Zulu Warriors John Laband, 2014-05-27 The Anglo Zulu War the most famous of Britain's late nineteenth century campaigns of colonial conquest was not fought in isolation Along with the two Anglo Pedi wars the Ninth Cape Frontier War and the Northern Border War it was one in a brutal series of interconnected and overlapping wars which the British waged between 1877 1879 to crush and disarm the remaining independent black states of South Africa Fusing the widely differing African and European perspectives on events the author probes the fateful decisions taken by statesmen and military commanders analyses military operations and their destructive impact on combatants and civilians alike and explores why so many Africans chose to fight as auxiliaries and levies alongside the British instead of against them Jacket

The South African Gandhi Ashwin Desai, Goolam Vahed, 2015-10-07 A biography detailing Gandhi's twenty year stay in South Africa and his attitudes and behavior in the nation's political context In the pantheon of freedom fighters Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi has pride of place His fame and influence extend far beyond India and are nowhere more significant than in South Africa India gave us a Mohandas we gave them a Mahatma goes a popular South African refrain Contemporary South African leaders including Mandela have consistently lauded him as being part of the epic battle to defeat the racist white regime The South African Gandhi focuses on Gandhi's first leadership experiences and the complicated man they reveal a man who actually supported the British Empire Ashwin Desai and Goolam Vahed unveil a man who throughout his stay on African soil stayed true to Empire while showing a disdain for Africans For Gandhi whites and Indians were bonded by an Aryan bloodline that had no place for the African Gandhi's racism was matched by his class prejudice towards the Indian indentured He persistently claimed that they were ignorant and needed his leadership and he wrote their resistances and compromises in surviving a brutal labor regime out of history The South African Gandhi writes the indentured and working class back into history The authors show that Gandhi never missed an opportunity to show his loyalty to Empire with a particular penchant for war as a means to do so He served as an Empire stretcher bearer in the Boer War while the British occupied South Africa he demanded guns in the aftermath of the Bhambatha Rebellion and he toured the villages of India during the First World War as recruiter for the Imperial army This meticulously researched book punctures the dominant narrative of Gandhi and uncovers an ambiguous figure whose time on African soil was marked by a desire to seek the integration of Indians minus many basic rights into the white body politic while simultaneously excluding Africans from his moral compass and political ideals Praise for The South African Gandhi In this impressively researched study two South African scholars of Indian background bravely challenge political myth making on both sides of the Indian Ocean that has sought to canonize Gandhi as a founding father of the struggle for equality there They show that the Mahatma to be carefully refrained from calling on his followers to throw in their lot with the black majority The mass struggle he finally led remained an Indian struggle Joseph Lelyveld author of Great Soul Mahatma Gandhi and His Struggle with India This is a wonderful demonstration of meticulously researched evocative clear eyed and fearless history writing It uncovers a story some might even call it a scandal that has remained hidden in plain sight for far too long The South African Gandhi is a big book It is a serious challenge to the way we have been taught to think about Gandhi

Arundhati Roy author of The God of Small Things A Prophet of the People Lauren V. Jarvis, 2024-03-01 In 1910 Isaiah Shembe was struggling He had left his family and quit his job as a sanitation worker to become a Baptist evangelist but he ended his first mission without much to show Little did he know that he would soon establish the Nazareth Church as he began to attract attention from people left behind by industrial capitalism in South Africa By his death in 1935 Shembe was an internationally known prophet and healer described by his peers as better off than all the Black people In A Prophet of the People Isaiah Shembe and the Making of a South African Church historian Lauren V Jarvis provides a fascinating and intimate portrait of one of South Africa's most famous religious figures and in turn the making of modern South Africa Following Shembe from his birth in the 1860s across many environments and contexts Jarvis illuminates the tight links between the spread of Christianity strategies of evasion and the capacious forms of community that continue to shape South Africa today

National Identity and State Formation in Africa Manuel Castells, Bernard Lategan, 2021-03-17 This book examines how the interplay between globalization and the assertion of local identities is reshaping the political landscape of Africa While defending their values against external forces people simultaneously and paradoxically use the interconnectivity of global networks to maximize their particular interests Focusing on the relation between national identity and state formation the authors explore the far reaching consequences of these contradictory dynamics Although Africa shares many common trends with other parts of the world it also displays distinctive features A region characterized by the increased mobility of people goods and ideas challenges some conventional assumptions of statecraft and also highlights the advantages of federalism not merely as a constitutional option but as a pragmatic device for managing diversity and holding fragile states together The book further explores emerging types of state formation in the same political space as exemplified by the combination of elements of a kingdom an independent state and a national power base in the province of KwaZulu Natal and the careful crafting of an alternative state within a state by the Solidarity Movement in South Africa Informed by examples and case studies drawn from different parts of Africa this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of Africa politics sociology media studies and the social sciences more generally

Inequality in Financial Capitalism Pasquale Tridico, 2017-03-16 Recently the issue of inequality has regained attention in the economic and political debate This is due to both an increase in income inequality in particular among rich countries and an increasing interest in this issue by researchers and politicians In the last three decades income inequality among rich countries increased This period also witnessed the growth of financial capitalism characterised by the strong dependency of economies on the financial sector by the globalisation and intensification of international trade and capital mobility and by the flexibilisation of labour markets and the reduction of wage shares From the 1980s to the present day this book considers the theoretical aspects of inequality its foundations definitions approaches and origins and examines empirical evidence of income inequality in a wide range of advanced economies The key arguments in this volume are that income inequality increased during this period because labour and welfare became seen as costs to be compressed in financial capitalism rather than as a fundamental part of aggregate demand to be expanded However the welfare state is not a drain on economic performance and competitiveness nor is it a barrier to economic efficiency Instead it is demonstrated that in countries that adopt welfare capitalism welfare state expenditure not only contributes to a reduction in inequality but also fosters economic growth Inequality in Financial Capitalism is of great importance to those who study economics political economy labour economics and globalisation

Battle Graeme Callister, Rachael Whitbread, 2022-10-07 What are the critical factors that determine the outcome of battles Which is more decisive in a clash of arms armies or the societies they represent How important is the leadership of the commanders the terrain over which the armies fight the weapons they use and the supplies they depend on And what about the rules of war and the strategic thinking and tactics of the time These are among the questions Graeme Callister and Rachael Whitbread seek to answer as they demonstrate the breadth of factors that need to be taken into account to truly understand battle Their book traces the evolution of warfare over time exploring the changing influence of the social political technological and physical landscape on the field of battle itself They examine how the motivation of the combatants and their methods of fighting have changed and they illustrate their conclusions with vivid carefully chosen examples from across a range of Western European military history including the Norman Conquest the Hundred Years War the Wars of Religion the Napoleonic Wars and the world wars and beyond By exploring the wide range of interconnected factors that influence the results of battles the authors broaden the study of this aspect of military history from a narrow focus on isolated episodes of conflict Their original and thought provoking writing will be fascinating reading for all students of warfare

Narrative Psychology and Vygotsky in Dialogue Jill Bradbury, 2019-09-06 This book draws together two domains of psychological theory Vygotsky's cultural historical theory of cognition and narrative theories of identity to offer a way of rethinking the human subject as embodied relational and temporal A dialogue between these two ostensibly disparate and contested theoretical trajectories provides a new vantage point from which to explore questions of personal and political change In a world of deepening inequalities and increasing economic precarity the demand for free decolonised quality education as articulated by the South African Student Movement and in many other contexts around the world is disrupting established institutional practices and reinvigorating possibilities for change This context provokes new lines of hopeful thought and critical reflection on discontinuities across historical time theories of social and psychological developmental processes and the practices of intergenerational life particularly in the domain of education for the making of emancipatory futures This is essential reading for academics and students interested in Vygotskian and narrative theory and critical psychology as well as those interested in the politics and praxis of higher education Marital Rape Kersti Yllö, M. Gabriela Torres, 2016-05-09 Rape in marriage is a global problem affecting millions of women it is still legal in many countries and was only criminalized in all U S states in 1993 In much of the world marital rape is too often understood as an oxymoron due to the fact that the ideology of permanent consent underlies the legal and cultural definitions of sex in marriage From Vietnam to Guatemala to South Africa and beyond this volume examines how cultural legal public health and human rights policies and practices impact intimate partner violence While legal and cultural conceptions of marital rape vary widely from criminal assault to wifely duty this volume offers evidence from different societies that forced sex undermines the physical and psychological well being of the women who experience it regardless of their cultural context Globally the nature of marriage is changing and so are notions of individual choice love intimacy and rigid gender roles Marital Rape documents wide ranging and fluid understandings of sex consent and rape in marriage such an array of perspectives demands an international and interdisciplinary approach to the study of sex and gender based violence This text brings together an international group of scholars from the fields of anthropology sociology criminology law public health and human rights their work points to the importance of understanding the lived experience of sexual violence for the design of effective and culturally sensitive public policy and practice Ruling the World Alan Lester, Kate Boehme, Peter Mitchell, 2021-01-07 Reveals how the British Empire s governing men enforced their ideas of freedom civilization and liberalism around the world Ethnographies of Austerity Daniel Knight, Charles Stewart, 2018-10-03 Some of the worst effects of the global economic downturn that commenced in 2008 have been felt in Europe and specifically in the Eurozone s so called PIIGS Portugal Italy Ireland Greece and Spain and Cyprus This edited volume is the first collection to bring together ethnographies of living with austerity inside the Eurozone and explore how people across Southern Europe have come to understand their experiences of increased social suffering insecurity and material poverty The contributors focus on how crises stimulate temporal thought temporality whether tilted in the direction of historicizing presentifying futural thought or some combination of these possibilities One of the themes linking diverse crisis experiences across national boundaries is how people contemplate their present conditions and potential futures in terms of the past The studies in this collection thus supply ethnographies that journey to the source of historical production by identifying the ways in which the past may be activated lived embodied and refashioned under contracting economic horizons In times of crisis modern linear historicism is often overridden and overwritten by other historicities showing that in crises not only time but history itself as an organizing structure and set of expectations is up for grabs and can be refashioned according to new rules This book was originally published as a special issue of History and Anthropology Handbook of BRICS and Emerging Economies PB Anand, Shailaja Fennell, Flavio Comim, 2020-12-16 Ever since Jim O'Neill at Goldman Sachs coined the term BRICS in 2001 there have been many different assessments of these major emerging economies with some even proclaiming that the promise of the BRICS comprising Brazil Russia India China and South Africa is over However the so called arranged marriage still seems to be working well with the club having become a formal international forum with summit declarations ministerial meetings and numerous BRICS wide fora Is this euphoria misplaced Is there a BRICS model of economic and human development Are inequalities increasing and is this the denouncement of the economic successes Are geo political tensions rising between these nations During the post COVID 19 situation the importance of bilateral and multilateral co operation mechanisms and institutions is becoming clear This book focuses on one such emerging co operation mechanism of BRICS but also more widely on those five countries and other similar economies As a global depression looms large global economic recovery depends on the performance of not only its largest economies but also many other important and significant economies within the so called G20 group Even prior to the COVID 19 outbreak multilateral institutions have been under considerable strain as with the relationship between the United States of America and China and risks to global economic recovery appear very real This book brings together multi disciplinary perspectives from over sixty scholars and it presents a comprehensive and deep dive into the BRICS and emerging economies and into an understanding the political economic and social contexts that can help in designing approaches for recovery and regaining the last momentum in the journey towards the Sustainable Development Goals Knowledge Engineering and Knowledge Management Eva Blomqvist, Paolo Ciancarini, Francesco Poggi, Fabio Vitali, 2016-11-12 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 20th International Conference on Knowledge Engineering and Knowledge Management EKAW 2016 held in Bologna Italy in November 2016 The 51 full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from 171 submissions The papers cover all aspects of eliciting acquiring modeling and managing knowledge the construction of knowledge intensive systems and services for the Semantic Web knowledge management e business natural language processing intelligent information integration personal digital assistance systems and a variety of other related topics A special focus was on evolving knowledge i e the impact of space and time on knowledge representation concerning all aspects of the management and acquisition of knowledge representation of evolving contextual and local models Library Catalogue of the Institute of Race Relations, London: Author catalogue Institute of Race Relations, Institute of Race Relations. Library, 1981 The Cinema of Apartheid Keyan Tomaselli, 2013-12-13 This study analyses the historical development of South African cinema up to the book's original publication in 1988 It describes the films and comments on their relationship to South African realities addressing all aspects of the industry focusing on domestic production but also discussing international film companies who use South Africa as a location It explores tensions between English language and Afrikaans language films and between films made for blacks and films made for whites Going behind the scenes the author looks at the financial infrastructure the marketing strategies and the work habits of the film industry He concludes with a discussion of independent filmmaking the obstacles facing South Africans who want to make films with artistic and political integrity and the possibilities of progress in the future Includes comprehensive bibliography and filmography listing all feature films made in South Africa between 1910 and 1985 together with documentary films by South Africans non South Africans and exiles about the country Turning Water into a Commodity Christiane Tristl, 2025-07-31 Pay as you go water dispensers are used in many areas in the Global South particularly those that are off grid This book examines the increasing influence of private corporations and philanthrocapitalist principles in development cooperation in the SDG era by focusing on water supply to the inhabitants of rural and peri urban areas of Kenya The book explores how private sector approaches and digital technologies open up remote regions to permanent arrangements of transnational market based water supply beyond state sovereignty which define their users as paying customers Considering these technological solutions alongside socio political realities and local knowledge it offers a nuanced perspective on the promises and limitations of market based interventions in the water sector

Shadow of Liberation Vishnu Padayachee, Robert Van Niekerk, 2019-10-01 Shadow of Liberation explores the intricate twists turns contestations and compromises of ANC economic and social policymaking with a focus on the transition era of the 1990s and the early years of democracy With the damning revelations by the Zondo Commission of Inquiry into State Capture on the massive corruption of the South African body politic the timing of this book could not be more relevant South Africans need to confront the economic and social policy choices that the liberation movement made and to see how these decisions may have facilitated the conditions for corruption to emerge and flourish Answers are needed Padayachee and van Niekerk focus their attention on the primary question of how and why the ANC given its historical anti inequality redistributive stance came in the 1990s to such a dramatic turn around and move towards an essentially market dominated approach Were they pushed or did they go willingly What role if any did Western governments and international financial institutions play And what of the role of the late apartheid state and South African business Did leaders and comrades sell out the ANC's emancipatory policy vision Shadow of Liberation tries to provide answers to these questions drawing on the best available primary archival evidence as well as extensive interviews with key protagonists across the political non government and business spectrum The authors argue that the ANC's emancipatory policy agenda was broadly to establish a social democratic welfare state upholding rights of social citizenship However its economic policy framework to realise this emancipatory mission was either non existent or egregiously misguided
