Tropic Of Hockey Dave Bidini, 2011-12-14 One hot afternoon in 1998 Dave Bidini who loves hockey watches it plays it and breathes it found the Stanley Cup final so tedious to watch that at one point he clicked channels to Martha Stewart and never switched back This made him wonder where in the world the game might exist free of the complications of professional sport He set out to find the tropic of hockey His quest took him to a rink on the seventh storey of a mall in Hong Kong a rink encircled by a dragon headed roller coaster and to the gritty city of Harbin in northern China where a version of hockey has been played for 600 years to Dubai in the desert of the United Emirates where hockey is brand new and incredulous Bedouin drop by the Al Ain rink to touch the ice and to Transylvania where the game is a war between Romanians and ethnic Hungarians who were introduced to hockey by a 1929 newsreel of Canadians chasing the puck Bidini's encounters with odd sized rinks and players of wildly different talents and experiences have inspired him to interweave his stories of hockey in unlikely places with funny and eyebrow raising stories about places and players back in Canada As a bonus readers are also treated to some striking observations about the game its fans and the testosterone the profanity and the moments of grace that enrich it

Jon Wertheim,2012-01-17 In Scorecasting University of Chicago behavioral economist Tobias Moskowitz teams up with veteran Sports Illustrated writer L Jon Wertheim to overturn some of the most cherished truisms of sports and reveal the hidden forces that shape how basketball baseball football and hockey games are played won and lost Drawing from Moskowitz s original research as well as studies from fellow economists such as bestselling author Richard Thaler the authors look at the influence home field advantage has on the outcomes of games in all sports and why it exists the surprising truth about the universally accepted axiom that defense wins championships the subtle biases that umpires exhibit in calling balls and strikes in key situations the unintended consequences of referees tendencies in every sport to swallow the whistle and more Among the insights that Scorecasting reveals Why Tiger Woods is prone to the same mistake in high pressure putting situations that you and I are Why professional teams routinely overvalue draft picks The myth of momentum or the hot hand in sports and why so many fans coaches and broadcasters fervently subscribe to it Why NFL coaches rarely go for a first down on fourth down situations even when their reluctance to do so reduces their chances of winning In an engaging narrative that takes us from the putting greens of Augusta to the grid iron of a small parochial high school in Arkansas Scorecasting will forever change how you view the game whatever your favorite sport might be
