Female Infanticide in India Rashmi Dube Bhatnagar,Renu Dube,Reena Dube,2012-02-01 Female Infanticide in India is a theoretical and discursive intervention in the field of postcolonial feminist theory It focuses on the devaluation of women through an examination of the practice of female infanticide in colonial India and the reemergence of this practice in the form of femicide selective killing of female fetuses in postcolonial India The authors argue that femicide is seen as part of the continuum of violence on and devaluation of the postcolonial girl child and woman In order to fully understand the material and discursive practices through which the limited and localized crime of female infanticide in colonial India became a generalized practice of femicide in postcolonial India the authors closely examine the progressivist British colonial history of the discovery reform and eradication of the practice of female infanticide Contemporary tactics of resistance are offered in the closing chapters The World of South African Music Christine Lucia,2009-03-26 The present Reader is a selection of texts on South African music which are chosen not only for their importance or the frequency of citations but with the express purpose of providing the reader with a deep understanding of the music itself Consequently there are readings that are chosen because they have been influential but there are also many which though published have not enjoyed very wide circulation There are those which are of obvious historic interest and others which speak to contemporary issues Among other things the volume provides an excellent sense of the varying ideologies and approaches that determine the relationship between author and subject The reader is indispensable to scholars and enthusiasts of South African music and it is of great interest to ethnomusicologists more generally It is also an excellent resource for those who do not have immediate access to harder to find articles and is perhaps most vital to those who are looking to find a way into the world of South African music

African Stars Veit Erlmann, 1991-09-24 In recent years black South African music and dance have become ever more popular in the West where they are now widely celebrated as expressions of opposition to discrimination and repression Less well known is the rich history of these arts which were shaped by several generations of black artists and performers whose struggles visions and aspirations did not differ fundamentally from those of their present day counterparts In five detailed case studies Veit Erlmann digs deep to expose the roots of the most important of these performance traditions He relates the early history of isicathamiya the a cappella vocal style made famous by Ladysmith Black Mambazo In two chapters on Durban between the World Wars he charts the evolution of Zulu music and dance studying in depth the transformation of ingoma a dance form popular among migrant workers since the 1930s He goes on to record the colorful life and influential work of Reuben T Caluza South Africa's first black ragtime composer And Erlmann's reconstruction of the 1890s concert tours of an Afro American vocal group Orpheus M McAdoo and the Virginia Jubilee Singers documents the earliest link between the African and American performance traditions Numerous eyewitness reports musicians personal testimonies and song texts enrich Erlmann's narratives and demonstrate that black performance evolved in response to the growing economic and racial segmentation of South African society Early ragtime ingoma and isicathamiya enabled the black urban population to comment on their precarious social position and to symbolically construct a secure space within a rapidly changing political world Today South African workers artists and youth continue to build upon this performance tradition in their struggle for freedom and democracy The early performers portrayed by Erlmann were guiding lights African stars by which the present and future course of South Africa is being determined

Munochiveyi,2014-12-10 During the Zimbabwean struggle for independence the settler regime imprisoned numerous activists and others it suspected of being aligned with the guerrillas This book is the first to look closely at the histories and lived experiences of these political detainees and prisoners showing how they challenged and negotiated their incarceration South African Theatre Journal ,1987 Come Ride With Me Lorraine Dube,2011-02-17 When Lorraine Dube went for her annual mammogram on September 4 1997 she asked the technician for compression films of her upper chest area right front shoulder and underarm areas She explained that for almost a year she had felt a pulling sensation in these areas Although her doctor had assured her many times that it was nothing probably just an after effect of the radiation treatment she had after her lumpectomy seven and a half years earlier she still had a nagging concern about that odd tight feeling in her chest When the technician took the films it was five times more painful than when she did the routine compression shots of the breast Tears were running down Lorraine s face but she not dare move Four days later her doctor called Lorraine this is Dr V How long have you had that mass in your chest You have to see a surgeon immediately Lorraine asked herself why Dr V had ignored her concerns all those times She reprimanded herself for not seeking a second opinion when she first experienced that pulling sensation and did not feel comfortable with his lack of response to her concern So many things went through her mind yet memories of her own lumpectomy were just the tip of the iceberg She relived the horror of more than thirty years earlier when as a mother of three small children at age 22 she heard those terrible words from Dr DeVillers about her 26 year old husband s cancer condition four to six weeks the doctor had said All of this flashed through her mind at speed warp

ten literally in just a few seconds Her life path had taken her through quite a few coaster rides throughout her 57 years but all those were kiddie rides compared to this one And so the mother of all roller coaster rides of life began with that fateful phone call from Dr V Lorraine Dube beat the odds She beat that aggressive Stage 3 sarcoma lodged in her chest wall But the battle was not without many many scars In the process she lost five ribs all her lymph nodes in the right arm area a piece of her clavicle most of the use of her right arm and hand and nearly her life After seven surgeries chemotherapy treatments experimental brachytherapy and countless battles with infection including a flesh eating bacteria inside her chest wall Lorraine Dube was cancer free but left suffering from chronic debilitating pain a souvenir from her ordeal that she would carry for the rest of her life Lorraine was a survivor always had been But this time it was different Why had God spared her from the terrible cancer and its aftermath of surgery infections and lost body parts only to leave her suffering from such unimaginable pain The cancer was gone but at what cost What the heck was she supposed to do with the rest of her life On her way to figuring it out her daughter suggested that she write a book about her life Don t worry about writing a best seller Mom Just write it from the heart Write it for your grandsons Five years later Ms Dube began writing this book the story of her life She tells the story of her life from the earliest recollections of childhood through the sometimes rough years of adulthood all with a few purposes in mind She wants to tell her grandsons about her history their history and to relate all her adult experiences some good some bad some easy some tough all with the purpose of showing them that they too are survivors like their Memere Her message Life may indeed be a roller coaster but nothing is impossible Somewhere along the line writing this book became Lorraine s therapy She began to make peace with and sense of the chronic pain that gripped her and kept her from leading the life she wanted the life she expected After all her golden years were supposed to be her happiest This b

Atoms Smashing Power of Mind Hloniphile Dube,2015-12-30 I wrote this book Atoms Smashing Power of Mind because I feel like the next future leaders of this country young people are dying Theyre dying because of being ignorant and because they are too afraid to step up Theyre ignorant about their lives and they tend to give up easily on things that are very important and very beneficial for their future purposes and focus on whatever that will destroy their paths and they care too much about peoples negative opinions and discriminations People will always bark and thats one thing we should keep on reminding ourselves and that shouldnt stop one from doing certain things And again theyre too afraid to take an action or actions that would benefit their future purposes As a result our country might end up having leaders from other continents or from other countries because we cant simply take good care of our country By achieving youre not only doing it for yourself but youre doing it for the country because that 1 per cent of change youve made into your life does count Those who have done economics will understand me better Let us work hard and hard to uplift our careers our lives ourselves and the economy of our country and above all be daring to be strong and willing to take an action
