Airships Iver P. Cooper, 2025-05-16 Many people may know about the blazing crash of the Hindenburg in 1937 but are possibly unaware that it had made 62 flights before its final journey including one transporting author Leslie Charteris, creator of The Saint. The disaster however did not end the airship era. Blimps escorted convoys during World War II and were a part of air defense systems in the 1950s and 1960s. Airships still fly today and new models are in the construction phase. This book examines this branch of aviation history, delving into the science and engineering of airships and their design flaws, weather difficulties and operational errors. The chapters focus on function, lift, propulsion, materials, ground handling and so forth. The book concludes with speculations about future airship designs and missions.

Food and Cooking Skills Education Anita Tull, 2018-01-29 Food and Cooking Skills Education FCSE is a complex mix of policy and practicality, educational theory and pedagogy, classroom and government policy. This book shows how FCSE has been at the centre of a tussle between education and policy for decades. It reviews how FCSE has grappled with various significant issues of concern that threaten to marginalise it and pose problems for educational practicalities as expectations are increased but resources are squeezed It assesses the debate about the significance and importance of acquiring practical food and cooking skills in a society where the purchase of ready made food has become commonplace and public knowledge of where our food comes from is noticeably lacking This has contributed to the escalating incidence of diet related diseases and the attendant cost to society and threatened environmental sustainability In turn governments have reacted by proposals to make practical cooking skills a statutory National Curriculum subject as part of the armoury for tackling such costs Based on detailed research conducted across England and Wales as well as comparisons with thirty five other countries or states the author makes recommendations for policy to manage this challenge facing contemporary society Poor's ,1935 Poor's ,1925 Innovative Process Development in Metallurgical Industry Vaikuntam Iyer Lakshmanan,Raja Roy,V.
