D'Ambrosio, Geir Sigurðsson, Dimitra

Amarantidou, Hans-Georg Moeller, 2025-08-15 This book discusses scholars who have all engaged in comparative philosophy projects many of whom first rose to fame because of their penetrating insights into the similarities and differences in Western and Chinese thought They all went beyond simply looking at how one thinker one school or one tradition relates to another each draws on sources from China and the West However their projects from role ethics to concrete metaphysics from critiquing individualism to balancing harmony and justice are attempts at re evaluating the way we view the world and live our lives These projects are systematic thorough and comprehensive descriptions of ourselves the world and our interactions with others They are all comparative but on top of this they also aim at making a point that transcends their comparisons The book thus shows that these great thinkers draw on a multiplicity of resources and while they might find some ideas closer to home than others comparison is a necessary constant Using traditional Confucian vocabulary this type of philosophizing is described as practicing xue normally understood as studying or learning But it also means to copy imitate model or emulate In the process of xue one imitates but with a nod to differences This book honors four models of such an attitude to xue In its examination of some of the most influential scholars in Chinese thought this is a seminal book for scholars and students in Chinese and comparative philosophy Text and Image in the City Catherine Armstrong, John

Hinks, 2017-03-07 The essays in this collection discuss how the city is textualized and address many aspects of how texts and images are written and produced in and about cities They demonstrate how urban texts and images provoke reactions in city dwellers visitors civic and political actors that in turn impact upon the shape of the city itself Many kinds of urban texts both manuscript and print are discussed including chapbooks periodicals poetry graffiti and street signs The essays derive from a range of disciplines including book history urban history cultural history literary studies art history and urban planning and explore some key questions in urban cultural history including the relationship between text image and the city the function of the text or image within an urban environment how urban texts and images have been used by those in positions of power and by those with little or no power the ways in which urban identity and values have been reflected in street literature graffiti and subversive texts and images and whether theories of urban space can help us to understand the relationship between text image and the city As such this volume will serve to enhance the reader's understanding of the nature of urbanism from a historical perspective the creation and representation of urban space and the processes of urbanization It investigates how the creation distribution and consumption of urban texts and images actively affect the shaping of the city itself a mutually constitutive process whereby text image and city create and sustain each other
