All are highly flexible and adaptable across the full preschool age range. Most of the ideas are arranged under one of eight specific themes that include four to eight one hour programs: barnyard animals, the Caldecott Medal, colors, families, a storytelling feast, the five senses, reptiles and amphibians, and around the world. There are also 18 individual holiday and seasonal programs. All story hours provide ideas for name tags, suggested audiovisual materials, recommended story poetry and song selections, additional titles, and a full description of the activity.

The Most Dangerous Cinema Bryan Senn, 2013-11-01. People hunting people for sport, an idea both shocking and fascinating. In 1924, Richard Connell published a short story that introduced this concept to the world where it has remained ever since, as evidenced by the many big and small screen adaptations and inspirations. Since its publication, Connell's award-winning The Most Dangerous Game has been continuously anthologized and studied in classrooms throughout America. Raising questions about the nature of violence and cruelty and the ethics of hunting for sport, the thrilling story spawned a new cinematic subgenre beginning with RKO's 1932 production of The Most Dangerous Game and continuing right up to today. This book examines in depth all the cinematic adaptations of the iconic short story. Each film chapter has a synopsis, a How Dangerous Is It critique, an overall analysis, a production history, and credits. Five additional chapters address direct-to-video television game shows and almost dangerous productions. Photographs, extensive notes, bibliography, and index are included.
