Writing and Grammar: Communication in Action Pearson/Prentice Hall,2003-05 Research, Practice, and Innovations in Teacher Education During a Virtual Age Zimmerman, Aaron Samuel,2022-11-18 Decades of research have shown that early career teachers face a number of challenges and hold an increasingly wide set of responsibilities Teacher educators therefore must think carefully about how to prepare early career teachers for the profession Additionally however the work of teaching and teacher education has become increasingly complex within the context of the current virtual age including the prominent reality of social media and the significant possibilities of online teaching and learning

Research Practice and Innovations in Teacher Education During a Virtual Age makes a significant contribution to the scholarship on teacher education by presenting a variety of evidence based methods that can be used to develop and improve aspects of teacher education within this virtual age including the curriculum and pedagogy of online teacher education as well as effective ways to prepare preservice teachers for the realities of online teaching and online learning. Covering topics such as virtual caring, learning material adaptation and instructional coaching, this premier reference source is a dynamic resource for teacher educators, pre-service teachers, administrators and educators of both K-12 and higher education, government officials, policymakers, researchers and academicians.

The Changing World of School Administration

George Perreault, Frederick C. Lunenburg, 2002-07-02. The tenth annual NCPEA yearbook examines the pressing issues facing today's educational leaders from a variety of philosophical perspectives. Standardized testing, the impact of market forces on public education, zero tolerance disciplinary policies, gender and ethnic diversity, and issues related to the preparation of school leaders are among the topics discussed in the 25 essays. This divergent dialogue speaks to professors of educational administration, superintendents, principals and others engaged in this changing and challenging field.
