Memorandum Of Life Science 2014 November Paper1:

Assured Destruction David Bath, 2020-03-15 Assured Destruction Building the Ballistic Missile Culture of the U S Air Force documents the rapid development of nuclear ballistic missiles in the United States and their equally swift demise after the Cuban Missile Crisis revealing how these drastic changes negatively influenced both the Air Force and the missile community David W Bath contends that the struggle to create and control nuclear ballistic missiles threatened both the dominance of the United States during an intensifying Cold War and the strategic airpower mission of the newly created Air Force The book details the strenuous efforts required to create and prepare a missile arsenal before the Cuban Missile Crisis which occurred only five years after the first missile was declared operational It uses the personal recollections of former missileers and the professional military education theses they wrote to highlight some of the concerns that have faced the missileers who operated and worked on these powerful weapons from 1957 to the present The highlight of the book however is the personal stories of the missileers who served during the missile crisis revealing the efforts that they went to in order to prepare these unique and untried weapons for what many thought might become the third world war MAPPING

CONFLICT IN CHITTAGONG HILL TRACTS 1997-2014 Zahid ul Arefin Choudhury, 2020-04-27 The issue of the Chittagong Hill Tracts is as divisive as the region itself At one end there are tales of woe how the original inhabitants of the region are being evicted from their land through violence and trickery their marginalization and elimination of their traditional way of life simultaneously while it is being exoticized for tourism These accounts however paint a static picture where the members of these ethnic groups are victims always and without any agency Consequently these accounts fail to hold up in front of close examination and invites counter opinion rage that the Bengali and other ethnicities of CHT are prevented from living in harmony by disruptive elements within the society that the oppression and repression of the hill peoples are made up stories that feed national and international conspiracies In Conflict Mapping in the Chittagong Hill Tracts researchers from the Department of Peace and Conflict Studies at the University of Dhaka cut through this fog of confusion by presenting dispassionate unornamented data With the help of original data and systematic analysis they show how the social life of CHT is marked by deep polarization both within and across the ethnic divide how it is beset by real and perceived accounts of discrimination and by lack of confidence on state agencies and the rule of law They also investigate the trajectory of major cases of violence in the region in the past two decades and reveal that these have a common escalation pattern with various points marked by missed opportunities for prevention Based on a study that draws from a large survey of a cross section of people from 8 of the most crime prone Upazilas of the region semi structured interview of selected elites and analysis of the dynamics of 14 incidents of large scale violence between 1997 and 2014 this book aims at initiating a healthy constructive conversation on the issue It challenges long held prejudices common sense beliefs and unsubstantiated propaganda By offering the lens of social science the book invites readers with well meaning but vague opinions as well as consumers of zealous and spoon fed ideas to form informed and nuanced opinion      Governomics Ian McAuley, Miriam Lyons, 2015-05-01 People have good reason to demand decent public education and a well funded health system to yearn for an economy that doesn't trash the environment or for a smaller gap between rich and poor Almost without exception sound economics is on their side We've grown used to public debates that pit people and the planet against an abstract distorted image of the economy but it doesn't have to be this way Governomics shows that an emaciated state is bad for business and that standing up for government means standing up for a public sector that truly serves the public Everybody knows governments are wasteful incompetent and a drag on the economy But if you're not sure that's true read this book Ross Gittins Sydney Morning Herald and The Age Governomics shows that a market economy can only work when sustained by a strong and active public sector It will inject some much needed economic sanity into conversations on the role of government in Australia John Quiggin Australian Research Council Laureate Fellow University of Queensland      Arab Dawn Bessma Momani, 2015-11-26 In the West news about the Middle East is dominated by an endless stream of reports and commentary about civil war sectarian violence religious extremism and economic stagnation But do they tell the full story For instance who knew that university enrolment in the war torn Palestinian territories exceeds that of Hong Kong or that more than a third of Lebanese entrepreneurs are women Change is on its way in the Middle East argues Bessma Momani and its cause is demographic Today one in five Arabs is between the ages of fifteen and twenty four Young optimistic and increasingly cosmopolitan their generation will shape the region's future Drawing on interviews surveys and other research conducted with young people in fifteen countries across the Arab world Momani describes the passion for entrepreneurship reform and equality among Arab youth With insightful political analysis based on the latest statistics and first hand accounts Arab Dawn is an invigorating study of the Arab world and the transformative power of youth      Fake Science Austin Ruse, 2017-07-17 If you listen to any political argument you're eventually bound to hear something like The science is settled on this Or Just look at the statistics Or There have been studies that say You'd think we were living in the golden age of science and reason But the truth is far more sinister says Austin Ruse We're actually living in the age of the low information voter easily misled by all too convincing false statistics and studies In Fake Science Ruse debunks so called facts used to advance political causes one after the other revealing how poorly they stand up to actual science      Principles of Clinical Medicine for Space Flight Michael R. Barratt, Ellen S. Baker, Sam L. Pool, 2020-01-02 In its first edition Principles of Clinical Medicine for Space Flight established itself as the authoritative reference on the contemporary knowledge base of space medicine and standards of care for space flyers It received excellent notices and is used in the curricula of civilian and military training programs and used as a source of questions for the Aerospace Medicine Certifying Examination under the American Board of Preventive Medicine In the intervening few years the continuous manning of the International Space Station has both strengthened existing knowledge and uncovered new and significant phenomena related to the human in space The Second Edition

Risk Regulation in the Internal Market Maria Weimer,2019-03-13 This book offers a topical inquiry into the legal and political limits of EU regulation in the field of risk and new technologies surrounded by techno scientific complexity uncertainty and societal contestation It uses agricultural biotechnology as a paradigmatic example to illustrate the complex intertwinement between environmental public health economic and social concerns in risk regulation Weimer analyses the drawbacks of the EU approach to agricultural biotechnology showing that its reductionism i e the narrow understanding of GMO risks as well as the exclusion of broader societal concerns related to environmental and social sustainability has undermined both the legitimacy and effectiveness of EU regulation in this area Resistance to this approach however has also triggered legal innovations prompting us to re think EU internal market law including the way in which it manages the tensions between unity and diversity and between social and economic concerns This text offers fresh and original insights into how far the EU can go in harmonizing regulatory approaches to risk At the same time it proposes new ways of re thinking EU risk regulation to make it more responsive to different perspectives on risk and technology A unique feature of this book is that it contributes to various strains of scholarship including risk regulation internal market law public administration and studies of governance and regulation as well as connecting these themes to broader debates about the legitimacy of European integration and new ways of differentiated integration As a result it assists in re imagining the EU internal market and its regulation as a site of diversity
