Challenges in Sub-Saharan Africa I Alexandros Gasparatos, Abubakari Ahmed, Merle Naidoo, Alice Karanja, Kensuke Fukushi, Osamu Saito, Kazuhiko Takeuchi, 2020-09-04 The aim of this 2 volume book is to highlight how Sustainability Science approaches can help solve some of the pervasive challenges that Africa faces The volumes collect a number of local case studies throughout Africa that adopt transdisciplinary and problem oriented research approaches using methodologies from the natural and the social sciences These are put into perspective with chapters that introduce key sustainability challenges such using a regional focus Through this multi scale and inter transdisciplinary approach the proposed volume will provide an authoritative source that will pack in a single volume a large amount of information on how Sustainability Science approaches sustainability challenges in African contexts While there have been general books about sustainability science none has had a strong African focus As a result the 2 volume set fills a major gap in the Sustainability Science scholarship This volume sets the stage for the series Part I introduces key sustainability challenges in Africa Parts II III highlights specific case studies related to these challenges from West and Central Africa Diasporas, Development and

Governance Abel Chikanda, Jonathan Crush, Margaret Walton-Roberts, 2015-12-12 Drawing on examples from the global North and South this book examines the relationship between migration development and diaspora engagement from a governance perspective It explores the ways that governments interact with their own extra national diasporic populations in order to boost economic development build global trading and investment networks and increase their political leverage overseas Inside readers will find fifteen essays which highlight such issues as diaspora engagement by governments at different scales the divisions that often exist within diaspora groups diaspora transnationalism and return migration diaspora knowledge networks and higher education capacity building and the neglected issues of South South migration and diasporas as well as North South migration and diasporas The book presents empirical case studies from various geographical contexts including Australia Canada the Philippines India the Caribbean Zimbabwe and the United States Overall this book presents fresh insights into how and why migrant sending countries are increasingly turning to the diaspora option to attempt to benefit from the transfer of knowledge skills and financial and social capital It provides policy makers researchers and students with new perspectives on governance and the means by which states are attempting to utilize their diaspora resources Self-directed learning research: An imperative for transforming the educational landscape Elsa

Mentz, Thabisile Buthelezi, Josef de Beer, Adri du Toit, Aubrey Golightly, Sarah Gravett, Marietjie Havenga, Anita Lubbe, Judah P. Makonye, Neal Petersen, Paulinah Phahamane, Jessica Pool, H.J. (Hennie) Steyn, Johannes (Hannes) L. van der Walt, Charl Wolhuter, 2016-12-31 This book will benefit specialists in the field of the education sciences It represents significant progress in knowledge production Self directed learning has become increasingly important not only for education in South Africa but also for education sciences in the international arena This is a result of the changing education landscape caused by the

demands of the 21st century as well as the rapid change in knowledge production Learners should be equipped with skills to take responsibility for their own learning New innovative strategies should be incorporated into teaching and learning in order to meet the changing demands in education Traditional teacher centred practices are still the norm in most South African schools and higher education institutions and do not adequately prepare students for lifelong learning in the 21st century The content focuses on the theory behind self directed learning explores strategies such as cooperative learning problembased learning case based teaching and large group teaching that enhance self directed learning and the use of blended learning in a self directed learning environment The book demonstrates how self directed learning can be enhanced in mathematics computer science and life science education and through the use of student tutors for geography Digital technology could for example also be used in innovative ways for education in isiZulu folk poetry The findings are based on original empirical research and a sound theoretical conceptual framework In an environment of rapidly changing knowledge production this book responds to the challenge of how to equip learners with the necessary skills to take responsibility for their own learning The book presents innovative teaching and learning strategies for meeting the changing demands in education Group activities the responsibilities of learners and the obstacles that hinder their learning are analysed and the way in which educators can support them is discussed Educational values such as mutual trust are discussed and self directed assessment is explored This is a timely collective work authored by experts who subscribe to the approach of self directed learning Educators should discover new teaching and learning strategies and value the integration of self directed learning in the classroom
