techniques From the rise of Bollywood in India to the acclaimed cinema of East Asia Asian filmmakers have made a mark on global audiences Films from Asia have gained widespread recognition for their artistic merit critical acclaim and box office success breaking barriers in both content and form As the industry evolves the influence of Asian cinema grows fostering cross cultural collaborations expanding global markets and challenging traditional norms in filmmaking highlighting the increasing importance of Asian voices in the future of the global film industry Global Development of Asian Cinema in the Film Industry explores the reception of Asian film aesthetics and consumption behaviors among global audiences It provides practical guidance for advancing the international development of the Asian film industry This book covers topics such as digital streaming political science and posthumanism and is a useful resource for filmmakers business owners media and communications professionals sociologists historians academicians and researchers History by HBO Rebecca

Weeks,2022-07-12 The television industry is changing and with it the small screen s potential to engage in debate and present valuable representations of American history Founded in 1972 HBO has been at the forefront of these changes leading the way for many network cable and streaming services into the post network era Despite this most scholarship has been dedicated to analyzing historical feature films and documentary films leaving TV and the long form drama hungry for coverage In History by HBO Televising the American Past Rebecca Weeks fills the gap in this area of media studies and defends the historiographic power of long form dramas By focusing on this change and its effects History by HBO outlines how history is crafted on television and the diverse forms it can take Weeks examines the capabilities of the long form serial for engaging with historical stories insisting that the shift away from the network model and toward narrowcasting has enabled challenging histories to thrive in home settings As an examination of HBO s unique structure for producing quality historical dramas Weeks provides four case studies of HBO series set during different periods of United States history Band of Brothers 2001 Deadwood 2004 2007 Boardwalk Empire 2012 2014 and Treme 2010 2013 In each case HBO s lack of advertiser influence commitment to creative freedom and generous budgets continue to draw and retain talent who want to tell historical stories Balancing historical and film theories in her assessment of the roles of mise en scene characterization narrative complexity and sound in the production of effective historical dramas Weeks evaluation acts as an ode to the most recent Golden Age of TV as well as a critical look at the relationship between entertainment media and collective memory

Encountering the Other Laura Duhan-Kaplan,Harry O. Maier,2020-04-17 How do religious traditions create strangers and neighbors How do they construct otherness Or instead work to overcome it In this exciting collection of interdisciplinary essays scholars and activists from various traditions explore these questions Through legal and media studies they reveal how we see religious others They show that Jewish Christian Islamic and Sikh texts frame others in open ended ways Conflict resolution experts and Hindu teachers they explain draw on a shared positive psychology Jewish mystics and Christian contemplatives use powerful tools of compassionate perception Finally the authors explain how Christian theology can help teach respectful views of difference They are not afraid to discuss how religious groups have alienated one another But together they choose to draw positive lessons about future cooperation

Memory and Movies John Seamon, 2024-10-29 How popular films from Memento to Slumdog Millionaire can help us understand how memory works In the movie Slumdog Millionaire the childhood memories of a young game show contestant trigger his correct answers In Memento the amnesiac hero uses tattoos as memory aids In Away from Her an older woman suffering from dementia no longer remembers who her husband is These are compelling films that tell affecting stories about the human condition But what can these movies teach us about memory In this book John Seamon shows how examining the treatment of memory in popular movies can shed new light on how human memory works After explaining that memory is actually a diverse collection of independent systems Seamon uses examples from movies to offer an accessible nontechnical description of what science knows about memory function and dysfunction In a series of lively encounters with numerous popular films he draws on Life of Pi and Avatar for example to explain working memory used for short term retention He describes the process of long term memory with examples from such films as Cast Away and Groundhog Day The Return of Martin Guerre among other movies informs his account of how we recognize people the effect of emotion on autobiographical memory is illustrated by The Kite Runner Titanic and other films movies including Born on the Fourth of July and Rachel Getting Married illustrate the complex pain of traumatic memories Seamon shows us that movies rarely get amnesia right often using strategically timed blows to the protagonist's head as a way to turn memory off and then on again as in Desperately Seeking Susan Finally he uses movies including On Golden Pond and Amour to describe the memory loss that often accompanies aging while highlighting effective ways to maintain memory function

Bodies in Pain Tarja Laine, 2017-04 The films of Darren Aronofsky invite emotional engagement by means of affective resonance between the film and the spectator's lived body Aronofsky's films which include a rich range of production from Requiem for a Dream to Black Swan are often considered cerebral because they explore topics like mathematics madness hallucinations obsessions social anxiety addiction psychosis schizophrenia and neuroscience Yet this interest in intelligence and mental processes is deeply embedded in the operations of the body shared with the spectator by means of a distinctively corporeal audiovisual style Bodies in Pain looks at how Aronofsky's films engage the spectator in an affective form of viewing that involves all the senses ultimately engendering a process of self reflection through their emotional dynamics
