The Palgrave Handbook of Disciplinary and Regional Approaches to Peace Oliver Richmond, Sandra

Pogodda, Jasmin Ramovic, 2016-03-15. In this handbook, a diverse range of leading scholars consider the social, cultural, economic, political and developmental underpinnings of peace. This handbook is a much needed response to the failures of contemporary peacebuilding missions and narrow disciplinary debates, both of which have outlined the need for more interdisciplinary work in International Relations and Peace and Conflict studies. Scholars, students and policymakers are often disillusioned with universalist and northern dominated approaches and a better understanding of the variations of peace and its building blocks across different regions is required Collectively these chapters promote a more differentiated notion of peace employing comparative analysis to explain how peace is debated and contested
