Swan Wings Judith von Halle, 2021-10-14 They only awoke when the fire came through the roof The words of the news presenter jolt the toddler into wakefulness Arousing to consciousness from a twilight of hidden memories she asks Who am I and where was my consciousness before it entered my body In the first volume of her extraordinary true story Judith von Halle tells of powerful spiritual experiences as a child and young person Still in her third year she begins to see the world with different eyes observing things that people around here clearly cannot see like the multicoloured currents of life which her child's mind calls the magical life force or the ability to maintain consciousness whilst asleep or perceiving grotesque faces at the threshold to what she calls the World of Reality All the time she is nourished by the venerable Light that gives her strength and encouragement As a 10 year old the young girl has a shattering soul encounter that reveals the universal source of wisdom and love offering a pathway to her search for wholeness In her private thoughts she mulls over existential philosophical questions such as life and death transience love and God Yet in the everyday she has to navigate between what she calls the day theatre world and what she knows as the World of Reality She finds consolation in the realms of poetry philosophy and art and experiences a breakthrough in her thinking but it is not until the age of 25 that she is able to share her secret world of metaphysical knowledge She discovers a group of people who have embraced an open minded philosophy in which she finds astonishing correspondences with her own spiritual understanding Here she finds the concept of reincarnation which brings her full circle back to her original awakening to self consciousness Swan Wings is a courageous moving and inspiring testimony to the immortal spiritual individuality of the human being its origins capacity and full potential
