Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín Gonzalez, César Domínguez, 2010-05-26 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association As its predecessor for East Central Europe this two volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter literary relations Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo cultural account of literary inter systems which cannot otherwise be explained Post-totalitarian Spanish Fiction Robert C. Spires, 1996 This study records an epistemic shift away from logocentric and totalizing approaches to reality by analyzing the links between the novelistic strategies used by Spanish writers from 1975 to 1989 and recent international events and theoretical trends in science mathematics communication studies and art The Contemporary Spanish Novel Samuel Amell, 1996-01-19

Although there are several annotated bibliographies of contemporary Spanish novelists this book covers critical works published on the post civil war Spanish novel as a literary form The volume cites books and articles and each citation is accompanied by a descriptive and evaluative annotation The work contains a section of entries on books and another on articles Entries within each section are arranged alphabetically Included are entries primarily for studies published in English or Spanish though some in Catalan French Galician and Italian are also cited In the last decades there has been an explosion of critical works on the post civil war Spanish novel This proliferation of material causes serious problems for scholars conducting research on the subject While there are bibliographies of particular novelists this book deals with general studies of trends topics and comparative approaches The volume primarily cites works published in English or Spanish but it also includes some in Catalan French Galician and Italian The volume is divided into two sections books and articles Within each section entries are arranged alphabetically Each citation is accompanied by a descriptive and evaluative annotation The annotations provide information about the topic content and methodology of the works cited and express an opinion of the works value The length of the annotations varies according to the importance of the topic Author and title indexes add to the utility of the work
