Food Nerd Gel Gepsy, 2016-05-02 Recently a friend of mine lost her sight The reason diabetes I immediately called for an appointment After the usual battery of tests the ophthalmologist declared with a smile you have the eyes of a 20 year old At 59 my eyes are as good as nearly 40 years ago So how to keep healthy eyes Naturally on top of the list UV protection glasses but the big surprise was to learn the importance of eating a variety of vegetables and fruits With a degree in Biochemistry and a Ph D in Medical Information I have some knowledge of physiology and metabolism However I needed to learn more about nutrition and decided to read the latest scientific studies and I discovered surprising facts For example tomato sauce has more anti oxidant than fresh tomatoes In addition the anti oxidant lycopene is fat soluble cooking tomatoes with oil helps its absorption Do you know that when cooking hamburger meat or meat patties you should add turmeric spice and black pepper to decrease lipid peroxidation which is the oxidative degradation of lipids and can result in cell damage By the way you may feel happier as well Curcumin which is present in turmeric cooked with piperine in black pepper has antidepressant properties And while you are it serve to your guests cold potato salad Cooked potatoes are tasty and contain nutrients especially if you keep the skin However a cold potato salad contains a type of resistant starch that can reduce the risk of developing colorectal cancer You can also get healthy resistant starch by cooking brown rice with a teaspoon of coconut oil then let it cool down A clinical study found that Ginger is as effective as ibuprofen in relieving menstrual pain The recent discovery of a 9th century medicinal recipe with garlic and onion has been shown to destroy 90% of Staphylococcus aureus an antibiotic resistant bacteria Initially I compiled my notes with all scientific references The list grew very fast So I organized the notes by subjects and finally wrote a book with references historical backgrounds traditional recipes and also a trivia with amusing facts First and foremost this book is an advocacy of simple tasty and healthy food based on the latest scientific publications and also fun historical facts Bon App tit

Seeking the South Rob Newton,2019-10-01 A modern day Southern cookbook that celebrates the region s growing diversity from chef and restaurateur Rob Newton There s no genre of American cuisine as storied as Southern says Rob Newton In his debut cookbook Newton brings to life the regional distinctions and new influences that make up the changing face of Southern cuisine a category of cooking as cutting edge as any other in the world As Southern regions demographics shift and food cultures bump up against one another Chef Newton reveals just how diverse Southern cuisine really is As Newton explains the pork and beans he grew up eating in the mountains of the Ozarks is very different from the shellfish heavy food of the Lowcountry or the Cajun influenced fare along the Gulf Coast And though often overlooked historically underrecognized populations have constantly reimaged what the Southern table looks like with their culinary contributions Enslaved African cooks perfected fried chicken Middle Eastern communities helped introduce spices such as sumac to the Mississippi Delta and Korean and Mexican immigrants continue to reinvent the grilled meats and pickled vegetables that Southerners know and love In Seeking the South Newton brings his unique perspective to show readers there s much more to the food below the Mason Dixon Line than meets the eye Crisscrossing the South the Upper and Deep South Gulf Coast Coastal Plains and Piedmont and Lowcountry and Southeast Coast Newton shares more than 125 recipes as old and familiar as Pork Hocks with Hominy and as current as Okra with Sichuan Peppercorn and Black Eyed Pea Falafel To Newton Southern cuisine delights because it is delicious and above all endlessly dynamic In this cookbook he brings this exciting evolution of flavors to your table
