animals He lived for twenty five years in an isolated bush camp in the Luangwa Valley in Zambia and knows that despite its paradoxes and its mysteries he can never leave Africa The trouble with Africa he says is that once it is in your blood like malaria it is almost impossible to get rid of And the trouble with Africa is also the trouble with those of us who settle here as long as we insist on judging it from a Western perspective we will be the outsiders we will be forever baffled by it The complexities of African attitudes that seem to confound us are perhaps not so complex after all it is their very simplicity that we fail to understand On the road to our civilised enlightenment have we lost the ability to see life in its most fundamental essence
