ECRM2014-Proceedings of the 13th European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Martin Rich, Dr Anne Brown, 2014-06-16 ICAS2014-International Conference on Analytics Driven Solutions Eduardo Rodriguez, Department of Leisure Studies Greg Richards, Greg Richards, 2014-09-10 EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all UNESCO, 2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education Financial Literacy Education Chris Arthur, 2012-10-13 Consumer financial literacy education often appears as a helpful commonsense solution to neoliberalism and the individualization of responsibility for economic risk However in Financial Literacy Education Neoliberalism the Consumer and the Citizen this particular literacy is argued to be both ineffective and unjust Socially created poverty unemployment and economic insecurity require more than individual consumer solutions they require collective responses by engaged critical citizens Utilizing concepts from Marx Foucault Bourdieu and Baudrillard this book challenges those who claim that there is no alternative to neoliberal insecurity and reduce education to a consumerist training of entrepreneurial consumer citizens who can continually invest in themselves and the market Through an analysis of consumer financial literacy education's present and historical supports as well as its likely effects this book argues that the choice before us is not financial illiteracy or financial literacy Rather the choice is between subjugation to the requirements of perpetual competition or overcoming alienation insecurity and exploitation aims the critical financial literacy education outlined at the end of this book supports This book will appeal to those interested in understanding the conditions of our freedom in an increasingly financialized world critical educators philosophers and sociologists of education and financial literacy researchers Common Sense Questions about Tests Gerard Giordano, 2016-03-07 Parents had questions about the tests their children took at school They considered them to be common sense questions They posed them to the businesspeople publishers and politicians who championed tests They also posed them to the school administrators teachers and union leaders who criticized them This book examines the questions the parents posed the answers they elicited and the changes they prodded University Trends Jonathan Coulson, Paul Roberts, Isabelle Taylor, 2014-09-15 A university campus is a place with special resonance conjuring images of cloistered quadrangles and wood panelled libraries often echoing centuries of scholarly tradition And yet it is also a place of cutting edge science interactive learning youth vibrancy and energy It is this dual nature which makes the physical environment of a university so dynamic as well as a highly challenging landscape to design and manage successfully Today the scale of the pressures and the rate of change facing higher education institutions are greater than ever Squeezed public spending rising tuition fees and the growing education ambitions of developing nations are set against a backdrop of rapid technological progress and changing pedagogies What are the repercussions for the physical realities of university planning and architecture And how are university campuses adapting to contend with these pressures University Trends introduces the most significant widespread and thought provoking trends in campus design today Part 1 identifies current trends such as starchitecture large scale campus extensions adaptive re use and international branch campuses Part 2 profiles each trend via highly illustrated global case studies of well publicised as well as lesser known projects The essential guide to current and future trends in campus design Contemporary BRICS Journalism Svetlana Pasti,Jyotika Ramaprasad,2017-11-22

Contemporary BRICS Journalism Non Western Media in Transition is the first comparative study of professional journalists working in BRICS countries Brazil Russia India China and South Africa The book presents a range of insider perspectives offering a valuable insight into the nature of journalism in these influential economies Contributors to this volume have conducted in depth interviews with more than 700 journalists from mainstream and online media between 2012 and 2015 They present and analyse their findings here revealing how BRICS journalism is envisioned experienced and practised in the twenty first century Compelling evidence in the form of journalists narratives reveals the impact of digital culture on modern reporting and the evolving dynamic between new media technology and traditional journalistic practice Insightful comparisons are made between BRICS countries highlighting the similarities and differences between them Topics covered include professionalism ethics and ideals community journalism technological developments in the newsroom and the reporting of protest movements This book s ambitious analysis of journalistic landscapes across these non Western nations will significantly broaden the scope of study and research in the field of journalism for students and teachers of communication journalism and media studies Resources in Education ,1986 Education Mania Joshua Flapan,2023 Education Mania Is a University The New Doctor is about people who think that a college degree is a real degree In fact the doctorate is doing the goals of the college In many ways the full benefits of a college degree go to the doctorate Like in the majors in the field of engineering psychology and English there are a lot of college grads around the world who face the food stamp line and it is contrary to how the university gets people a job The scandal involves an essay and dissertation That is an approximately five chapter essay Also the book has introductions to explain to the reader how a university degree becomes a new doctor My book explores solutions to subject areas that prove the doctor is the new college The solutions include having college to nothing getting rid of the bus child labor and apprentices Japan's New Regional Reality Saori N.

Katada,2020-07-07 Since the mid 1990s Japan s regional economic strategy has transformed Once characterized by bilateralism informality and neomercantilism Japanese policy has shifted to a new liberal strategy emphasizing regional institution building and rule setting As two major global powers China and the United States wrestle over economic advantages Japan currently occupies a pivotal position capable of tipping the geoeconomic balance in the region Japan's New Regional Reality offers a comprehensive analysis of Japan's geoeconomic strategy that reveals the country's role in shaping regional economic order in the Asia Pacific Saori N Katada explains Japanese foreign economic policy in light of both international and domestic dynamics She points out the hurdles to implementing a state led liberal strategy detailing how domestic political and institutional changes have been much slower and stickier than the changing regional economics Katada highlights state market relations and shows how big businesses have responded to the country's interventionist policies The book covers a wide range of economic issues including trade investment finance currency and foreign aid Japan's New Regional Reality is a meticulously researched study of the dynamics that have contributed to economic and political realities in the Asia Pacific today with significant implications for future regional trends

Rage Becomes Her Soraya Chemaly, 2018-09-11 A BEST BOOK OF 2018 SELECTION NPR The Washington Post Book Riot Autostraddle Psychology Today A BEST FEMINIST BOOK SELECTION Refinery 29 Book Riot Autostraddle BITCH Rage Becomes Her is an utterly eye opening Bustle book that gives voice to the causes expressions and possibilities of female rage As women we've been urged for so long to bottle up our anger letting it corrode our bodies and minds in ways we don't even realize Yet there are so many legitimate reasons for us to feel angry ranging from blatant horrifying acts of misogyny to the subtle drip drip drip of daily sexism that reinforces the absurdly damaging gender norms of our society In Rage Becomes Her Soraya Chemaly argues that our anger is not only justified it is also an active part of the solution We are so often encouraged to resist our rage or punished for justifiably expressing it yet how many remarkable achievements would never have gotten off the ground without the kernel of anger that fueled them Approached with conscious intention anger is a vital instrument a radar for injustice and a catalyst for change On the flip side the societal and cultural belittlement of our anger is a cunning way of limiting and controlling our power one we can no longer abide A work of great spirit and verve Time Rage Becomes Her is a validating energizing read that will change the way you interact with the world around you

Pedagogy for Technology Education in Secondary Schools P. John Williams, David Barlex, 2020-05-21 This book explores pedagogy appropriate for the secondary school technology education classroom It covers the dimensions of pedagogy for technology with scholarly research including information strongly related to practice The book discusses the nature of technology courses in secondary schools across various jurisdictions and considers how they might be viewed with regard to different epistemological frameworks The writing is informed by but not limited to research and strongly related to practice with acknowledged experts in the field of technology education contributing chapters supported by evidence from technology education research or other fields The authors speculate on pedagogical possibilities in their areas of expertise in order to consider pedagogical possibilities and develop a view of where pedagogy for technology education should move and how teachers might respond in the way they develop their practice Society* Ronald J. Herring, 2014-12-31 Food has for most of our species history been intensely political who gets to eat what how often and through what means The scale of polity in question has shifted over time from very local institutions dividing up grain piles to an international community imagined in the Millennium Development Goals of the United Nations Simultaneously the numbers and interests of people asserting political stakes in food and agriculture have likewise shifted up and out Global networks advocate social justice in distal agrarian systems promotion of some farming techniques and prohibition of others food sovereignty or efficiencies of markets and trade Political consumerism allows the well endowed to vote with their dollars for changes in food systems far from home but depends on certification and labeling from unseen institutions As an object of governmentality food has never been so prominent The thirty five handbook chapters confront four major themes in the politics of food property technology justice and knowledge Ronald Herring s editorial introduction asks how food is political highlighting contention around the role of market state and information in societal decisions The first section of the handbook then examines technology science and knowledge in food production What is known and disputed about malnutrition poverty and food security The second section addresses ethics rights and distributive justice agrarian reform gender inequality entitlements and subsidies and the social vision of the alternative food movement The third section looks to intersections of agriculture and nature wild foods livestock agro ecological approaches to sustainability and climate change and genetic engineering The fourth section addresses food values and culture political consumerism labeling and certification the science and cultural politics of food safety values driving regulation of genetically modified foods and potential coexistence of GMOs and organic and conventional crops The fifth and final section looks at frontiers of global contentions rival transnational advocacy networks social movements for organic farming the who and why of international land grabbing junctures of cosmopolitan and local food narratives the supermarket revolution and the international agrifood industry in low income countries and politics of knowledge in agricultural futures

Rare Earth Frontiers Julie M. Klinger, 2018-01-15 Rare Earth Frontiers is a work of human geography that serves to demystify the powerful elements that make possible the miniaturization of electronics green energy and medical technologies and essential telecommunications and defense systems Julie Michelle Klinger draws attention to the fact that the rare earths we rely on most are as common as copper or lead and this means the implications of their extraction are global Klinger excavates the rich historical origins and ongoing ramifications of the quest to mine rare earths in ever more impossible places Klinger writes about the devastating damage to lives and the environment caused by the exploitation of rare earths She demonstrates in human terms how scarcity myths have been conscripted into diverse geopolitical campaigns that use rare earth mining as a pretext to capture spaces that have historically fallen beyond the grasp of centralized power These include legally and logistically forbidding locations in the Amazon Greenland and Afghanistan and on the Moon Drawing on ethnographic archival and interview data gathered in local languages and offering possible solutions to the problems it documents this book examines the production of the rare earth frontier as a place a concept and a zone of contestation sacrifice and transformation
