Everfi Answers To Consumer Protection:

Vulnerable Consumers and the Law Christine Riefa, Severine Saintier, 2020-10-27 This book charts the difficulties encountered by vulnerable consumers in their access to justice through the contributions of prominent authors academic practitioners and consultants in the field of consumer law and access to justice It demonstrates that despite the development of ADR access to justice is still severely lacking for the vulnerable consumer The book highlights that a broad understanding of access to justice which encompasses good regulation and its public enforcement is an essential ingredient alongside access to the mechanisms of traditional private justice courts and ADR to protect the vulnerable consumer Indeed many of the difficulties are linked to normative obstacles and lack of access to justice is primarily a vulnerability in itself that can exacerbate existing ones In addition because it may contribute to pushing already vulnerable consumers into social exclusion it is not simply about economic justice but also about social justice The book shows that lack of access to justice is not irreversible nor is it necessarily linked to consumer apathy New technologies could provide solutions The book concludes with a plea for developing inclusive justice systems with more emphasis on public enforcement alongside effective courts systems to offer the vulnerable with adequate means to defend themselves This book will be suitable for both students and practitioners and all those with an interest in the justice system Consumer Protection, 1939 Consumer Protection and the Law Dee Pridgen, 2003 Guidelines for Consumer Protection in the Context of Electronic Commerce OECD, 2000-03-09 The Guidelines for Consumer Protection in the Context of Electronic Commerce are designed to help ensure that consumers are no less protected when shopping on line than they are when they buy from their local store or order from a catalogue By Consumer Protection Rights & Resources for Consumers of All Ages Pennsylvania.
