performance of the US Army and US Marine Corps in urban combat in four major urban battles of the mid twentieth century Aachen 1944 Manila 1945 Seoul 1950 and Hue 1968 Alec Wahlman assesses each battle using a similar framework of capability categories and separate chapters address urban warfare in American military thought In the four battles across a wide range of conditions American forces were ultimately successful in capturing each city because of two factors transferable competence and battlefield adaptation The preparations US forces made for warfare writ large proved generally applicable to urban warfare Battlefield adaptation a strong suit of American forces filled in where those overall preparations for combat needed fine tuning From World War Two to Vietnam however there was a gradual reduction in tactical performance in the four battles
