Kenya National Assembly Official Record (Hansard) , 1993-11-02 The official records of the proceedings of the Legislative Council of the Colony and Protectorate of Kenya the House of Representatives of the Government of Kenya and the National Assembly of the Republic of Kenya High Performance Structures and Materials VI Willy Patrick Wilde, C. A. Brebbia, Santiago Hernández, 2012 Containing the edited papers presented at the Sixth International Conference on High Performance Structures and Materials High Performance Structures and Materials VI addresses the issues involved with advanced types of structures particularly those based on new concepts or new materials Contributions will highlight the latest developments in design optimisation manufacturing and experimentation in these areas The use of novel materials and new structural concepts nowadays is not restricted to highly technical areas like aerospace aeronautical applications or the automotive industry but affects all engineering fields including those such as civil engineering and architecture Most high performance structures require the development of a generation of new materials which can more easily resist a range of external stimuli or react in a non conventional manner The book will cover such topics as Composite materials and structures Lightweight structures Nanocomposites High performance concretes Concrete fibres Automotive composites Steel structures Natural fibre composites Timber structures Material characterisation Experiments and numerical analysis Damage and fracture mechanics Computational intelligence Adaptable and mobile structures Environmentally friendly structures The Bloomsbury Handbook of Indigenous Education and Research Sandra Styres, Ryan Neepin, 2025-08-21 There are more than 476 million Indigenous peoples living in over 90 countries across the world and most of the children and youth who make up that population globally are denied quality culturally appropriate education This handbook provides an overview of the field of Indigenous education and its historical context It covers the myriad of issues that Indigenous learners and educators face from systemic racism and inequities to inaccuracies in historical retellings to low retention and graduation rates Written by Indigenous scholars and educators from around the world the book is divided in five sections covering theoretical perspectives research methods and ethics debates on Indigenous sovereignty two spirit and Indigiqueer experiences and pedagogical practical approaches to teaching The chapters map out the key themes and issues in Indigenous education including land philosophies colonialism dispossession borderlands storytelling and reconciliation Developing Africa's Financial Services Dana T. Redford, 2017-05-11 Financial services are an essential element in powering entrepreneurial activity beyond resource extraction in Africa This book examines the macro trends and highlights inspiring success stories of entrepreneurial financial sector ventures that are making a lasting contribution to the economic development of various sub Saharan African countries The New Constitutional Law of Kenya. Principles, Government and Human Rights Kiwinda Mbondenyei, Osogo Ambani, 2012 The golden thread that cuts across the various chapters of the book is the emphasis that good constitutions anchor certain tenets that have garnered recognition as hallmarks of democratic dispensation These hallmarks include the concept of separation of powers the doctrine of the rule of law constitutionalism and human rights These attributes have largely been secured by the 2010 Constitution Thus this book is expected to contribute to this new promise by making knowledge on the Constitution accessible through breaking down and contextualising its provisions It is certain to be useful to law and government students lawyers researchers and other persons who seek to understand the new constitutional order

Foundations of Education Lebo Setlaelo, 2022-10-10 Many aspiring trainee teachers enter the field of education intending to positively impact students lives However to be an effective educator one must have a solid grounding in the fundamental principles of teaching This is where a book on the foundations of learning is invaluable

Thus Until Emilia Ilieva, Reuben Matheka, 2025-08-04 Thus Until A History of Egerton University is a thorough historical chronological and well researched account of Egerton University from a whites only college when it started in 1939 through to the expansion it has experienced over the years culminating in being a full university More than any other university in Kenya Egerton has a long and colourful history but like all the other universities it has suffered from the political economic and financial challenges of the time especially since the double intake of the 1990s Chapter One provides the required background to the study highlighting agricultural and educational policies and steering away from the Happy Valley hype so characteristic of the period The reader will learn about the Egerton family in Chapter Two and particularly about Lord Egerton himself and the colonial circumstances within which he lived The chapter dispels some of the popularly held myths about him Chapter Three deals with the beginnings of the college and the various structural and curriculum experiments tried out and the kind of enrolment and students it experimented with as an all white establishment The chapter ends with Africans beginning to agitate for change With great attention to detail the later chapters put the university in a broader local and international context thereby increasing its relevance to society A History of Egerton University though heavily footnoted and with a detailed bibliography is written in a simple easy flowing and accessible style

Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems Mani, Nandita S., Cawley, Michelle A., 2022-05-06 Beyond providing space for data science activities academic libraries are often overlooked in the data science landscape that is emerging at academic research institutions Although some academic libraries are collaborating in specific ways in a small subset of institutions there is much untapped potential for developing partnerships As library and information science roles continue to evolve to be more data centric and interdisciplinary and as research using a variety of data types continues to proliferate it is imperative to further explore the dynamics between libraries and the data science ecosystems in which they are a part The Handbook of Research on Academic Libraries as Partners in Data Science Ecosystems provides a global perspective on current and future trends concerning the integration of data science in libraries It provides both a foundational base of knowledge around data science and explores numerous ways academicians can reskill their staff engage in the research enterprise contribute to curriculum development and help build a stronger ecosystem where libraries are part of data science Covering topics such as data science initiatives digital humanities and student engagement this book is an indispensable resource for librarians information professionals academic institutions researchers academic libraries and academicians

African Dynamics in a Multipolar World ,2013-05-16 Fifty years after the foundation of the OAU and the consolidation of most African states and institutions the international panorama and Africa s position in it have changed considerably The world s geopolitical and economic configuration has evolved with new actors appearing in a new period of globalization In tone with ECAS 2013 this volume proposes that the experiences appearing in Africa question dominant paradigms in terms of political practice and academic reflection and thus offer a clear challenge to the academic community

The volume offers clues to answer questions such as What is the impact of the current processes of globalization for African countries and African citizens How should African Studies be engaged to gauge African dynamics both at a local and global level What interdisciplinary means and tools should be brought in to produce an epistemologically relevant view or narrative of the issues under analysis

Women's Empowerment for Sustainability in Africa Robert Dibie, 2019-01-17 This book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa

Discourses of Globalisation and Higher Education Reforms Joseph Zajda, W. James Jacob, 2022-03-15 This book examines some of the major higher education reforms and policy shifts globally particularly in the light of recent shifts in quality and standards driven education and policy research It critiques the neo liberal ideological imperatives of current higher education and policy reforms and illustrates the way that changes in the relationship between the state and higher education policy affect current trends in higher education reforms Using diverse comparative education paradigms from critical theory to historical comparative research the chapters focus on globalisation ideology and higher education reforms and examine both the reasons and outcomes of higher education reforms and policy change The book analyses and evaluates the policy shifts in methodological approaches to globalisation and higher education reforms and their impact on education policy and pedagogy The book contributes in a very scholarly way to a more holistic understanding of the nexus between globalisation comparative education research and higher education reforms
