Global Culture: Consciousness and Connectivity Roland Robertson, Didem Buhari-Gulmez, 2017-05-15 The current discourse of globalization is overwhelmingly centred upon the interconnectedness or connectivity of the contemporary world to the great neglect of the issues of global culture and global consciousness With contemporary worldwide culture increasingly characterized by such themes as astronomy cosmology space travel and exploration there is an increasing disjuncture between academic concern with connectivity on the one hand and culture and consciousness of the place of planet earth in the cosmos as a whole on the other This book addresses this deficiency from a variety of closely related perspectives presenting studies of religion science sport international organizations global resistance movements and migrations and developments in East Asia It brings together the latest theoretical empirical work from scholars in the US UK Australia Japan China and Israel on the significance of culture and global consciousness As such Global Culture Consciousness and Connectivity will be of great interest to scholars across and beyond the social sciences working in the areas of global studies cultural studies social theory the sociology of religion and related issues

Global Exposure in East Asia Ming-Chang Tsai, 2016-03-09 In contrast to speculative sweeping literature on globalization Global Exposure in East Asia grounds globalization theories in a detailed empirical analysis providing a systematic investigation of what until now have been grand narratives of huge global phenomena This book presents a micro level explanation of globalization by examining individual global exposure and its influence in the values and perceptions of individuals contending that individual and personal global experience or microglobalization is a key variable in understanding how modern mobile persons act and think in ways different from those who remain geographically immobile and constrained Drawing on detailed empirical evidence from China Japan Taiwan and South Korea Global Exposure in East Asia explores the structures of global exposure and their influences on values and identities in contemporary East Asia A rich comparative and grounded examination of modern theories of globalization this book introduces an innovative perspective that highlights the significance of microglobalization in understanding quotidian lives in a context of ever expanding transnational exchanges and connectivities As such it will appeal to social scientists with interests in globalization cosmopolitanism mobility migration and transnationalism national identity and everyday life

Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism Manuela Boatcă, 2016-04-22 Based on theoretical developments in research on world systems analysis transnational migration postcolonial and decolonial perspectives whilst considering continuities of inequality patterns in the context of colonial and postcolonial realities Global Inequalities Beyond Occidentalism proposes an original framework for the study of the long term reproduction of inequalities under global capitalism With attention to the critical assessment of both Marxist and Weberian perspectives this book examines the wider implications of transferring classical approaches to inequality to a twenty first century context calling for a reconceptualisation of inequality that is both theoretically informed and methodologically consistent and able to cater for the implications of shifts from national and Western structures to global structures Engaging with approaches to the study of class gender racial and ethnic inequalities at the global level this innovative work adopts a relational perspective in the study of social inequalities that is able to reveal how historical interdependencies between world regions have translated as processes of inequality production and reproduction As such it will be of interest to scholars of sociology political and social theory and anthropology concerned with questions of globalisation and inequality

Violence and Gender in the Globalized World Sanja Bahun, V.G. Julie Rajan, 2024-11-01 Violence and Gender in the Globalized World expands the critical picture of gender and violence in the age of globalization by introducing a variety of uncommonly discussed geo political sites and dynamics The volume hosts methodologically and disciplinarily diverse contributions from around the world discussing various contexts including Chechnya Germany Iraq Kenya Malaysia Nicaragua Palestine the former Yugoslavia Syria South Africa the United States and the Internet Bringing together scholars and activists historicized and site specific perspectives this book bridges the gap between theory and practice concerning violence gender and agency In this revised and updated edition the scope of inquiry is expanded to incorporate phenomena that have recently come to the forefront of public and scholarly scrutiny such as Internet based discourses of violence female suicide bombers and the Islamic State s violence against women At the same time new data and developments are brought to bear on earlier discussions of violence against women across the globe in order to bring them fully up to date With an international team of contributors comprising eminent scholars activists and policy makers this volume will be of interest to anyone conducting research in the areas of gender and sexuality human rights cultural studies law sociology political science history post colonialism and colonialism anthropology philosophy and religion

Glocal Pharma Ericka Johnson, Ebba Sjögren, Cecilia Åsberg, 2016-05-12 The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.tandfebooks.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license An exploration of how global pharmaceutical products are localized of what happens when they become glocal this book examines the tensions that exist between a global pharmaceutical market and the locally bounded discourses and regulations encountered as markets are created for new drugs in particular contexts Employing the case study of the emergence representation and regulation of Viagra in the Swedish market Glocal Pharma offers analyses of commercial material medical discourses and legal documents to show how a Swedish Viagra consuming subject has been constructed in relation to the drug and how Viagra is imagined in relation to the Swedish man Engaging with debates about pharmaceuticalization the authors consider the ways in which new identities are created around drugs the redefinition of health problems as sites of pharmaceutical treatment and changes in practices of governance to reflect the entrance of pharmaceuticals to the market With attention to local contexts it reveals elements in the nexus of pharmaceuticalization that are receptive to cultural elements as new products become embedded in local markets An empirically informed study of the the ways in which the presence of a drug can alter the concept of a disease and its treatment understandings of who suffers from it and how to cure it both locally and internationally this book will appeal to scholars of sociology and science and technology studies with interests in globalization pharmaceuticals gender and the sociology of medicine Centers and Peripheries in Knowledge Production Leandro Rodriguez Medina,2013-10-01 This book examines the circulation of knowledge within globalization focusing on the differences between centers and peripheries of knowledge production in the social sciences It explores not only how knowledge is appropriated in peripheral fields but also how foreign ideas shape those fields and the trajectories of scholars and uses actor network theory to explain circulation of knowledge as an extension of socio technical networks that transcend borders Knowledge Production, Area Studies and Global Cooperation Claudia Derichs,2017-04-27 Whereas Area Studies and cross border cooperation research conventionally demarcates groups of people by geographical boundaries individuals might in fact feel more connected by shared values and principles than by conventional spatial dimensions Knowledge Production Area Studies and Global Cooperation asks what norms and principles lead to the creation of knowledge about cross border cooperation and connection It studies why theories methods and concepts originate in one place rather than another how they travel and what position the scholar adopts while doing research particularly in the field Taking case studies from Asia the Middle East and North Africa the book links the production of alternative epistemologies to the notion of global cooperation and reassesses the ways in which the concept of connectedness can be applied at the translocal and individual rather than the formal international and collective level Knowledge Production Area Studies and Global Cooperation provides an innovative and critical approach towards established means of producing knowledge about different areas of the world demonstrating that an understanding of pluri local connectivity should be integrated into the production of knowledge about different areas of the world and the behavioural dimension of global cooperation By shifting the view from the collective to the individual and from the formal to often invisible patterns of connectedness this book provides an important fresh perspective which will be of interest to scholars and students of Area Studies Politics International Relations and Development Studies
