

WHAT IS A FABLE?

A fable is a story that features animals, plants or forces of nature which are anthropomorphised (given human qualities).

A fable always ends with a 'moral'. This is the lesson that is intended to be learnt through reading the story.

One of the most famous fables is The Hare and the Tortoise. In this fable, both animals are anthropomorphised in that they can speak and are competing against each other in a race.

Howard Bloch,2011-04-29 This book by one of our most admired and influential medievalists offers a fundamental reconception of the person generally assumed to be the first woman writer in French the author known as Marie de France

The Anonymous Marie de France is the first work to consider all of the writing ascribed to Marie including her famous Lais her 103 animal fables and the earliest vernacular Saint Patrick's Purgatory Evidence about Marie de France's life is so meager that we know next to nothing about her not where she was born and to what rank who her parents were whether she was married or single where she lived and might have traveled whether she dwelled in cloister or at court nor whether in England or France In the face of this great writer's near anonymity scholars have assumed her to be a simple naive and modest Christian figure Bloch's claim in contrast is that Marie is among the most self-conscious sophisticated complicated and disturbing figures of her time the Joyce of the twelfth century At a moment of great historical turning the so-called Renaissance of the twelfth century Marie was both a disrupter of prevailing cultural values and a founder of new ones Her works Bloch argues reveal an author obsessed by writing by memory and by translation and acutely aware not only of her role in the preservation of cultural memory but of the transforming psychological social and political effects of writing within an oral tradition Marie's intervention lies in her obsession with the performative capacities of literature and in her acute awareness of the role of the subject in interpreting his or her own world According to Bloch Marie develops a theology of language in the Lais which emphasize the impossibility of living in the flesh along with a social vision of feudalism in decline She elaborates an ethics of language in the Fables which within the context of the court of Henry II frame and form the urban values and legal institutions of the Anglo-Norman world And in her Espurgatoire she produces a startling examination of the afterlife which Bloch links to the English conquest and occupation of medieval Ireland With a penetrating glimpse into works such as these The Anonymous Marie de France recovers the central achievements of one of the most pivotal figures in French literature It is a study that will be of enormous value to medievalists literary scholars historians of France and anyone interested in the advent of female authorship
