nabokov Sual Bellow William Styron Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Oscar Hijuelos Jamaica Kincaid Bharati Mukherjee Rudolfo Anaya and many others      Negotiating Identities Helen Grice, 2002-10-11 Negotiating Identities is a study of the development of writing by Asian American women in the 20th century with particular emphasis on the successful late 20th century writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Amy Tan Joy Kogawa Bharati Mukherjee and Gish Jen It relates the development of Asian writing by women in America with a comparative element incorporating Britain to a series of theoretical preoccupations the mother daughter dyad biracialism ethnic histories citizenship genre and the idea of home

How the West Was Lost Patrick Michael Murphy, 2005-05-18 His premise is that civilizations have life spans and the Western civilization that produced America and Europe has been replaced in our lifetime and before our very eyes To people whose minds were made by the West the civilization we now find ourselves in often feels wrong evil even but we also find ourselves feeling oddly affectionate toward this strange new world And the more time that passes the more normal the New Civ gets to feel We sometimes have to pinch ourselves to remember that society once had roots in a universe that knew something of moral absolutes where the horrible behaviors we now read about in every morning newspaper were so rare that one such event in a year would have felt like the world is just about to end But these things are what passes for normalcy today We are still able to be reminded of what we know in our bones although it gets harder all the time something has gone terribly wrong That s what this book is about      Woman's Home Missions of the Methodist Episcopal Church ,1924

Memory and Migration in the Shadow of War Joy Damousi, 2015-11-12 In an engaging and original contribution to the field of memory studies Joy Damousi considers the enduring impact of war on family memory in the Greek diaspora Focusing on Australia s Greek immigrants in the aftermath of the Second World War and the Greek Civil War the book explores the concept of remembrance within the larger context of migration to show how intergenerational experience of war and trauma transcend both place and nation Drawing from the most recent research in memory trauma and transnationalism Memory and Migration in the Shadow of War deals with the continuities and discontinuities of war stories assimilation in modern Australia politics and activism child migration and memories of mothers and children in war Damousi sheds new light on aspects of forgotten memory and silence within families and communities and in particular the ways in which past experience of violence and tragedy is both negotiated and processed      Just Peace Theory Book One Valerie Elverton

Dixon, 2012-11-29 In these essays I often refer to social contracts such as the Declaration of Independence the Constitution of the United States the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and other international conventions that describe a vision of just human relations especially in the area of culture and health care We do not live behind a veil of ignorance where we enter into contemplation of questions of right and wrong without an awareness of our own particularities Moreover we do not always determine what is right based on reason But we do make decisions every day about how we will live within the social contracts that govern our lives Many of us go along to get along with a lets not rock the boat preserve the status quocaution

Then there are those of us who use the documents of our social contracts to secure more justice and more peace The purpose is to rock the boat and to disrupt the status quo when it is unjust I understand Christ as a title not as a person It is a designation of an anointing This in my opinion is the anointing of radical love Christ is the human incarnation of divine love We each ought to strive to become this whether or not we are Christian whether or not we are even believers Those of us who are Christians believe that Jesus paid it all There is no more need for blood shed sacrifice Murder is never holy God does not need it or want it Our work now is to become living sacrifices that will redeem this world through justice and peace That is the meaning of these essays From the Introduction      The Shadow in the Garden James Atlas,2017-08-22 The biographer so often in the shadows kibitzing casting doubt proving facts comes to the stage in this funny poignant endearing tale of how writers lives get documented James Atlas the celebrated chronicler of Saul Bellow and Delmore Schwartz takes us back to his own childhood in suburban Chicago where he fell in love with literature and early on found in himself the impulse to study writers lives We meet Richard Ellmann the great biographer of James Joyce and Atlas s professor during a transformative year at Oxford We get to know Atlas s first subject the self doomed poet Delmore Schwartz And we are introduced to a bygone cast of intellectuals such as Edmund Wilson and Dwight Macdonald the tall pines as Mary McCarthy once called them cut down now according to Atlas by the merciless pruning of mortality and of course the elusive Bellow a metaphysician of the ordinary Atlas revisits the lives and works of the classical biographers the Renaissance writers of what were then called lives Samuel Johnson and the obsessive Boswell and the Victorian masters Mrs Gaskell and Thomas Carlyle And in what amounts to a pocket history of his own literary generation Atlas celebrates the biographers who hoped to glimpse an image of them as fleeting as a familiar face swallowed up in a crowd With black and white illustrations throughout

Through Different Eyes J. Barbara Alvord,2004-03-14 What happens when a meagerly educated peasant girl is chosen in 1903 to leave her family and accompany her illiterate godfather from Europe to the Midlands of America Young Anna Barbara Mrkvicka left the dirt floor of her over crowded one room home to enter an unknown world and overwhelming challenges at every turn Through Different Eyes describes the back breaking peasant life of that era Anna worked in the fields at six years of age It travels with the young peasant in steerage on a daunting ocean voyage and it reveals the frustrating immigrant experience of Ellis Island It explores the sounds and smells of sleeping for six weeks on steamy tenement rooftops of New York Citys dangerous Lower East Side sometimes with a knife handy for protection The journey includes a lengthy train ride into the Heartland of the United States reveals the anxiety of arriving to work with strangers on an isolated farmstead in early Iowa With no way to learn the English language of America for three hard years the frightened girl was unable to escape an abusive step aunt She was neither paid for her exhausting farm work nor allowed enough to eat she was beaten Yet Anna not only miraculously survived her ordeals her grit and determination at last enabled her to bring all seven members of her family and a foster brother to Iowa in 1909 It was just in time World War I was threatening to

Hebrew in America Alan L. Mintz,1993 Among the millions of Jews who immigrated to America in the early twentieth century there were the few for whom Hebrew culture was an important ideal Reaching a critical mass around World War I these American Hebraists attempted to establish a vital Hebrew culture in America They founded journals and wrote Hebrew poetry fiction and essays largely about the American Jewish experience and they succeeded in putting a Hebraist stamp upon most of the Jewish education that took place between the two world wars Hebrew in America is the first book to fully explore the Jewish attachment to Hebrew in twentieth century North America Fifteen leading scholars in Judaic studies write about the legacy of American Hebraism and the claims it continues to make upon the soul of the American Jewish community While they might commonly lament the eclipse of Hebrew in America they speak with many different voices when it comes to the analysis of problems and the prospects for change Several writers look backward to the impact of the Hebrew movement in America on literature and education Others consider the implications of Hebrew s arrival on the college campus Another emphasis of the book is the relationship between language and culture in the case of Hebrew from anthropological educational and linguistic perspectives And finally several essays assess the role of Hebrew in the development of Jewish leadership in America as regards the relationship with the classic past and with contemporary Israel      Within Our Gates
