Oliver,2014-11-06 The aim of this anthology is to present a selection of plays that are representative of a fresh spirit and of societal pressures and changes in Spanish American culture The plays shun the earlier realistic sentimental and melodramatic conventions of Spanish American theater. Instead they reflect the tenor of the dramatic imagination of the mid to late twentieth century, an imagination that sought new forms and ways of expressing a new awareness of the Spanish American dilemma. In selecting these plays, William I. Oliver looked for more than mere illustrations of these changes. As a practicing director and playwright, he sought works that are effective on the stage as well as on the page. As an editor and translator, he sought works that could be translated culturally as well as linguistically. The six plays in this varied and vigorous anthology are the measure of his success. The plays included are The Day They Let the Lions Loose by Emilio Carballido (Mexico), The Camp by Griselda Gambaro (Argentina), The Library by Carlos Maggi (Uruguay), In the Right Hand of God the Father by Enrique Buenaventura (Colombia), The Mulatto's Orgy by Luisa Josefina Hernández (Mexico), and Vi a Three Beach Plays by Sergio Vodnovic (Chile).

Footprints in Kpong a little girl in Jackson, Michigan, had a dream to be a missionary to Africa through the inspiring stories she heard from missionaries who visited her grandmother. God, if you are willing, send me, and I will go. Footprints in Kpong is the missionary journey of Ruth Young to Ghana, West Africa. The story started with Ruth Young yielding to the call of God on her life, and God made it possible for so many people to support her to carry the gospel of Jesus Christ to Ghana. This book came into being because the author treasures the memories of all the people she encountered on the way and the amazing work God has done in her life. The support of church community, the love of a husband, and the amazing grace of God are evident in Footprints in Kpong. My daughter, my encourager, Joana, inspired me once again to revise this book. Footprints in Kpong, and I hope it blesses you. She is one of the evidences of my labor of love. In Footprints in Kpong, Roy International School will be the light on the hilltop. This is the doing of the Lord, and it is marvelous in our sight.
