Leaked Gcse Papers 2015:

Coalition Diaries, 2012-2015 David Laws, 2017-09-14 Acclaimed as one of the sharpest political intellects of his generation David Laws saw his ministerial career nosedive before it had begun when after only seventeen days as Chief Secretary to the Treasury he was forced to resign when unintended breaches of parliamentary expenses rules came to light You can't keep a good man down however and he returned to government where he was also responsible for implementation of the coalition agreement and planning the Lib Dems strategy in the run up to the 2015 election David began writing a diary in March 2012 and continued writing it throughout his ministerial career and up to the 2015 election which devastated the Liberal Democrats in Parliament Frank acerbic sometimes shocking and often funny Coalition Diaries chronicles the historic Liberal Democrat Conservative coalition government offering extraordinary pen portraits of all the personalities involved some of whom were cast aside at the election or put to the knife after Brexit while others are active in today's government

The Noble Liar Robin Aitken, 2020-06-30 To some it is the voice of the nation yet to others it has never been clearer that the BBC is in the grip of an ideology that prevents it reporting fairly on the world Many have been scandalised by its pessimism on Brexit and its one-sided presentation of the Trump presidency whilst simultaneously amused by its outrage over fake news This punchy polemic galvanises the debate over how our licence fee money is spent and asks whether the BBC is a fair arbiter of the news or whether it is a conduit for pervasive and institutional liberal left wing bias
