

The general effect which I received from the "The Great Gatsby" was bitterness. All along Tom showed nothing but harsh feelings for Gatsby. He was determined to expose the true character that Gatsby really was by exposing the truth behind the ways he made his money and became as rich as he was. Daisy herself felt bitterness toward Tom even though throughout the movie she seemed unaffected by the fact that Tom was having an affair with Myrtle.

This effect of bitterness was well produced through the characterization, acting and the ending. Daisy seemed to be the type of character who didn't really express all her feelings of bitterness toward Tom. Instead she would bottle up these feelings. She knew all along that Tom was seeing someone though she would not let out her feelings, she would just continue to live her life as though this affair was non-existent. Tom being the character that he was, was the complete opposite of Daisy. After learning from Daisy that she never really loved him he would constantly try to "put down" Gatsby and try to expose him as the sham that he really was. He made fun of the way that Gatsby called him and Nick "old sport" and found out of the illegal ways in which he made his money and exposed it to him in front of others.

The acting of Daisy was especially great because for the most part, (especially in the beginning where Nick learns of Tom's affair at Daisy's home) you are able to see how the affair deeply hurts Daisy and that she is angered even though she does not say a word about it at the dinner table. Though undoubtedly the greatest demonstration of bitterness in the movie was shown through Tom. Wilson only found out that Gatsby was in the car that killed Myrtle through Tom. This ultimately led Wilson to kill Gatsby along
