Profiles every four year college in the United States providing detailed information on academic programs admissions requirements financial aid services housing athletics contact names and campus life A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age Richard K. Sherwin,Danielle Celermajer,2021-03-11 The period since the First World War has been a century distinguished by the loss of any unitary foundation for truth ethics and the legitimate authority of law With the emergence of radical pluralism law has become the site of extraordinary creativity and on occasion a source of rights for those historically excluded from its protection A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age tells stories of human struggles in the face of state authority including Aboriginal land claims popular resistance to corporate power and the inter generational ramifications of genocidal state violence The essays address how and with what effects different expressive modes ceremonial dance live street theater the acoustics of radio the affective range of film to name a few help to construct memorialize and disseminate political and legal meaning Drawing upon a wealth of visual textual and sound sources A Cultural History of Law in the Modern Age presents essays that examine key cultural case studies of the period on the themes of justice constitution codes agreements arguments property and possession wrongs and the legal profession Collaboration and the Future of Education

Gordon Andrews,Wilson J. Warren,James Cousins,2015-10-08 Current educational reforms have given rise to various types of educational Taylorism which encourage the creation of efficiency models in pursuit of a unified way to teach In history education curricula this has been introduced through scripted textbook based programs such as Teacher Curriculum Institute s History Alive and completely online curricula They include the jargon of authentic methods such as primary sources cooperative learning differentiated instruction and access to technology yet the craft of teaching is removed and an experience that should be marked by discovery and reflection is replaced with comparatively empty processes This volume provides systematic models and examples of ways that history teachers can compete with and effectively halt this transformation The alternatives the authors present are based on collaborative models that address the art of teaching for pre service and practicing secondary history teachers as well as collegiate history educators Relying on original research and a maturing body of secondary literature on historical thinking this book illuminates how collaboration can create real historical learning Writing and Reading Connections Zoi A. Philippakos,Steve Graham,2022-12-21 Writing skills are essential for success in the 21st century school and workplace but most classrooms devote far more time to reading instruction with writing often addressed in isolation or excluded In this insightful professional development resource and text leading researchers discuss why and how to integrate writing and reading instruction in grades K 12 and beyond Contributors explore how to harness writing reading connections to support learning in such areas as phonics and spelling vocabulary understanding genre and text structure and self regulated strategy development as well as across content areas and disciplines Special considerations in teaching emergent bilingual students and struggling literacy learners are described User friendly features include guiding questions classroom examples and action questions that help teachers translate the research and concepts into practice An NCTQ Exemplary Text for Reading Instruction
