Exploitation, Homo Homini Lupus Edmund A. Kurth, 1983      Bahá'í Ethics in Light of Scripture: Virtues and divine commandments Udo Schaefer, 2007 There is a fundamental discrepancy between man as he is and man as he could be if only he recognized his true being and purpose Ethics is the discipline by which man can understand how he can pass from the first condition to the second Udo Schaefer's Baha i Ethics in Light of Scripture is an attempt to analyse the underlying structures and detect the interior architecture of the Baha i moral system and is a step towards developing a Baha i moral theology Doctrinal Fundamentals the first of two volumes provides a historical overview of the Baha i Faith a systematic survey of its doctrines and an overview of the origin and derivation of moral values It considers the metaphysical nature of human beings and human responsibilities looks at reason and conscience and explores liberty and its limits Schaefer's second volume deals with concrete values the virtues divine commandments and principles of social ethics from a Baha i perspective      3TH1CS Philipp Otto, Eike Gräf, 2017-10-25 Should we ban war robots or are they something we might want What can computer games tell us about our morals Is it OK to love a robot What is ethical design in the digital world How do we need to regulate the algorithms that impact our lives The digital transition puts our ideas about morality to the test presenting us with new questions in all areas of life politics economy social life communication entertainment In twenty contributions experts from Europe America and Asia rise to the challenge of finding answers to some of the new issues confronting us The authors offer new perspectives on topics like robots for eldercare autonomous vehicles personal drones or data ethics They present their ideas on how we as a society can deal with the digital challenges to our ethics and values Their contributions provide insights into highly topical reflections on what is morally right in our digital era Above all they are an invitation to think and to join the discussion      Modern German Midwifery, 1885-1960 Lynne Fallwell, 2015-10-06 Between the late 18th and the early 20th century the industrialized world experienced a transition in birth practices While in many countries this led to a separation of midwifery from modern medicine in Germany new standards of health care were embraced Fallwell's study explores this transition and sets it in its wider historical context      Gendering Modern German History Karen Hagemann, Jean H. Quataert, 2008-08 To provide a critical overview in a comparative German American perspective is the main aim of this volume which brings together experts from both sides of the Atlantic Through case studies it demonstrates the extraordinary power of the gender perspective to challenge existing interpretations and rewrite mainstream arguments      Arthur Schopenhauer: The World as Will and Presentation Arthur Schopenhauer, 2016-05-23 Part of the Longman Library of Primary Sources in Philosophy this first volume of Schopenhauer's The World as Will and Presentation is framed by a pedagogical structure designed to make this important work of philosophy more accessible and meaningful for undergraduates      Healing Holocaust Survivors Stella Maria Frei, 2025-06-30 Healing Holocaust Survivors examines the psychological rehabilitation strategies implemented by two major international humanitarian organizations the

United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA and the Jewish Joint Distribution Committee JDC in Displaced Persons Camps across postwar Europe from 1944 to 1948 Focusing on the mental health needs of Holocaust survivors and other refugees the book explores how psychosocial expertise became entangled with citizenship politics and visions of Europe's reconstruction after World War II Drawing from archival sources institutional reports and psychological literature of the period this is the first in depth account of how mental health professionals approached psychological rehabilitation trauma identity and recovery in a humanitarian setting It reveals how psychological strategies were often shaped by and instrumentalized for broader political and regulatory goals including refugee resettlement nation building and international diplomacy Bridging the fields of history psychology refugee studies and humanitarian aid this book sheds new light on the origins of modern refugee mental health practices and the complex role of international organizations in shaping the lives and minds of displaced populations Read the interview with Stella Maria Frei on De Gruyter Conversations and learn more about the author and her book A powerful and timely study on the politics of psychological rehabilitation in the aftermath of war and mass displacement This meticulously researched book sheds new light on how international organizations not only helped rebuild societies but also intervened in the inner lives of survivors It compellingly shows that psychological recovery in post conflict settings is never apolitical but shaped by humanitarian agendas strategic interests and competing visions of international order Essential reading for global leaders policymakers and all who shape the future of refugee protection and recovery in a world defined by crisis Bert Koenders Professor for Peace Justice and Security Leiden University Former Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Netherlands and UN Special Representative in Cote d'Ivoire and Mali

Jean Rhys at "World's End" Mary Lou Emery, 2014-01-30 The Caribbean Islands have long been an uneasy meeting place among indigenous peoples white European colonists and black slave populations Tense oppositions in Caribbean culture colonial vs native white vs black male conqueror vs female subject supply powerful themes and spark complex narrative experiments in the fiction of Dominica born novelist Jean Rhys In this pathfinding study Mary Lou Emery focuses on Rhys's handling of these oppositions using a Caribbean cultural perspective to replace the mainly European aesthetic moral and psychological standards that have served to misread and sometimes devalue Rhys's writing Emery considers all five Rhys novels beginning with Wide Sargasso Sea as the most explicitly Caribbean in its setting in its participation in the culminating decades of a West Indian literary naissance and most importantly in its subversive transformation of European concepts of character From a sociocultural perspective she argues persuasively that the earlier novels Voyage in the Dark Quartet After Leaving Mr Mackenzie and Good Morning Midnight should be read as emergent Caribbean fiction written in tense dialogue with European modernism Building on this thesis she reveals how the apparent passivity masochism or silence of Rhys's female protagonists results from their doubly marginalized status as women and as subject peoples Also she explores how Rhys's women seek out alternative identities in dreamed of magically realized or chosen communities These discoveries offer important insights on literary modernism Caribbean fiction and the formation of female identity Eclectic Magazine, and Monthly Edition of the Living Age John Holmes Agnew, Walter Hilliard Bidwell, 1889

Political Realism, Freud, and Human Nature in International Relations R. Schuett, 2010-05-24 This book provides an important reappraisal of the concept of human nature in contemporary realist international political theory Developing a Freudian philosophical anthropology for political realism he argues for the careful resurrection of the concept of human nature in the wider study of international relations

Sociology Georg Simmel (Philosoph, Soziologe, Deutschland), 2009 Georg Simmel's highly original take on the newly revived field of sociology succeeded in making the field far more sophisticated than it had been beforehand He took insights from dialectical thought and Kantian epistemology to develop a form sociology method that remains implicit in the field a century later Forms include such patterns of interaction as inequality secrecy membership in multiple groups organization size and coalition formation While today texts and professional societies are organized around contents rather than forms a fresh reading of Simmel's chapters on forms suggests original avenues of inquiry into each of the contents family business religion politics labor relations leisure

The wolves are coming back Rebecca Pates, Julia Leser, 2021-05-25 Across Eastern Germany where political allegiances are shifting to the right the wolf is increasingly seen as a trespasser and threat to the local way of life Styled by populist right wing actors as an invasive species the wolf evokes and resonates with anti immigration sentiments and widespread fears of demographic catastrophe To many people in Eastern Germany the immigrant and the wolf are an indistinguishable problem that nobody in power is doing anything about In this account of Eastern German agitation of wolves and migrants Eastern German hunters farmers rioters and self appointed saviours of the nation Pates and Leser move beyond stereotypic representations of the East and shine a light on the complexities of post socialist life and losses As nationalist parties are on the rise across Europe The wolves are coming back offers an insight into the rise of the far right in Germany The nationalist Alternative for Germany represents the third largest party in the German federal parliament with representation in the vast majority of German states They draw much of their support from the post traumatic places in Eastern Germany regions structured by realities of disownment disenfranchisement and a lack of democratic infrastructure Pates and Leser provide an account of the societal roots of a new group of radical right parties whose existence and success we always assumed to be impossible

Sociology: Inquiries into the Construction of Social Forms Georg Simmel, 2009-02-23 Georg Simmel's highly original take on the newly revived field of sociology succeeded in making the field far more sophisticated than it had been beforehand He took insights from dialectical thought and Kantian epistemology to develop a form sociology method that remains implicit in the field a century later Forms include such patterns of interaction as inequality secrecy membership in multiple groups organization size and coalition formation While today texts and professional societies are organized around contents rather than forms a fresh reading of Simmel's chapters on forms suggests original avenues of inquiry into each of the contents family business religion politics labor relations leisure      Material Fantasies Milena Veenis, 2012 This study of East German fantasies of material abundance across the border both before and after the fall of communism shows the close and intricate relation between ideology and fantasy in upholding social life In 1989 news broadcasts all over the world were dominated for weeks by images of East Germans crossing the Berlin Wall to West Germany The images representing the fall of communism and the democratic will of the people also showed East Germans excitement at finally being able to enter the western consumer paradise But what exactly had they expected to find on the other side of the Wall Why did they shed tears of joy when for the first time in their lives they stepped inside West German shops And why were they prepared to pay more than 10 percent of their average monthly wage for a pineapple Drawing on fifteen months of research in the fast changing post communist East Germany Veenis unravels the perennial truths about the interrelationships of fantasies of material wealth personal fulfillment and social cohesion She argues persuasively that the far fetched socialist and capitalist promises of consumption as the road to ultimate well being the partial realization and partial corruption thereof the implicit social and psychological interests underlying the politicized promises in both countries form the breeding ground for the development of materialist cargo cult like fantasies in which material well being came to be seen as the place of fulfillment and ultimate arrival Publisher's website

Contemporary German Crime Fiction Thomas W. Kniesche, 2019-10-21 A companion to contemporary German crime fiction for English speaking audiences is overdue Starting with the earlier Swiss classics Glauser and Drennemann and including a number of important Austrian authors such as Wolf Haas and Heinrich Steinmetz this volume will cover the essential writers genres and themes of crime fiction written in German Where necessary and appropriate crime fiction in media other than writing TV series movies will be included Contemporary social and political developments such as gender issues life in a multicultural society and the afterlife of German fascism today play a crucial role in much of recent German crime fiction A number of contributions to this volume will comment on the literary reflection of these issues in the texts The goal of the volume is to make available to English speaking audiences to students teachers and to a wider circle of interested readers a series of articles on genres topics authors and texts that will help them understand the scope and depth of German crime fiction its ties to international traditions and also the specificity of the German context its historical development and contemporary situation

Multilingualism and the Twentieth-Century Novel James Reay Williams, 2019-04-17 This book argues that the Anglophone novel in the twentieth century is in fact always multilingual Rooting its analysis in modern Europe and the Caribbean it recognises that monolingualism not multilingualism is a historical and global rarity and argues that this fact must inform our study of the novel even when it remains notionally Anglophone Drawing principally upon four authors Joseph Conrad Jean Rhys Wilson Harris and Junot Diaz this study argues that a close engagement with the novel reveals a series of ways to apprehend depict and theorise various kinds of language diversity In so doing it reveals the presence of the multilingual as a powerful shaping force for the direction of the novel from 1900 to the present day which cuts across and complicates current understandings of modernist postcolonial and global literatures      The Quarterly Review William Gifford, Sir John Taylor Coleridge, John Gibson Lockhart, Whitwell Elwin, William Macpherson, William Smith, John Murray, Rowland Edmund Prothero (Baron Ernle), George Walter Prothero, 1914      Shakespeare and the Emblem Writers, an Exposition of Their Similarities of Thought and Expression Henry M.A. Green, 1870
