SECTION C

6. Read the given passage and Answer the questions that follow.

The French Revolution opened up the possibility of creating a dramatic change in the way in which society was structured. Not everyone in Europe, however, wanted a complete transformation of society. Responses varied from those who accepted that some change was necessary but wished from gradual shift to those who wanted to restructure society radically. Some were conservatives, others were liberals or radicals.

Such differing ideas about social change clashed during the social and political turmoil that followed the French Revolution. The various attempts at revolution and national

Fraser,2023-09-21 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion provides the first truly global scan of contemporary issues and debates around the world regarding the relationship s between the state schools and religion Organized around specific contested issues from whether or not mindfulness should be practised in schools to appropriate and inappropriate religious attire in schools to long term battles about evolution sexuality and race to public funding Fraser Pearce and Fraser carefully curate chapters by leading experts exploring these matters and others in a diverse range of national settings The Bloomsbury Handbook of Schools and Religion offers a refreshingly new international perspective Law, Capitalism and Power in Asia Kanishka Jayasuriya,2006-06-19 A challenging and provocative book that contests the liberal assumption that the rule of law will go hand in hand with a transition to market based economies and even democracy in East Asia Using case studies from Hong Kong China Indonesia Malaysia Taiwan Japan and Vietnam the authors argue that the rule of law is in fact more likely to provide political elites with the means closely to control civil society It is essential therefore to locate conceptions of judicial independence and the rule of law more generally within the ideological vocabulary of the state Resources in Education ,1999 GENDER AND DECENTRALIZATION Simi Afonja & Monica Alagbile, GENDER DECENTRALISATION Gender and Decentralization in Nigeria is a product of two years research sponsored by the Gender Unit of the International Development Research Centre IDRC Canada as part of its Gender and Decentralization Program for sub Saharan Africa The overall objective of the program was to document and analyze specific state decentralization reforms that have worked to promote women s rights and or reforms that have created barriers to the protection and realization of these rights At the core of the Nigerian project were women s representation and political effectiveness in local administration The issues transcended the usual structural analysis of the political administrative and fiscal changes associated with decentralization and a breakdown by gender Given the centrality of equity and accountability issues in current good governance debates a feminist perspective on voice and action was inserted into the traditional public administration perspective Going beyond numbers description of gender inequitable electioneering processes poor accountability of the state of political parties and the women s constituency the book also focusses on feminist political activism at the grassroots level The authors also document the potential impact of re politicizing civil society and restructuring of gender ideologies to achieve self determination and increase women representation and political effectiveness
