Evaluating and Valuing in Social Research Thomas A. Schwandt,Emily F. Gates,2021-09-17 Much applied research takes place as if complex social problems and evaluations of interventions to address them can be dealt with in a purely technical way In contrast this groundbreaking book offers an alternative approach that incorporates sustained systematic reflection about researchers values what values research promotes how decisions about what to value are made and by whom and how judging the value of social interventions takes place The authors offer practical and conceptual guidance to help researchers engage meaningfully with value conflicts and refine their capacity to engage in deliberative argumentation Pedagogical features include a detailed evaluation case Bridge to Practice exercises and annotated resources in most chapters and an end of book glossary Records and Briefs of the United States Supreme Court ,1832 Communicating for Success Cheryl M. Hamilton,2016-07-22 This text focuses student learning on the key communication competencies recommended by the National Communication Association With applied examples and a vibrant and engaging design this text covers all the expected topics in an introductory course foundations of communication interpersonal communication small group communication and public speaking plus a special appendix on interviewing Scenarios begin each chapter with a problem to which students can relate and then solve as they learn about the concepts discussed in each chapter A concentrated focus on careers in communication highlighted in a two page spread near the end of each chapter brings home the relevance of communication outside the classroom and helps students learn more about how studying communication can help them throughout their lives Additional emphasis on topics such as ethics culture gender and technology is found throughout the text Quality Matters John Winston Mayne,2018-12-12 Information regular systematic reliable is the life blood of democracy and the fuel of effective management Surely today there is no problem with information for this is the age of information overload It pours onto our computer screens and out of our printers Indeed many governments claim often with some justification to be more open and transparent than ever before But what if the life blood is contaminated or the fuel polluted Then the body politic sickens and the engine of public management runs rough It is the vital issue of the quality of the information we receive that this book addresses Quality Matters compares approaches across different jurisdictional settings and across three different types of information evaluation The chapters describe and analyze quality assurance in a number of countries and within a variety of international organizations These have been selected either because they are widely considered to be leaders in evaluating information or because they have experience with assuring quality information that can instruct others Contributors are from Australia Canada the European Union France the Netherlands New Zealand Sweden Switzerland United Kingdom United States and the World Bank This pioneering study analyzes practices for assuring the quality of evaluation performance auditing and reporting in the face of political organizational and technical obstacles A final chapter addresses the extent to which quality assurance systems become bothersome rituals or remain meaningful mechanisms to ensure quality control This well structured volume will be of particular interest to policymakers and adds much to the literature on program evaluation and performance auditing The Toastmasters International Guide to Successful Speaking Jeff Slutsky, Michael Aun, 1997 For everyone who needs to communicate effectively before groups from two to 2 000 this volume teaches readers the best places to start and how to build their speaking experiences while enhancing their careers business reputations and serving the community Includes tips techniques and strategies made famous by Toastmaster s International Introduction to Rhetorical Theory Gerard A. Hauser, 2002-02-08 In this highly accessible new edition Hauser systematically provides a humanistic account of what transpires when people communicate for some purpose His masterful blend of classical and contemporary thinking about the use of language and the value of symbolic inducements for social cooperation illuminates fundamental rhetorical precepts and their implications for shaping human realities The new chapter on publics theory complements the four chapters that introduce the broad themes and issues essential for a rhetorical approach to communication The new chapter on narrative theory bridges the four chapters devoted to the content of rhetoric and the concluding chapters that emphasize symbolic processes by which humans induce social cooperation and constitute social reality Throughout the text Hauser skillfully underscores the power of language to present a particular reality He explores the fundamental relationship between public discourse and judgment helping students understand the core of rhetorics civic function Through relevant current examples he illustrates how knowledge and power shape our social and political practices and how both are formed through discourse Program Evaluation Theory and Practice , Managing Power and People George J. Seperich, Russell W. McCalley, 2016-09-16 This practical text offers management students as well as professionals a comprehensive guide to an essential management function the use of power and authority to achieve specific objectives Incorporating numerous case studies and examples of actual management experiences in both large and small companies the book provides an effective approach to the use of power to manage people and projects successfully without fear of conflict The work is based on a unique blending of management and leadership combined to create a powerful influence on employees resulting in the managed responses required to reach the planned objective Building on this principle the authors demonstrate how managers can use the different types of power effectively in a wide variety of situations They show how to make use of an organization s established power structure and offer step by step guidance on the essential concept of FOCUS Management Including learning objectives case studies and discussion questions this text prepares students to apply what is learned directly to any working environment An online Instructor s Manual is available for instructors who adopt the book McDougal, Littell English: Teacher's ed Allan A. Glatthorn, 1988 Coordinating Student Affairs Divisional Assessment Erin Bentrim, Gavin W. Henning, Kimberly Yousey-Elsener, 2023-07-03

An ACPA NASPA Joint Publication The need for the new role of student affairs assessment coordinator has emerged in response to the increasing demand for outcomes information the proliferation of data and the recognition that coordinating this work within divisions is of paramount importance For those taking on this role this book constitutes a practical guide to leading and implementing an assessment program whether doing so full or part time as an individual or in a multi person office or whether reporting to or being in positional leadership Recognizing that this function that is new to student affairs and that those who take it on frequently find themselves in an in between world being both embedded with but also distinct from their divisional colleagues this book first addresses the common challenges and issues related to defining and implementing the role and cultivating a culture of assessment It then deals with the practicalities of creating systems and structures developing assessment skills throughout the organization and creating an integrated model for measuring progress towards strategic planning goals and for informing decision making and resource allocation The book concludes with guidance on leading and maintaining ethical standards related to data collection storage and sharing for the division and on navigating the dynamic political environment that assessment professionals will encounter Evaluation

Methodologies for Aid in Conflict Ole Winckler Andersen, Beate Bull, Megan Kennedy-Chouane, 2013-12-13 Knowledge and rigorous evidence around the role of external development partners in situations of conflict and fragility is still lacking There is little accountability for the billions in aid being spent in places like Afghanistan Iraq and the Democratic Republic of Congo This book analyses evaluation theory and practice in order to help fill this knowledge gap and advocates a realistic and rigorous approach to evaluating international engagement Through a series of case studies this book highlights both the promise and potential pitfalls of taking a more evaluative approach to understanding aid in conflict regions These illustrate the methodological and analytical approach taken by researchers working to understand the results and effectiveness of conflict prevention and peacebuilding support While well grounded in current theoretical and methodological debates the book provides valuable practical information by examining how and why different choices were made in the context of each evaluation The book shows what future steps may be envisaged to further strengthen evaluations of support for conflict prevention and peacebuilding The analysis draws on a wealth of perspectives and voices to provide researchers and students in development studies and conflict and peace studies as well as development evaluators with a deep and broad understanding of evaluation methods and approaches
