Faith Under Fire Canon Andrew White, 2011-03-01

The Vicar of Baghdad encounters daily tragedy. What happened to his faith when a young girl in his congregation died after much hope and prayer? He has met the best and worst, articulate agreeable imams and rabbis, Christian venality and dishonesty. What has kept him willing to see the best? Every time he returns to Iraq, he may be saying goodbye to his family for the last time. What do they think? He suffers from MS. How does he remain cheerful despite his physical weakness and its progression? What does he say to God alone in his study late at night? He has been caught up in momentous events. Can he see the hand of God? Looking ahead, can he be optimistic about the future? Where are his sources of spiritual energy? He solicits prayer. Why? Not everything God calls us to do is painless, he comments. Much of my work is simply about showing love to the unlovely.

Faith Under Fire Chris Panos, 1984-06-01 Beyond Eden Courtney Pace, 2022-03

A major figure in African American social justice movements and Black theological praxis and theory, Rev. Dr. Prathia Laura Ann Hall (1940-2002) had not been the subject of a book-length critical study until Courtney Pace's Freedom Faith: The Womanist Vision of Prathia Hall was published by the University of Georgia Press in 2019. Now, with the publication of Beyond Eden: The Collected Sermons and Essays of Prathia Hall, Pace provides a volume of seminal importance to the fields of womanist theology and ethics, Black church history, and African American history. Beyond Eden explores Hall's preaching and research, curating a collection of her work to expand scholarship on her influence on American religion and Black churches. Hall pioneered womanist preaching, embodying the necessary interconnections among theology, social science, history, and practical ministry. She was a master organizer, not only leading her congregation but facilitating collaborations among national, regional, and local organizations to serve Black churches and Black communities. The sermons and essays in this volume showcase Hall's womanist preaching, brilliance, the seamless connection between church and the academy in her work, and her understanding of the gospel as Freedom Faith. A trailblazer in the womanist movement of the 1980s and 1990s, Hall merged Christian ethics with Black feminist thought during decades of civil rights activism and preaching. Although she had very few publications due to the demands of her multifaceted vocation, health limitations, and familial responsibilities, her extensive work has been transcribed from handwritten notes and audio recordings by editor Courtney Pace.

Verza, 2010-12. Bill Marston and his fiancé Angelica have just had their future go up in smoke. The house they built to sell has been destroyed in a lightning storm. Bill tries everything legal he possibly can to get the money he needs before the rains come and the buyer walks. He has two weeks to get started or they will lose it all. With practically no time left, he resorts to aiding smugglers to get the money he needs but instead he ends up in the hospital. Now revenge is all he has to live for but God intervenes wonderfully and changes Bill's and Angelica's lives forever. From Fire to Faith is a tale of romance, adventure and treachery, a story of love, desperation and salvation by God's grace. Freedom Faith Courtney Pace, 2019-06-15. Freedom Faith is the first full-length critical study of Rev. Dr. Prathia Laura Ann Hall (1940-2002), an undersung leader in both the civil rights movement and African American theology. Freedom faith was the central concept of Hall's theology, the belief that God created humans to be free and assists and equips those who work for freedom. Hall rooted her work simultaneously in social justice, Christian practice and womanist thought. Courtney Pace examines Hall's life and philosophy particularly through the lens of her civil rights activism, her teaching career and her ministry as a womanist preacher. Moving along the trajectory of Hall's life and civic service, Freedom Faith focuses on her intellectual and theological development and her radiating influence on such figures as Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., Marian Wright Edelman and the early generations of womanist scholars. Hall was one of the first women ordained in the American Baptist Churches USA; she was the pastor of Mt. Sharon Baptist Church in Philadelphia and in later life joined the faculty at the Boston University School of Theology as the Martin Luther King Chair in Social Ethics. In activism and ministry, Hall was a pioneer fusing womanist thought with Christian ethics and visions of social justice. Traveller Tales of China Hezekiah Butterworth, 1901. Pillar of Fire, 1920. What is of Faith as to Everlasting Punishment Edward Bouverie Pusey, 1881.
