Can Themba Siphiwo Mahala, 2022-03-30 Mahala's biography gives insight into the life and writing of Can Themba 1924-1967, an iconic figure of the South African literary world and Drum journalist who died in exile. Can Themba: The Intellectual Tsotsi, a Biography brings to life the iconic South African writer and journalist Can Themba (21 June 1924 – 8 September 1967) who died while exiled in Swaziland in 1967. Best known for his classic short story 'The Suit', Themba has been somewhat of an enigma with very little known about his personal life. This biography brings forth the voices of those who had personal interactions with him, shining the light on different aspects of his life including education, literature, journalism, and political fraternities. It features interviews with prominent individuals including his former students Abdul Bham Pitika Ntuli and Mbulelo Mzamane, journalistic mentees Juby Mayet and Joe Thloloe, as well as friends, colleagues, and contemporaries Parks Mangena, Peter Magubane, Jurgen Schadeberg, Don Mattera, and Nadine Gordimer, in addition to artists and academics Mothobi Mutloatse, Muxe Nkondo, and Njabulo S. Ndebele. Also featured in this biographical text are veteran political figures such as Mangosuthu Buthe, Lezi Lindiwe Mabuza, and Ahmed Kathrada. Themba's intellectual acumen, scholarly aptitude, and wit are some of his most revered characteristics amongst those who had interactions with him, either in person or through comprehensive reading of his works. Mahala is a master storyteller and deftly weaves together the threads of Themba's dynamic life. In this edifying biography, Mahala recreates the sparkle and pathos of Sophiatown of the 1950s and the Drum era. Can Themba's successes and failures, as well as his triumphs and tribulations, reverberate on the pages of this long-awaited biography.

The Origin and Growth of Geography as a discipline at South Africa Universities Gustav Visser, 2016-09-20 The publication provides the first comprehensive text that reflects on a century of the development of geography as an academic discipline at South African universities. The book showcases a broad and textured review of South Africa's geography departments, their staff members, their times, and the different Geographies they engaged in. The book lays the foundation from which more expansive individual departmental histories can be written in the future.

Making Music, Making Society Josep Martí, Sara Revilla, 2018-01-23 A society is the result of interacting individuals, and individuals are also the result of this interaction. This interaction happens through music among other factors. As such, music constitutes a powerful resource for symbolic interaction, which constitutes the medium and substance of a culture. The importance of music in a society is clearly brought to light in the role that it plays in the three basic parameters of the social logics: identity, social order, and the need for exchange. If music is so important to us, it is because, apart from its assigned aesthetic values, it fits closely with the dynamics of each of these three different parameters. These parameters, which are consubstantial to the social nature of the human being, constitute the core of the book as they manifest in musical practices. This publication addresses important issues such as the role of music in shaping identities, how music and social order are intertwined, and why music is so relevant in human interaction. The last part of the book explores issues related to the social application of musical research The volume brings together specialists from different academic disciplines with the same powerful starting point music is not merely something related to the social but rather a social life itself something capable of structuring the social experience Proceedings of the 23rd European Conference on Research Methodology for Business and Management Studies Dr Ana Isabel Azevedo, 2024-07-04 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 23rd European Conference on Research Methodology ECRM 2024 hosted by ISCAP in Porto Portugal on 4-5 July 2024 The Conference Co-Chairs are Dr Ana Isabel Azevedo and Dr Jos Manuel Azevedo both from ISCAP Portugal ECRM is a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 23rd year and remains an opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet The aims and scope of this conference is to bring together researchers from a range of disciplines and sectors to share expertise and novel approaches in business and management research methods ECRM is interested in contributions on the subject of research methods used in business and management research The papers tend to either focus directly on creating and implementing innovative methodologies or research papers which highlight an interesting use of methodologies in their study The opening keynote presentation is given by Marta Agostinho Executive Director of EU LIFE with the title Excellent Scientific Research What Does it Mean and Why Should we Care About it On the second day Professor Susanne Tietze from The University of Sheffield Hallam UK will give a talk on the subject Cross Language Research Methods Translation and Linguistic Reflexivity With an initial submission of 90 abstracts after the double blind peer review process there are 30 Academic research papers 1 PhD research paper 1 Masters Research paper and 1 work in progress paper published in these Conference Proceedings These papers represent research from India Australia Brazil Canada China Czech Republic Estonia Germany India Ireland Italy Latvia Morocco Norway Oman Poland Portugal Slovakia South Africa Sweden UK and the USA

Catsam,2021-08-28 Forty years ago a South African rugby tour in the United States became a crucial turning point for the nation's burgeoning protests against apartheid and a test of American foreign policy In Flashpoint How a Little Known Sporting Event Fueled America's Anti Apartheid Movement Derek Charles Catsam tells the fascinating story of the Springboks' 1981 US tour and its impact on the country's anti apartheid struggle The US lagged well behind the rest of the Western world when it came to addressing the vexing question of South Africa's racial policies but the rugby tour changed all that Those who had been a part of the country's tiny anti apartheid struggle for decades used the visit from one of white South Africa's most cherished institutions to mobilize against both apartheid sport and the South African regime more broadly Protestors met the South African team at airports chanted outside their hotels and courted arrests at matches which ranged from the bizarre to the laughable with organizers going to incredible lengths to keep their locations secret In telling the story of how a sport little appreciated in the United States nonetheless became ground zero for the nation's growing anti apartheid movement Flashpoint serves as a poignant reminder that sports and politics have always been closely intertwined

COVID-19 in the African Continent Evans Osabuohien,Gbadebo Odularu,Daniel Ufua,Romanus Osabohien,2022-05-23

COVID 19 in the African Continent examines the development achievements and challenges that have resulted owing to COVID 19 pandemic and how these precarious socioeconomic situations are being managed in African countries Names Fashioned by Gender Thenjiwe Meyiwa, Madoda Cekiso, 2023-12-01 Names are very powerful and significant especially in the African context Across societies there is a universal albeit taken for granted fact that all human beings have names Names Fashioned by Gender is a collection of essays on onomastics a linguistics field of study focusing on the origin form history and use of proper names The study of naming potentially provides significant evidence about the role of gender in the assimilation and or enculturation processes as personal names evoke insight into the construction of gender and personhood in African societies The book takes intellectual course from the idea that how names are viewed and used is heavily context dependent and gendered It demonstrates that personal names are narratives derived from different contexts within various cultures and circumstances subsequently imposing different identities on name bearers Through persuasive essays this book elucidates that naming is an activity that needs to be conducted cautiously because names tend to determine the destiny and character of an individual Print editions not for sale in Sub Saharan Africa Going to University. The Influence of Higher Education on the Lives of Young South Africans Jennifer Case, Delia Marshall, 2018-02-09 Around the world more young people than ever before are attending university Student numbers in South Africa have doubled since democracy and for many families higher education is a route to a better future for their children But alongside the overwhelming demand for higher education questions about its purposes have intensified Deliberations about the curriculum culture and costing of public higher education abound from student activists academics parents civil society and policy makers We know from macro research that South African graduates generally have good employment prospects But little is known at a detailed level about how young people actually make use of their university experiences to craft their life courses And even less is known about what happens to those who drop out This accessible book brings together the rich life stories of 73 young people six years after they began their university studies It traces how going to university influences not only their employment options but also nurtures the agency needed to chart their own way and to engage critically with the world around them The book offers deep insights into the ways in which public higher education is both a private and public good and it provides significant conclusions pertinent to anyone who works in and cares about universities Guerrilla Radios in Southern Africa Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Tshepo Molo, Alda Romão Saúte Saíde, 2020-11-03 Guerrilla Radios in Southern Africa is a collection of essays on the histories of the different radios of the liberation movements in the region during the era of the armed struggle From Angola and Mozambique to Namibia Zimbabwe and South Africa the new technology of radio provided the liberation movements in exile with a platform to address their followers at home to propagate their ideologies and to counter the propaganda of the oppressive white minority regimes As the cheapest and most direct medium guerrilla radios transcended the boundaries imposed by the settler regimes and were widely listened to albeit within the realm of illegality Transnational in its approach the book explores the workings of these radios from their areas of broadcast in exile international solidarity to reception at home where listeners often huddled around their receivers to listen to the messages from the liberation movements often beyond the gaze of the state These radios shaped the nature of resistance campaigns that the liberation movements embarked upon in the various countries in the region Taking Care of the Future Oliver Pattenden,2018-03-06 Taking Care of the Future examines the moral dimensions and transformative capacities of education and humanitarianism through an intimate portrayal of learners volunteers donors and educators at a special needs school in South Africa and a partnering UK based charity Drawing on his professional experience of inclusive education in London Oliver Pattenden investigates how systems of schooling regularly exclude and mishandle marginalized populations particularly exploring how street kids and poverty afflicted young South Africans experience these dynamics as they attempt to fashion their futures By unpacking the ethical terrains of fundraising voluntourism Christian benevolence human rights colonial legacies and the post apartheid transition Pattenden analyzes how political economic and social aspects of intervention materialize to transform the lives of all those involved Student Movements in Late Neoliberalism

Lorenzo Cini,Donatella della Porta,César Guzmán-Concha,2021-08-22 This book inquires into the global wave of student mobilizations that have arisen in the aftermath of the economic crisis of 2008 accounting for their historical and sociological significance More specifically its eleven chapters explore the role of students as political actors their ability to build effective organizations to make political alliances with other actors and to win public consensus as well as their impact on cultural political and policy outcomes To do so the volume examines case studies in England Chile South Africa Quebec and Hong Kong covering Europe Africa Asia and North and Latin America Grouped into two major sections the collection covers the organizational structures of student movements and their alliances and outcomes Ultimately this volume examines the understudied political aspects of student unrest exploring how student mobilizations driven by indebtedness precariousness the corporatization of the university and other issues correspond to larger processes of change with wider implications in society Against All Odds Dr. Simon George Taukeni,2017-01-12 This is a true life story of a poor ordinary orphan and a Namibian refugee boy who did extraordinary things in a normal but amazing way It is the life of a poor village boy who did supernatural things with a simple smile
