

COMMON CORE STANDARDS PROGRESSIONS

Figure 1 displays four scatter plots arranged in a 2x2 grid, illustrating the relationship between the number of children in the household (Y-axis) and the number of children in the neighborhood (X-axis). The top row shows the relationship for the number of children in the household, and the bottom row shows the relationship for the number of children in the neighborhood. The left column shows the relationship for the number of children in the household, and the right column shows the relationship for the number of children in the neighborhood. Each plot includes a green horizontal line at y=0 and a red horizontal line at y=1. The plots show a positive correlation between the number of children in the household and the number of children in the neighborhood.
