Bingo Capitalism Kate Bedford, 2019-09-26 Casinos are often used by political economists and popular commentators to think critically about capitalism Bingo an equal chance numbers game played in many parts of the world is overlooked in these conversations about gambling and political economy Bingo Capitalism challenges that omission by asking what bingo in England and Wales can teach us about capitalism and the regulation of everyday gambling economies The book draws on official records of parliamentary debate case law regulations and in depth interviews with both bingo players and workers to offer the first socio legal account of this globally significant and immensely popular pastime It explores the legal and political history of bingo and how gender shapes and is shaped by diverse state rules on gambling It also sheds light on the regulation of workers players products places and technologies In so doing it adds a vital new dimension to accounts of UK gambling law and regulation Through Bingo Capitalism Bedford makes a key theoretical contribution to our understanding of the relationship between gambling and political economy showing the role of the state in supporting and then eclipsing environments where gambling played a key role as mutual aid In centring the regulatory entanglement between vernacular play forms self organised membership activity and corporate leisure experiences she offers a fresh vision of gambling law from the everyday perspective of bingo

Revolutionary Art and Politics in Egypt Rounwah Adly Riyadh Bseiso, 2023-01-26 This book examines the role of artists in Egypt during the 2011 revolution when street art from graffiti to political murals became ubiquitous facets of revolutionary spaces Through interviews personal testimonies and accounts of the lived experience of 25 street artists the book explores the meaning of art in revolutionary political contexts specifically by focusing on artistic production during liminal moments as the events of the Egyptian revolution unfolded The author privileges the perspective of the actors themselves to examine the ways that artists reacted to events and conceived of their art as means to further the goals of the revolution Based on fieldwork conducted in the years since 2011 the book provides a narrative of Egyptian artists participation in and representations of the revolution from hopeful beginnings to the subsequent crackdown and election of al Sisi      A People Under Siege Aaron Edwards, 2023-05-03 Since the Brexit referendum of 2016 extraordinary uncertainty has hung over the future of the Union between Great Britain and Northern Ireland creating a crisis for the unionist community A referendum that began on the question of sovereignty quickly degenerated into cries of betrayal over a redrawn border in the Irish Sea and has led to unionists becoming more insular again resurrecting ethnic and nationalist notions of what constitutes the Union In A People Under Siege historian Aaron Edwards a native of Belfast explores the profound challenges facing the community and in the process articulates what is really meant by unionism He explains key developments within unionism over the past turbulent century and examines how a people who believe themselves to be once again under siege are viewed by others beyond their community In doing so he confronts the narrow sectional beliefs and prejudices of unionists and loyalists as well as outlining their more positive and forward thinking aspects By embracing these Edwards explains how divisions could be healed and a position reached of mutual acceptance tolerance and understanding that will benefit the entire population      Governing Disasters Shahla F. Ali, 2016-06-30 With growing awareness of the devastation caused by major natural disasters alongside integration of governance and technology networks the parameters of humanitarian aid are becoming more global At the same time humanitarian instruments are increasingly recognizing the centrality of local participation Drawing on six case studies and a survey of sixty nine members of the relief sector this book suggests that the key to the efficacy of post disaster recovery is the primacy given to local actors in the management direction and design of relief programs Where local partnership and knowledge generation and application is ongoing cohesive meaningful and inclusive disaster relief efforts are more targeted cost effective efficient and timely Governing Disasters Engaging Local Populations in Humanitarian Relief examines the interplay between law governance and collaborative decision making with international state private sector and community actors in order to understand the dynamics of a global decentralized yet coordinated process of post disaster humanitarian assistance      Asia in International Relations Pinar Bilgin, L.H.M. Ling, 2017-02-01 Asia in International Relations decolonizes conventional understandings and representations of Asia in International Relations IR This book opens by including all those geographical and cultural linkages that constitute Asia today but are generally ignored by mainstream IR Covering the Indian subcontinent Turkey the Mediterranean Iran the Arab world Ethiopia and Central Northeast Southeast Asia the volume draws on rich literatures to develop our understanding of power relations in the world s largest continent Contributors de colonize de imperialize and de Cold War the region to articulate an alternative narrative about Asia world politics and IR This approach reframes old problems in new ways with the possibility of transforming them rather than recycling the same old approaches with the same old intractable outcomes
