Report to Congress of the U.S.China Economic and Security Review Commission U.S.-China Economic and Security Review Commission,2010 Quasi Rational Economics Richard H. Thaler,1994-01-04 Standard economics theory is built on the assumption that human beings act rationally in their own self interest But if rationality is such a reliable factor why do economic models so often fail to predict market behavior accurately According to Richard Thaler the shortcomings of the standard approach arise from its failure to take into account systematic mental biases that color all human judgments and decisions Choices, Values, and Frames Daniel Kahneman,Amos Tversky,2000-09-25 This book presents the definitive exposition of prospect theory a compelling alternative to the classical utility theory of choice Building on the 1982 volume Judgement Under Uncertainty this book brings together seminal papers on prospect theory from economists decision theorists and psychologists including the work of the late Amos Tversky whose contributions are collected here for the first time While remaining within a rational choice framework prospect theory delivers more accurate empirically verified predictions in key test cases as well as helping to explain many complex real world puzzles In this volume it is brought to bear on phenomena as diverse as the principles of legal compensation the equity premium puzzle in financial markets and the number of hours that New York cab drivers choose to drive on rainy days Theoretically elegant and empirically robust this volume shows how prospect theory has matured into a new science of decision making The

Carolingian Economy Adriaan Verhulst, 2002-10-17 This book is about the economy of the Carolingian empire 753 877 which extended from the Pyrenees and the northern shores of the Mediterranean to the North Sea and from the Atlantic coast to the Elbe and Saale rivers It is the first comprehensive evaluation of the topic to appear in English in over twenty years Aspects of land and people agrarian production and technique craft and industry and regional and international commerce are analysed and the Carolingian economy is reassessed in a European context Cap-com Kent Welton, 2002 Radical Spiritual Motherhood Rosetta R. Haynes, 2011 In this cutting edge work Rosetta R Haynes explores the spiritual autobiographies of five nineteenth century female African American itinerant preachers to discover the ways in which they drew upon religion and the material conditions of their lives to fashion powerful personas that enabled them to pursue their missions as divinely appointed religious leaders Pioneering and accessible Radical Spiritual Motherhood marks a turning point in the study of both African American literature and women s studies The Secure Information Society Jörg Krüger, Bertram Nickolay, Sandro Gaycken, 2012-11-07 In our modern information societies we not only use and welcome computers we are highly dependent upon them There is a downside of this kind of progress however Computers are not 100% reliable They are insecure They are vulnerable to attackers They can either be attacked directly to disrupt their services or they can be abused in clever ways to do the bidding of an attacker as a dysfunctional user Decision makers and experts alike always struggle with the amount of interdisciplinary knowledge needed to understand the nuts and bolts of modern information societies and their relation to security the implications of technological or political progress or the lack thereof This holds in particular for new challenges to come These are harder to understand and to categorize their development is difficult to predict To mitigate this problem and to enable more foresight The Secure Information Society provides an interdisciplinary spotlight onto some new and unfolding aspects of the uneasy relationship between information technology and information society to aid the dialogue not only in its current and ongoing struggle but to anticipate the future in time and prepare perspectives for the challenges ahead Mining, Metallurgy and Minting in the Middle Ages: Afro-European supremacy, 1125-1225 Ian Blanchard, 2001 The second volume examines the rise to world dominance of silver and gold production during the first great output long cycle 1125 1225 in new locations in Europe and sub Saharan Africa It explores the organisation of the industry at this time the reversal of the contemporary specie flow and the distribution of these precious metals throughout Europe and to lands beyond the bounds of that continent It also describes the beginnings of autonomous European base metal lead copper tin and mercury production the organisation of the onewo industry its levels of output and the distribution of these metals to new groups of European consumers Vol I Asiatic Supremacy 425 1125 Vol 3 Continuing Afro European Supremacy 1250 1450 Franz Steiner 2001 A History of Romanian Oil Vol II Gh. Proceedings of a Workshop on Deterring Cyberattacks National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Computer Science and Telecommunications Board, Committee on Deterring Cyberattacks: Informing Strategies and Developing Options for U.S. Policy, 2010-10-30 In a world of increasing dependence on information technology the prevention of cyberattacks on a nation s important computer and communications systems and networks is a problem that looms large Given the demonstrated limitations of passive cybersecurity defense measures it is natural to consider the possibility that deterrence might play a useful role in preventing cyberattacks against the United States and its vital interests At the request of the Office of the Director of National Intelligence the National Research Council undertook a two phase project aimed to foster a broad multidisciplinary examination of strategies for deterring cyberattacks on the United States and of the possible utility of these strategies for the U S government The first phase produced a letter report providing basic information needed to understand the nature of the problem and to articulate important questions that can drive research regarding ways of more effectively preventing discouraging and inhibiting hostile activity against important U S information systems and networks The second phase of the project entailed selecting appropriate experts to write papers on questions raised in the letter report A number of experts identified by the committee were commissioned to write these papers under contract with the National Academy of Sciences Commissioned papers were discussed at a public workshop held June 10 11 2010 in Washington D C and authors revised their papers after the workshop Although the authors were selected and the papers reviewed and discussed by the committee the individually authored papers do not reflect consensus views of the committee and the reader should view these papers as offering points of departure that can stimulate further work on the topics discussed The papers presented in this volume are published essentially as received from the authors with some proofreading corrections made as limited time allowed
