

What's changed recently?

What's the scientific effect of climate change?

In your introduction, we learned about various climate consequences and how they affect our health and environment. Today, you will work together to (1-2) understand what is the impact of climate change on the environment and how it affects our health and environment. You will also understand the impact of climate change on the environment and how it affects our health and environment. You will also understand the impact of climate change on the environment and how it affects our health and environment.
