Geographical ,1991 Resources in Education ,1997 Revise for GCSE Geography AQA C David Payne,Sue Jennings,2003 This text includes examiners tips on preparing for and sitting the exam and explains how case studies should be used It also contains double page spreads which contain key information for revising each area of subject content The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007 Public health policy and health communication challenges in the COVID-19 pandemic and infodemic Zhiwen Hu,Chuhan Wu,Pier Luigi Sacco,2023-08-31 School Level Leadership in Post-conflict Societies Simon R. P. Clarke,Thomas A. O'Donoghue,2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised The observation is particularly valid in relation to post conflict societies especially when they have eventuated from new wars Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations By assembling an impressive array of international experts this book investigates a much neglected area of research Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work In particular valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by Enhancing the curriculum Energizing teaching capacity and Optimising leadership capacity Depictions of post new war environments include Angola Ghana Sri Lanka Rwanda Kenya Solomon Islands Lebanon Kosovo Timor Leste and Northern Ireland The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership comparative education and education policy

Towards a more equal society? John Hills, Tom Sefton, Kitty Stewart, 2009-02-25 When New Labour came to power in 1997 its leaders asked for it to be judged after ten years on its success in making Britain a more equal society As it approaches the end of an unprecedented third term in office this book asks whether Britain has indeed moved in that direction The highly successful earlier volume A more equal society was described by Polly Toynbee as the LSE s mighty judgement on inequality Now this second volume by the same team of authors provides an independent assessment of the success or otherwise of New Labour s policies over a longer period It provides consideration by a range of expert authors of a broad set of indicators and policy areas affecting poverty inequality and social exclusion analysis of developments up to the third term on areas including income inequality education employment health inequalities neighbourhoods minority ethnic groups children and older people an assessment of outcomes a decade on asking whether policies stood up to the challenges and whether successful strategies have been sustained or have run out of steam chapters on migration social attitudes the devolved administrations the new Equality and Human Rights Commission and future pressures The book is essential reading for academic and student audiences with an interest in contemporary social policy as well as for all those seeking an objective account of Labour s achievements in power
