in a spirit of critical consciousness and reciprocity Higher Education and Capacity Building in Africa Hanne Kirstine Adriansen, Lene Møller Madsen, Stig Jensen, 2015-11-06 Higher education has recently been recognized as a key driver for societal growth in the Global South and capacity building of African universities is now widely included in donor policies The question is how do capacity building projects affect African universities researchers and students Universities and their scientific knowledges are often seen to have universal qualities therefore capacity building may appear straight forward Higher Education and Capacity Building in Africa contests such universalistic notions Inspired by ideas about the geography of scientific knowledge it explores what role specific places and relationships have in knowledge production and analyses how cultural experiences are included and excluded in teaching and research Thus the different chapters show how what constitutes legitimate scientific knowledge is negotiated and contested In doing so the chapters draw on discussions about the hegemony of Western thought in education and knowledge production The authors own experiences with higher education capacity building and knowledge production are discussed and used to contribute to the reflexive turn and rise of auto ethnography This book is a valuable resource for researchers and postgraduate students in education development studies African studies and human geography as well as anthropology and history Upending the Ivory Tower Stefan M. Bradley, 2021-01-19 Winner 2019 Anna Julia Cooper and C L R James Award given by the National Council for Black Studies Finalist 2019 Pauli Murray Book Prize in Black Intellectual History given by the African American Intellectual History Society Winner 2019 Outstanding Book Award given by the History of Education Society The inspiring story of the black students faculty and administrators who forever changed America s leading educational institutions and paved the way for social justice and racial progress The eight elite institutions that comprise the Ivy League sometimes known as the Ancient Eight Harvard Yale Princeton Penn Columbia Brown Dartmouth and Cornell are American stalwarts that have profoundly influenced history and culture by producing the nation s and the world s leaders The few black students who attended Ivy League schools in the decades following WWII not only went on to greatly influence black America and the nation in general but unquestionably awakened these most traditional and selective of American spaces In the twentieth century black youth were in the vanguard of the black freedom movement and educational reform Upending the Ivory Tower illuminates how the Black Power movement which was borne out of an effort to edify the most disfranchised of the black masses also took root in the hallowed halls of America s most esteemed institutions of higher education Between the close of WWII and 1975 the civil rights and Black Power movements transformed the demographics and operation of the Ivy League on and off campus As desegregators and racial pioneers black students staff and faculty used their status in the black intelligentsia to enhance their predominantly white institutions while advancing black freedom Although they were often marginalized because of their race and class the newcomers altered educational policies and inserted blackness into the curricula and culture of the unabashedly exclusive and starkly white schools This book attempts to complete the narrative of higher education history while adding a much needed nuance to the history of the Black Power movement It tells the stories of those students professors staff and administrators who pushed for change at the risk of losing what privilege they had Putting their status and sometimes even their lives in jeopardy black activists negotiated protested and demonstrated to create opportunities for the generations that followed The enrichments these change agents made endure in the diversity initiatives and activism surrounding issues of race that exist in the modern Ivy League Upending the Ivory Tower not only informs the civil rights and Black Power movements of the postwar era but also provides critical context for the Black Lives Matter movement that is growing in the streets and on campuses throughout the country today As higher education continues to be a catalyst for change there is no one better to inform today s activists than those who transformed our country s past and paved the way for its future international contexts Sticky problems and debates about inclusivity diversity and cultural representation in the curriculum and classroom are explored through the eyes of the academics who negotiate complex teaching landscapes

Contemporary South Africa Anthony Butler,2017-09-09 This highly regarded text provides a wide ranging introduction to the social political cultural and economic life of South Africa Thoroughly revised and updated the third edition takes account of recent key developments including the impact of the economic crisis the ongoing HIV AIDS epidemic and increasing tensions within South Africa s politics and government The Classics and South African Identities Michael

Lambert,2013-12-12 The teaching and research of the Classics in South Africa are deeply rooted in the racial political and educational inequalities which have characterised its turbulent history In this original study Michael Lambert opens three windows on to this history using the creation of identities as his theoretical lens The foundation of the Classical Association of South Africa in 1956 and the cultural reinforcement of Afrikaner nationalist identity the deployment of British colonial identity in public discourses about the role of the Classics in apartheid South Africa at an English speaking university and the exploration of black African identities in response to the teaching of the Classics at missionary institutions where vocational training was locked in combat with a classical education regarded by an educated black elite as the means for upward social mobility in a highly stratified colonial society The book will be of interest to students of many subjects including Classics Cultural Studies African Studies and History of Education Discerning Critical Hope in Educational Practices Vivienne

Bozalek,Brenda Leibowitz,Ronelle Carolissen,Megan Boler,2013-12-04 How can discerning critical hope enable us to develop innovative forms of teaching learning and social practices that begin to address issues of marginalization privilege and access across different contexts At this millennial point in history questions of cynicism despair and hope arise at every turn especially within areas of research into social justice and the struggle for transformation in education While a sense of fatalism and despair is easily recognizable establishing compelling bases for hope is more difficult This book addresses the absence of sustained analyses of hope that simultaneously recognize the hard edges of why we despair The volume posits the notion of critical hope not only as conceptual and theoretical but also as an action oriented response to despair Our notion of critical hope is used in two ways it is used firstly as a unitary concept which cannot be disaggregated into either hopefulness or criticality and secondly as an analytical concept where critical hope is engaged and diversely theorized in ways that recognize aspects of individual and collective directions of critical hope The book is divided into four sub sections Critical Hope in Education Critical Hope and a Critique of Neoliberalism Critical Race Theory Postcolonial Perspectives on Critical Hope Philosophical Overviews of Critical Hope Education can be a purveyor of critical hope but it also requires critical hope so that it as a sector itself can be transformative With contributions from international experts in the field the book will be of value to all academics and practitioners working in the field of education Western Civilization in Southern Africa Isaac Schapera,2013-11-05 The book is structured as follows An introduction of old Bantu culture An account of modern Bantu life

Discussion of the influence exerted by Christianity and Education upon communal life of the Bantu Examination of special aspects of Bantu culture as they have been modified by Western civilization language and music The economic political and legal positions of the native tribes in South Africa are also covered First published in 1934 World Politics since 1945 Peter Calvocoressi, 2013-09-13 The most lucid comprehensive intelligent and reliable account of post war modern history on the market Teaching Politics The book compels admiration for its thoroughness its scope the masterly ordering of its immense material The Sunday Times The ninth edition of this enormously successful standard work has been expanded to take into account the developments of the last 10 years including the wars in Iraq Afghanistan and Sudan the accelerating emergence of India and China as major powers the major political developments in Latin America including the rise and perhaps fall of Chavez in Venezuela the march of globalisation and the popular protest movements against the expansion eastwards of the European Union instability in the Middle East and the question of oil and energy supply Marked throughout by Calvocoressi's characteristic erudition and elegance World Politics since 1945 is essential reading for those who need to understand the great sweeps of contemporary history Democratizing Higher Education Policy M.T.
