Every Short Story:

Short! Kevin Crossley-Holland, 2023-06-15 In this wonderful collection of very short stories from award winning author Kevin Crossley Holland none of the stories is more than two pages long and some are much shorter There are stories about ghosts supermarkets animals adventures and all kinds of things to inspire every short story writer Modern Essays and Stories Various Authors, 1912-01-01 In all schools pupils are expected to write essays but curiously enough essay reading and essay writing are taught but little In spite of that neglect the essay is so altogether natural and spontaneous in spirit so intensely personal in expression and so demanding of excellence of prose style that it is the form par excellence for consideration in school if teachers are to show pupils much concerning the art of writing well The essay is to prose what the lyric is to poetry complete genuine and beautiful self expression or better still self revelation Most of the writing done in schools is straightforward narration of events without much if any attempt to show personal reactions on those events mere diary like accounts at best mechanical descriptions that aim to present exterior appearance without attempting to reveal inner meanings or to show awakened emotions and stereotyped explanations and arguments drawn for the most part from books of reference or from slight observation Beyond all this mechanical work lies a field of throbbing personal life of joyous reactions on all the myriads of interests that lie close at hand of meditations on the wonders of plant and animal life of humorous or philosophic comments on human nature and of all manner of vague dreams and aspirations aroused by Such sights as youthful poets dream On summer eves by haunted stream Without the slightest question it is the duty of the school and of the teacher in particular to lead pupils to appreciate honesty and originality in unapplied unpragmatic self expression and to show pupils how they themselves may gain the very real pleasure of putting down on paper permanent records of their own intimate thinking Joseph Addison's The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers and Washington Irving's Sketch Book have for many years made valiant but unsuccessful efforts to fill the places that should be filled by more modern representatives of the essay Macaulay's Essay on Johnson is a biographical article for an encyclopedia his essays on Clive and on Hastings are polemics and Carlyle's Essay on Burns is a critical disquisition With the exception of The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers all these so called essays are of considerable length and are unfitted to serve as the best examples of the essay form for the essay like the lyric demands brevity it is after all only a quick flash of self revelation not a sustained effort Then again who would wish to learn to write like Addison like Washington Irving like Macaulay or like Carlyle Those great writers couched their thoughts in the language fashions of their days just as they clothed their bodies in the garments of their times To imitate either their style of expression or their costumes would be to make one's self ridiculous or to take part in a species of masquerade The extremely Latinized vocabulary of 1711 or the resonant periods and marked antitheses of 1850 are as old fashioned to day as are the once highly respected periwigs great coats and silver shoe buckles of the past The thoughts of yesterday are not the thoughts of to day There is in serious reality such a thing as an old fashioned point of view With all due reverence for the past the best teachers of to day believe that it is just as necessary for students to use present day methods of expression and to cultivate present day interests as it is to take advantage of the railroad the telegraph the telephone the automobile and the thousand other mechanical contrivances that aid life to day but which were unknown in 1711 or in 1850

The Academy ,1901 All We Have Is the Story James Kelman,2024-04-30 Novelist playwright essayist and master of the short story Artist and engaged working class intellectual husband father and grandfather as well as committed revolutionary activist From his first publication a short story collection An Old Pub Near the Angel on a tiny American press through his latest novel God's Teeth and other Phenomena and work with Noam Chomsky Between Thought and Expression Lies a Lifetime both published on a slightly larger American press All We Have Is the Story chronicles the life and work to date of Probably the most influential novelist of the post war period The Times Drawing deeply on a radical tradition that is simultaneously political philosophical cultural and literary James Kelman articulates the complexities and tensions of the craft of writing the narrative voice and grammar imperialism and language art and value solidarity and empathy class and nation state and above all that it begins and ends with the story One of the things the establishment always does is isolate voices of dissent and make them specific unique if possible It's easy to dispense with dissent if you can say there's him in prose and him in poetry As soon as you say there's him him and her there and that guy here and that woman over there and there's all these other writers in Africa and then you've got Ireland the Caribbean suddenly there's this kind of mass dissent going on and that becomes something dangerous something that the establishment won't want people to relate to and go Christ you're doing the same as me Suddenly there's a movement going on It's fine when it's all these disparate voices you can contain that The first thing to do with dissent is say You're on your own you're a phenomenon I'm not a phenomenon at all I'm just a part of what's been happening in prose for a long long while James Kelman from a 1993 interview The Country of the Blind, and other Stories H. G. Wells,2024-11-01 The Country of the Blind and Other Stories by H G Wells is a captivating collection that showcases the author's mastery of speculative fiction and social commentary The title story The Country of the Blind presents a thought provoking narrative about a sighted man who stumbles upon a secluded community where everyone is blind As he attempts to impose his perception of the world upon this unique society the story explores themes of perception understanding and the nature of reality challenging readers to reconsider their definitions of normalcy and ability Wells's keen insights into human nature and societal constructs shine throughout this anthology which includes a variety of tales that blend science fiction with elements of fantasy and horror Each story serves as a lens through which Wells examines the complexities of human relationships the impact of technology on society and the often absurd nature of existence His narratives provoke reflection on the human condition morality and the intricacies of social dynamics The collection features Wells's signature wit and inventive storytelling offering readers an engaging journey through imaginative landscapes and profound philosophical questions From eerie encounters to societal critiques each tale captivates and stimulates thought making The Country of the Blind a compelling read for fans of speculative fiction Readers are drawn to The Country of the Blind and Other Stories for its rich storytelling and intellectual depth This book is a must read for anyone interested in exploring the boundaries of human perception and the nature of society Wells's narratives not only entertain but also challenge readers to reflect on their values and assumptions making this collection an essential addition to any literary library Report ...[without Accompanying Documents].
