Fictions Du Corps:

Mothers of Invention Miléna Santoro, 2002 Through an analysis of the strategies adopted by Helene Cixous Madeleine Gagnon Nicole Brossard and Jeanne Hyvrard as they rework maternal and pro creative metaphors and play with language and conventions of genre Miléna Santoro identifies a transatlantic community of women writers who share a subversive aesthetic that participates in even as it transforms the tradition of the avant garde in twentieth century literature

Fictions du savoir à la Renaissance Olivier Guerrier, Hélène Cazes, Myriam Marrache-Gouraud, Sophie Arnaud, 2003-11-25 Fictional Labor Jiewon Baek, 2022-07-15 This book advocates for the ethically formative labor that fiction accomplishes As a force of production the fictional labor of literature and the visual arts shapes the formation of collective meaning in an era marked by the negligence of social financial and environmental responsibility As neoliberalism's hegemony since the 1980s has intensified through the proliferation of digital technologies in the 21st century considering works of creative art as an ethically productive force is a necessary complement to political and economic critiques The book invites readers to rethink how mutations in the production circulation and consumption of literary and visual materials are implicated in the commodification of information and attention for private gain The link can have a positive effect that transforms the social relation from a capitalist ethos that expends life for profit to an alterity driven ethos that defends life But remedying the paucity of moral sentiments of social existence requires fictional labor to generate ethical sensibilities cares desires and wills The book's close analyses demonstrate the aesthetic and formal aspects of literary and visual art that mediate between social relations to yield a dependence alterity including the otherness of a precarious present a menacing future beyond economic mastery and an environment enmeshed with living beings and things Fictions of Race in

Contemporary French Literature Étienne Achille, Oana Panaïté, 2025-05-19 Contemporary French writers have embarked on various quests for new sources of thematic and formal inspiration which are increasingly tied to issues of postcolonial legacies However French literature has never been consistently examined through the lens of race ethnicity and its relation to post coloniality Fictions of Race in Contemporary French Literature is the first scholarly study to engage with the figure of the White writer and explore the White literary gaze in contemporary France The book highlights the inherent postcoloniality of White Hexagonal literature in a context marked by institutionalized colour blindness and offers a reflection on responsible writing in and about postcolonial France The book identifies a set of formal features functions and aesthetic dispositions which reveal the ways in which White writers grapple with postcolonial subjects It focuses on seven case studies featuring texts by Marie Darrieussecq Virginie Despentes Annie Ernaux Nicolas Fargues Pierre Lemaitre douard Louis and Nicolas Mathieu Achille and Panaïté argue that it is imperative to recast the enduring boundedness of race and empire as a matter of equal concern to White and non White writers Nathalie Sarraute, Fiction and Theory Ann Jefferson, 2000-07-03

Nathalie Sarraute 1900-99 is regarded as one of the major French novelists of the twentieth century Initially hailed as a leading theorist and exemplar of the nouveau roman she has come to be regarded as an important author in her own right with her own distinctive concerns In this major 2000 study of Sarraute the first in English since her death Ann Jefferson offers a fresh perspective on Sarraute s entire oeuvre her novels her outstanding autobiography Enfance and her influential critical writings by focusing on the crucial issue of difference which emerges as one of her central preoccupations Drawing on a variety of critical approaches Jefferson explores Sarraute s fundamental ambivalence to differences of various kinds including questions of gender and genre She argues that difference is simultaneously asserted and denied in Sarraute s work and that the notion of difference so often celebrated by other writers and thinkers is shown in Sarraute s work to be inseparable from ambiguity and anxiety

Medial Bodies between Fiction and Faction

Denisa Butnaru, 2020-06-03 In the past decades developments in the fields of medicine new media and biotechnologies challenged many representations and practices questioning the understanding of our corporeal limits Using concrete examples from literary fiction media studies philosophy performance arts and social sciences this collection underlines how bodily models and transformations thought until recently to be only fictional products have become a part of our reality The essays provide a spectrum of perspectives on how the body emerges as a transitional environment between fictional and factual elements a process understood as faction

Fiction and the Frontiers of Knowledge in Europe, 1500-1800 Richard Scholar, Alexis Tadié, 2016-04-15 The uses of fiction in early modern Europe are far more varied than is often assumed by those who consider fiction to be synonymous with the novel The contributors to this volume demonstrate the significant role that fiction plays in early modern European culture not only in a variety of its literary genres but also in its formation of philosophical ideas political theories and the law The volume explores these uses of fiction in a series of interrelated case studies ranging from the Italian Renaissance to the French Revolution and examining the work of among others Montaigne Corneille Descartes Hobbes Locke and Diderot It asks Where does fiction live and thrive Under what conditions and to what ends It suggests that fiction is best understood not as a genre or a discipline but instead as a frontier one that demarcates literary genres and disciplines of knowledge and which crucially allows for the circulation of ideas between them Italian Science Fiction and the Environmental Humanities Daniel A. Finch-Race, Emiliano Guaraldo, Marco Malvestio, 2023-11-15 This volume explores Italian science fiction from the nineteenth century to the twenty first covering literary texts films music and visual works by figures as diverse as Maria Rosa Cutrufelli Peter Kolosimo Primo Levi Antonio Margheriti Gilda Musa and Roberto Vacca It broadens the horizons of both Italian studies and the environmental humanities by addressing a long neglected genre and expands our understanding of relations between the ecological the imaginary and the sociopolitical The chapters draw on a variety of methodological frameworks including animal studies ecocriticism ecofeminism eco media studies energy humanities and posthumanism The reader will gain insights into consequential topics such as anthropocentrism speciesism ecomodernist thought environmental justice struggles at the planetary and regional level non human and new materialist ontologies utopian dystopian philosophies and prospects for transitioning beyond the crisis of petro modernity through the construction of post depletion futures Open Access versions of the introduction and six of the book chapters are available on the Liverpool University Press website

Marriage as a National Fiction Dagmar Stöferle, 2023-02-15 There is a prehistory of the adultery novel which became a pan European literary paradigm in the second half of the 19th century In the wake of the French Revolution secular marriage legislation emerges producing a metaphorical surplus that is still effective today Using legal history and canonical literary texts from Rousseau to Goethe and Manzoni to Hugo and Flaubert this book traces how marriage around 1800 became a figure of reflection for the modern nation state In the process original contributions to the philology of the individual texts emerge At the same time law and literature are made fruitful for a historical semantics of society and community This book is a translation of an original German 1st edition Ehe als Nationalfiktion by Dagmar Stöferle published by J B Metzler imprint of Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL com The author with the support of Chris Owain Carter has subsequently revised the text further in an endeavour to refine the work stylistically
