published in the original print version of this book      Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry Alan Bleakley, Shane Neilson, 2024-05-02 The Routledge Handbook of Medicine and Poetry draws on an international selection of authors to ask what the cultures of poetry and medicine may gain from reciprocal critical engagement The volume celebrates interdisciplinary inquiry critique and creative expansion with an emphasis upon amplifying provocative and marginalized voices This carefully curated collection offers both historical context and future thinking from clinicians poets artists humanities scholars social scientists and bio scientists who collectively inquire into the nature of relationships between medicine and poetry Importantly these can be both productive and unproductive How for example do poet doctors reconcile the outwardly antithetical approaches of bio scientific medicine and poetry in their daily work where typically the former draws on technical language and associated thinking and the latter on metaphors How does non narrative lyrical poetry engage with narrative based medicine How do poets writing about medicine identify as patients Central to the volume is the critical investigation of the consequences of varieties of medical pedagogy for clinical practice Presenting a vision of how poetic thinking might form a medical ontology this thought provoking book affords an essential resource for scholars and practitioners from across medicine health and social care medical education the medical and health humanities and literary studies      The Poetry and Music of Joaquín Sabina Daniel J. Nappo, 2020-12-03 The Poetry and Music of Joaquín Sabina

An Angel with Black Wings is a thoroughly researched exploration of the life music and song lyrics of the celebrated Spanish singer songwriter Joaquín Sabina Often called the Spanish Dylan Sabina has established his own highly poetic space over the course of his forty plus years as a recording artist Using selected song lyrics from his fifteen studio and three major live albums Daniel J Nappo analyzes Sabina's use of antithesis simile metaphor synesthesia rhyme and other rhetorical and poetic devices Nappo also devotes a chapter to Sabina's ability as a narrator and concludes the book with a comparison of Sabina's best work with that of the American singer songwriter and Nobel laureate Bob Dylan      Reading Roger Beard, 2022-10-20

The field of reading is a compelling one characterised by many debates and discussions It is also amenable to investigations through a range of theories and research studies In this book eight leading authorities provide a state of the art overview of reading using perspectives that have informed their work There are overviews from linguistic psychological sociological and literary viewpoints as well as more hybrid ones from investigations of digital literacy and multi modality This book celebrates what has already been achieved by bridging research scholarship and practice it also suggests what still needs to be done to bring the positive rewards from reading to greater numbers of young people It also recognises that the benefits of reading extend beyond the personal Accomplished reading skills empower people to meet the challenges of everyday life making decisions solving problems and dealing with unexpected events The need to refresh and renew our knowledge of reading has gained further impetus in the information age New technologies for information and communication continually appear manifestations of fake news disinformation and conspiracy theories spread rapidly across the globe The book underlines the importance not only of reading but also the fact that reading between and beyond the lines is more important than ever in print and across multiple media platforms The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Education 3 13 International Journal of Primary Elementary and Early Years Education      Poetry and Contemporary Visual Culture / Lyrik und zeitgenössische Visuelle Kultur Magdalena Elisabeth Korecka, Wiebke Vorrath, 2023-10-24 This book's goal is to determine the significance of visual culture in the production of contemporary poetry and to sound out the insights poetry might generate into contemporary visual culture Its main hypothesis is that poetry holds considerable potential for post digital language image and media criticism The visual dimensions of recent poetry encompass for instance kinetic writing in digital poetry visual elements in social media poems and spoken and written text image interactions in poetry films as well as in book poetry The articles examine these medial correlations and their political implications by asking how visual culture is applied exposed and debated in poetry This volume brings together contributions by authors from various countries working in disciplines such as literary media and film studies linguistics cultural and visual culture studies and in poetic practice It covers poetry in English German Norwegian Polish Ukrainian Russian Serbian and also multilingual works The book thus aims to promote international exchange between poetry researchers and stimulate further investigation into current relations between poetry and visuality from additional research perspectives and languages      Primary English: Knowledge and Understanding Jane Medwell, David Wray, George Moore, Vivienne Griffiths, 2024-05-18 The essential subject knowledge text for primary English Secure subject knowledge and understanding is the foundation of confident creative and effective teaching The trainee teacher's guide to all the subject knowledge required to teach primary English Includes practical and reflective tasks to help deepen your understanding and self assessment tests to check your knowledge and identify areas where more study is needed This 10th edition has been updated throughout and is now linked to the ITT Core Content Framework      Programming Language Cultures Brian Lennon, 2024-08-27 In this book Brian Lennon demonstrates the power of a philological approach to the history of programming languages and their usage cultures In chapters focused on specific programming languages such as SNOBOL and JavaScript as well as on code comments metasyntactic variables the very early history of programming and the concept of DevOps Lennon emphasizes the histories of programming languages in their individual specificities over their abstract formal or structural characteristics viewing them as carriers and sometimes shapers of specific cultural histories The book's philological approach to programming languages presents a natural sensible and rigorous way for researchers trained in the humanities to perform research on computing in a way that draws on their own expertise Combining programming knowledge with a humanistic analysis of the social and historical dimensions of computing Lennon offers researchers in literary studies STS media and digital studies and technical fields the first technically rigorous approach to studying programming languages from a humanities based perspective      Handbook of Ecocriticism and Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf, 2016-05-10 Ecocriticism has emerged as one of the most fascinating and rapidly growing fields of recent literary and cultural studies From its regional origins in late twentieth century Anglo American academia it has become a worldwide phenomenon which involves a decidedly transdisciplinary and transnational paradigm that promises to return a new sense of relevance to research and teaching in the humanities A distinctive feature of the present handbook in comparison with other survey volumes is the combination of ecocriticism with cultural ecology reflecting an emphasis on the cultural transformation of ecological processes and on the crucial role of literature art and other forms of cultural creativity for the evolution of societies towards sustainable futures In state of the art contributions by leading international scholars in the field this handbook maps some of the most important developments in contemporary ecocritical thought It introduces key theoretical concepts issues and directions of ecocriticism and cultural ecology and demonstrates their relevance for the analysis of texts and other cultural phenomena Tzedek, Tzedek Tirdof: Poetry, Prophecy, and Justice in Hebrew Scripture Andrew Colin Gow, Peter Sabo, 2017-09-25 Tzedek Tzedek Tirdof Poetry Prophecy and Justice in Hebrew Scripture Essays in Honor of Francis Landy on the Occasion of his 70th Birthday is a collection of essays by colleagues friends and students of Prof Francis Landy It is the second Festschrift dedicated to this remarkable teacher and colleague friend and mentor and thus bears witness to the remarkable esteem in which Prof Landy is held in the Biblical Studies community and beyond including literary studies film studies and poetry Client Education: Theory and Practice Mary A. Miller, Pamela Rae Stoeckel, 2024-11-15 Client Education Theory and Practice Fourth Edition teaches nursing students the important skills of patient education and health promotion The authors use their unique Miller Stoeckel Client Education Model as the organizing framework to emphasize the importance of the Nurse Client Relationship and how this relationship is paramount to the success of client education They focus on the key role that nurses play in educating individuals families and groups in clinical settings The updated Fourth Edition addresses the need for health education in nursing by covering the learning process and discussing the needs of clients across the age span The authors thoughtful revision includes updated statistics on chronic diseases and new data on generations Z and Alpha Furthermore they teach students how to work with culturally diverse populations by presenting specific teaching approaches The Place and the Writer Marshall Moore, Sam Meekings, 2021-04-08 The combined experience of authors throughout the ages offers a wealth of valuable information about the practice of creative writing However such lore can also be problematic for students and practitioners as it can be inherently additive making it difficult to abandon processes that do not work This adherence to lore also tends to be a US centric endeavor In order to take a nuanced approach to the uses and limitations of lore The Place and the Writer offers a global perspective on creative writing pedagogy that has yet to be fully explored Featuring a diverse array of cultural viewpoints from Brazil to Hong Kong Finland to South Africa this book explores the ongoing international debate about the best approaches for teaching and practicing creative writing Marshall Moore and Sam Meekings challenge areas of perceived wisdom that persist in the field of creative writing including aesthetics and politics in institutionalized creative writing the process of workshopping tuition and talent anxiety in the classroom unifying theory and lore and teaching creative writing in languages other than English      The Oxford Handbook of Taboo Words and Language Keith Allan, 2018-11-08 This volume brings together experts from a wide range of disciplines to define and describe tabooed words and language and to investigate the reasons and beliefs behind them In general taboo is defined as a proscription of behaviour for a specific community time and context In terms of language taboo applies to instances of language behaviour the use of certain words in certain contexts The existence of linguistic taboos and their management lead to the censoring of behaviour and as a consequence to language change and development Chapters in this volume explore the multiple types of tabooed language from a variety of perspectives such as sociolinguistics anthropology philosophy psychology historical linguistics and neurolinguistics and with reference to fields such as law publishing politics and advertising Topics covered include impoliteness swearing censorship taboo in deaf communities translation of tabooed words and the use of taboo in banter and comedy      Seeing the Body: Poems Rachel Eliza Griffiths, 2020-06-09 Nominee for the 2021 NAACP Image Award in Poetry An elegiac and moving meditation on the ways in which we witness bodies of grief and healing Poems and photographs collide in this intimate collection challenging the invisible indefinable ways mourning takes up residence in a body both before and after life altering loss In radiant poems set against the evocative and desperate backdrop of contemporary events pop culture and politics Rachel Eliza Griffiths reckons with her mother's death aging authority art black womanhood memory and the American imagination The poems take shape in the space where public and private mourning converge finding there magic and music alongside brutality and trauma Griffiths braids a moving narrative of identity and its possibilities for rebirth through image and through loss A photographer as well as a poet Griffiths accompanies the fierce rhythm of her verses with a series of ghostly imaginative self portraits blurring the body's internal wilderness with landscapes alive with beauty and terror The collision of text and imagery offers an associative autobiography in which narratives of language absence and presence are at once saved revised and often erased Seeing the Body dismantles personal and public masks of silence and self destruction to visualize and celebrate the imperfect freedom of radical self love

Exiled Home Susan Bibler Coutin, 2016-04-15 In Exiled Home Susan Bibler Coutin recounts the experiences of Salvadoran children who migrated with their families to the United States during the 1980-1992 civil war Because of their youth and the violence they left behind as well as their uncertain legal status in the United States many grew up with distant memories of El Salvador and a profound sense of disjuncture in their adopted homeland Through interviews in both countries Coutin examines how they sought to understand and overcome the trauma of war and displacement through such strategies as recording community histories advocating for undocumented immigrants forging new relationships with the Salvadoran state and for those deported from the United States reconstructing their lives in El Salvador In focusing on the case of Salvadoran youth Coutin's nuanced analysis shows how the violence associated with migration can be countered through practices that recuperate historical memory while also reclaiming national membership
