Taste of America John L. Hess,Karen Hess,2000 This classic barbeque of our foodways is as valid and as savory today as when it first tickled ribs a generation ago Based on the superlative authority of John L Hess onetime food critic of the New York Times and Karen Hess the pioneering historian of cookery The Taste of America is both a history of American cooking and a history of the advice smiling celebrity cooks have asked Americans to swallow The Taste of America provoked the cooking experts of the 1970s into spitting rage by pointing out in embarrassing detail that most of them lacked an essential ingredient expertise Now Kool Aid like Mother used to make has become Kool Aid like Grandmother used to make and a new generation has been weaned on synthetic food pathetic snobbery neurotic health advice and reconstituted history This much needed new edition chars Julia Child She s not a cook but she plays one on TV chides food maven Ruth Reichl and marvels at a convention of food technologists whose program bore the slogan Eat your heart out Mother Nature Delectable reading for consumers reformers and scholars this twenty fifth anniversary reissue of The Taste of America will serve well into the new millennium

Books That Cook Jennifer Cognard-Black, Melissa A. Goldthwaite, 2014-09-04 Organized like a cookbook Books that Cook The Making of a Literary Meal is a collection of American literature written on the theme of food from an invocation to a final toast from starters to desserts All food literatures are indebted to the form and purpose of cookbooks and each section begins with an excerpt from an influential American cookbook progressing chronologically from the late 1700s through the present day including such favorites as American Cookery the Joy of Cooking and Mastering the Art of French Cooking The literary works within each section are an extension of these cookbooks while the cookbook excerpts in turn become pieces of literature forms of storytelling and memory making all their own Each section offers a delectable assortment of poetry prose and essays and the selections all include at least one tempting recipe to entice readers to cook this book Including writing from such notables as Maya Angelou James Beard Alice B Toklas Sherman Alexie Nora Ephron M F K Fisher and Alice Waters among many others Books that Cook reveals the range of ways authors incorporate recipes whether the recipe flavors the story or the story serves to add spice to the recipe Books that Cook is a collection to serve students and teachers of food studies as well as any epicure who enjoys a good meal alongside a good book
