An Introduction to Writing Philosophical Essays Anne Michaels Edwards, Anne Edwards, 1999-10-21 Based on the premise that one of the best ways for a student to understand a topic is to write about it this is a book that teaches students how to write philosophical essays Geared toward first time philosophy students the book is a supplement for any Philosophy course in which the instructor requires the students to write essays Most of the work involved in a Philosophy class is reading assigned material thinking about it and then writing about it whether on an exam or in an essay written outside of class This book is designed to make all three of those activities easier Writing to Learn begins with helpful hints on how to read philosophy chapter 2 In chapters 3 through 7 students are guided through several different types of essays beginning with the simplest summaries that demonstrate knowledge and understanding and progressing through essays that require the application of theories to new situations the analysis and evaluation of arguments used and finally the synthesis of several theories or arguments

A Woman's Place Shirley Morahan, 1981-06-30 A truly liberated rhetoric and reader has at last become available to courses in composition with the publication of A Woman's Place This unique textbook explores the notion of writing as self definition and as a consequence the relationship between gender and writing Convinced that writing is a meaningful process performed with commitment Dr Morahan has created a course that simultaneously sharpens writing and thinking skills and contributes to the consciousness raising of women and men in today's world Her pedagogy for liberation creates a student centered classroom in which a spirit of collaboration replaces one of competition by means of peer editing tutorial approaches and small group activities The literary passages of A Woman's Place are both stylistically and thematically tied in with the lessons directly At the same time they function as a compact women's studies course Research and writing are organized around a cluster of shared themes problems that all students are addressing in their lives power vs powerlessness passivity vs action identity oppression vs freedom and the nurturance of creativity Taken from the works of professional writers including such well known individuals as Adrienne Rich Tillie Olsen Joan Didion Virginia Woolf Margaret Mead Mary Wollstonecraft Jonathan Swift and Sylvia Plath they are often accompanied by short excerpts from student essays Useful bibliographical notes suggest further readings

The Realms of Rhetoric Joseph Petraglia, Deepika Bahri, 2003-10-01 Argues for a more theoretically informed and cogent curricular space for rhetoric in the academy In The Realms of Rhetoric contributors from a wide range of disciplines explore the challenges and opportunities faced in building a curricular space in the academy for rhetoric Although rhetoric education has its roots in ancient times the modern era has seen it fragmented into composition and public speaking obscuring concepts theories and skills Petraglia and Bahri consider the prospects for rhetoric education outside of narrow disciplinary constraints and together with leading scholars examine opportunities that can propel and revitalize rhetoric education at the beginning of the millennium The teaching of rhetoric of how to think together and talk together and read and write together is the most important of all vocations and this book is a step toward uniting those of us who under whatever disciplinary label see it that way from the Foreword by Wayne C Booth

The great strength of this book is that Petraglia and Bahri were able to collect essays that all pursue a common goal the articulation of a common trans disciplinary rhetoric education without sacrificing coherence Bruce McComiskey author of Gorgias and the New Sophistic Rhetoric Unlike many books and articles that purport to address issues of the teaching of rhetoric or rhetorical skills this collection manages to keep its focus on pedagogy and curriculum in a way that illuminates both the problems facing rhetoric education today and the prospects for revitalizing it in the near future Robert Yagelski coeditor of The Relevance of English Teaching that Matters in Students Lives Contributors include Deepika Bahri Anne Beaufort David Bleich Wayne C Booth M Lane Bruner Michael Carter Grant C Cos Ellen Cushman Thomas J Darwin David Fleming William D Fusfield Victoria Gallagher Hildegard Hoeller Walter Jost Carolyn R Miller Thomas P Miller Rolf Norgaard Joseph Petraglia and John T Scenters Zapico
