BUY A GAIL KEO DOLL (air Assault) Rain S Richard J. Powell,2008 Examining portraits of black people over the past two centuries Cutting a Figure argues that these images should be viewed as a distinct category of portraiture that differs significantly from depictions of people with other racial and ethnic backgrounds The difference Richard Powell contends lies in the social capital that stems directly from the black subject s power to subvert dominant racist representations by evincing such traits as self composure self adornment and self imagining Powell forcefully supports this argument with evidence drawn from a survey of nineteenth century portraits in depth case studies of the postwar fashion model Donyale Luna and the contemporary portraitist Barkley L Hendricks and insightful analyses of images created since the late 1970s Along the way he discusses major artists such as Fr d ric Bazille John Singer Sargent James Van Der Zee and David Hammons alongside such overlooked producers of black visual culture as the Tonka and Nike corporations Combining previously unpublished images with scrupulous archival research Cutting a Figure illuminates the ideological nature of the genre and the centrality of race and cultural identity in understanding modern and contemporary portraiture The Complete Tales of Merry Gold Kate Bernheimer,2006 A sequel to The Complete Tales of Ketzia Gold the novel follows Merry from her suburban childhood through design school and a whirlwind of lovers and into a desolate adulthood Beginning with a toy seal and ending with mushrooms this fairy tale set in modern times creeps through cruelty and violence to its inevitable end Raising the World Sara Fieldston,2015-03-09 Sara Fieldston shows how humanitarian child welfare agencies sponsored by Americans filtered political power through the prism of familial love after World War II These well meaning institutions shaped perceptions of the United States as the benevolent parent in a family of nations and helped to expand American hegemony around the globe     A View of the English Editions, Translations and Illustrations of the Ancient Greek and Latin Authors:

With Remarks Lewis William Brüggemann,2023-11-29     Continent ,1916     War Imagery in Women's Textiles Deborah A.

Deacon,Paula E. Calvin,2014-07-02 Through the centuries women have used textiles to express their ideas and political opinions creating items of utility that also function as works of art Beginning with medieval European embroideries and tapestries such as the Bayeux Tapestry this book examines the ways in which women around the world have recorded the impact of war on their lives using traditional fabric art forms of knitting sewing quilting embroidery weaving basketry and rug making Works from the United States Canada Latin America Asia the Middle and Near East and Oceania are analyzed in terms of content and utility and cultural and economic implications for the women who created them are discussed

Traditional women s work served to document the upheaval in their lives and supplemented their family income By creating textiles that responded to the chaos of war women developed new textile traditions modified old traditions and created a vehicle to express their feelings     The Sixties Dimitry Anastakis,2008 For those who did not live through the experience of the Sixties it is often difficult to comprehend this tumultuous period Even those who lived though the era and have studied the Sixties have wrestled with its deeper meaning While the Sixties ultimate meaning remains elusive there can be no doubt that the period s transformative effect upon Canadians culturally politically and economically was immense From arts and architecture to politics and protest the decade has attained near mythical status leaving an undeniable influence on virtually every aspect of Canadian life The images sounds and tastes of the decade remain an indelible part of our own twenty first century experience yet for a decade that remains so well defined within the public memory the Sixties left behind an ambiguous historic legacy for those who study the period Taking a multidisciplinary approach that includes history architecture art political science and journalism this volume provides fresh new perspectives on Canada s loudest liveliest and most debated period Four decades after Canada s own Expo 67 summer of love this timely book explores issues from dope de Gaulle and driver education to Trudeau Vietnam and Africville all thought the colourful kaleidoscope of the Sixties

Psychology in Africa (Psychology Revivals) Mallory Wober,2014-06-17 It is now well over a hundred and fifty years since the first celebrated geographical explorations of Africa took place However it was many years before there began quests of a different kind the investigation of behaviour personality attitude and ability among Africa s people Originally published in 1975 this book is an account of that work the first explorations in Africa of psychology In an exhaustive and well documented report the author a psychologist who had himself done research in Nigeria Uganda and who had lectured at Makerere University drew together the main threads of the research carried out so far putting the issues in an African perspective but anchoring them firmly within the framework of modern psychological thinking and technique of the time Are there any common personality and intellectual characteristics among Africans How does weaning affect African child development How have Africans feelings developed about city life and industrial work The questions the author considers range from the broad based to the specific The challenges which lay ahead for African investigators then moving into the mainstream of the work are also discussed But perhaps above all the book made a convincing case for psychology becoming a relevant and finely honed discipline in Black Africa characterised by practical application to Black African society Each chapter covers a defined area of modern psychology of the time and presents a comprehensive survey in a language no more technical than the subject warrants At the time it was felt this book would be invaluable to students of Africa secondary education whose course included a psychology component and to African students beginning a degree course in psychology It would also have provided an informative supplement to courses in medicine development studies political science sociology and anthropology

Digital Feeling Adrienne Evans,Sarah Riley,2023-03-03 This book offers a trailblazing account of postfeminist sensibility as a digital feeling that shapes how we understand the world around us It explores how we feel in a world where the digital has become intertwined with our intimate relationships to ourselves and to others The book develops a novel approach that draws on feminist theories of affect emotion and structures of feeling to analyse the entanglements of the digital and the non digital and the public and the private and to show how good feeling shapes a contemporary moment that often leads us back to normativity and reproduces systemic inequality This is achieved through several different digital media spheres including the Instagram account Barbie Savior fitspo content TikTok influencers and their Get Ready With Me videos the archive of hot men on TubeCrush and the intimacies of the internet cat suggesting that each offers a snapshot of our current emotional landscapes

Americans Without Law Mark S. Weiner,2006-06 Americans Without Law shows how the racial boundaries of civic life are based on widespread perceptions about the relative capacity of minority groups for legal behavior which Mark S Weiner calls juridical racism The book follows the history of this civic discourse by examining the legal status of four minority groups in four successive historical periods American Indians in the 1880s Filipinos after the Spanish American War Japanese immigrants in the 1920s and African Americans in the 1940s and 1950s Weiner reveals the significance of juridical racism for each group and in turn Americans as a whole by examining the work of anthropological social scientists who developed distinctive ways of understanding racial and legal identity and through decisions of the U S Supreme Court that put these ethno legal views into practice Combining history anthropology and legal analysis the book argues that the story of juridical racism shows how race and citizenship served as a nexus for the professionalization of the social sciences the growth of national state power economic modernization and modern practices of the self
