Memorandum Tourism Phase :

Tourism and Colonization in Indochina (1898-1939) Aline Demay, 2015-01-12 Direct flights to former imperial capitals continued visits to the same tourist sites and the emergence of tours dedicated to the imperial past all pose the question of the heritage of tourism in the former colonies Lesser known as a field of research the study of tourism in colonial situations has begun to impose itself over the past decade as an important issue Interestingly in the colonial era tourism was one element of the policies used by the colonial power to highlight its colony The use of tourist activities for political ends was first confirmed in an October 2 1922 circular composed by the Minister of the Colonies Albert Sarraut This circular required all French overseas territories to organize and develop the tourism sector because along with its economic benefits the tourist of today can be the colonist of tomorrow This theme along with knowledge related more specifically to tourism such as the creation of sites and tours and the background of tourists also contributes to sanitary environmental and planning questions as well as issues concerning the construction of national sentiment How did tourism develop in a territory during the period of colonial expansion How are tourism and colonization related What connections can be found between the two Using archives and tourist publications this book marks an unprecedented work of research into the enactment of tourism in Indochina It places the establishment of tourism in this former French colony along with the tourism policies of Metropolitan France and the attempts to reproduce the organizations established in the Dutch East Indies and in Japan The book which focuses on events in the period from the turn of the twentieth century to the eve of the Second World War analyses the transfer of European tourism practices to Indochina their establishment their integration with policies of valorisation in the 1920s their spatial consequences and the communication established by the state to promote Indochina as a tourist destination for both Indochinese and foreign tourists

Nominations of the 110th Congress, Second Session United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations, 2009 Tourism and Poverty Reduction Anna

Spenceley, Dorothea Meyer, 2017-10-02 Over the past decade there have been an increasing number of publications that have analysed and critiqued the potential of tourism to be a mechanism for poverty reduction in less economically developed countries LEDCs This book showcases work by established and emerging researchers that provides new thinking and tests previously made assumptions providing an essential guide for students practitioners and academics This book advances our understanding of the changes and ways forward in the field of sustainable tourism development Five main themes are illustrated throughout the book 1 measuring impacts of tourism on poverty 2 the need to evaluate whether interventions that aim to reduce poverty are effective 3 how unbalanced power relations and weak governance can undermine efforts 4 the importance of the private sector's use of pro poor business practices and 5 the value of using multidisciplinary and multi method research approaches Furthermore the book shows that academic research findings can be used practically in destinations and how practitioners can benefit from sharing their experiences with academic scholars This book was based on a special issue and various articles from the Journal of Sustainable Tourism Qualitative Methods in Tourism Research Wendy Hillman, Kylie Radel, 2018-01-05 This volume seeks to expose and illustrate new approaches and thinking in qualitative methods that are being developed and implemented in tourism research The contributions bring together various qualitative methods and approaches while also providing suggestions for the juxtaposition of qualitative and quantitative methods in mixed methods research The book has been written with a cross disciplinary approach which provides an insight into the art of research development from business sociology and tourism perspectives The chapters provide readers with a context and practical application examples for each method They present a distinctive opportunity for social researchers from a range of disciplines in particular tourism to examine how to adapt the wide variety of qualitative approaches to their particular research needs Tourism Impacts, Planning and Management Peter Mason, 2015-08-27 Tourism Impacts Planning and Management is a unique text which links these three crucial areas of tourism impacts planning and management Tourism impacts are multi faceted and therefore are difficult to plan for and manage This title looks at all the key players involved be they tourists host communities or industry members and considers a number of approaches and techniques for managing tourism impacts successfully Now in a third edition this bestselling text has been fully revised to include New material on terrorism sustainability climate change sex tourism heritage tourism theories of tourism planning and GIS New chapter on Destination Planning and Management Updated tourism data and statistics Case studies on urban tourism pro poor tourism cruise ship tourism coral reef tourism historic monuments eco labels codes of conduct and sustainable tourism from both developed and developing regions including Australia Iceland Spain the UK Namibia the Arctic and Antarctica A companion website including PPTs video and web links The text is written in an accessible style and includes a plethora of features that engage and aid understanding This accessible yet academically rigorous introduction to tourism impacts planning and management is essential reading for all tourism students Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding Charlie Mansfield, Jasna Potočnik Topler, 2022-12-30 Travel Writing for Tourism and City Branding is an insightful expert led book which provides tourism students with a practice based approach to producing researched literary travel writing on an urban destination using the writing process as a research tool in itself The book is scientifically supported with full academic references for researchers On a global basis city councils and destination managers are seeking new ways to commission and sponsor professional content authors as part of place branding projects for tourism development Given the increasing prevalence of such content within the tourism industry this book provides a cohesive overview of literary travel writing presenting it as an enquiry process that can be applied by writer researchers to spaces that have value to them Travel writing is presented as a methodological practice that researchers can learn and apply to their own projects both in academic settings and in commercial city branding Examples of literary travel writing are carefully examined throughout and their affects refracted through further work Enriched with a wealth of case studies chapters are presented in such a way that readers can take the work as a model for their own projects This informative and practical volume will be of great interest to students of tourism marketing destination marketing place branding and travel writing as well as current creators of commercial tourism marketing content Tourism Collaboration and Partnerships Bill Bramwell, Bernard Lane, 2000-05-02

The central importance of involving diverse stakeholders in effective sustainable tourism planning and management is increasingly recognised Collaboration and partnerships are valuable ways of achieving this Leading researchers and practitioners examine the processes issues and politics involved in this new and fast growing field Case studies are taken from Europe the Americas Australia and the Arctic Proceedings Regional Agro-tourism Conference , Pacific Islands Tourism Case Studies ,1990 Big Data for Better Tourism Policy, Management, and Sustainable Recovery from COVID-19 Asian Development Bank, 2021-12-01 Big data is already being used to measure monitor and manage tourism development but its potential remains to be fully exploited This report discusses the trends opportunities and challenges in using big data and digitalization in the tourism sector It highlights how big data is being leveraged for COVID 19 recovery and examines its relationship with statistical frameworks to better measure the economic social and environmental impact of tourism Case studies of partnerships in Asia and the Pacific between the public and private sector demonstrate ways to tap big data

Elephant Tourism in Nepal Michelle Szydlowski, 2024-02-01 A study of elephant tourism in Nepal from its origins in the 1960s to the present day this book examines the challenges faced by captive elephants Used as human conveyance on anti poaching patrol teams as rescue vehicles and in forestry service elephants have worked with and for humans for hundreds of years However the use of elephants in tourism is a fairly new development within Nepal Because the health and welfare of tourism elephants is vital to the conservation of wild individuals this book offers an assessment of captive elephant needs and an examination of their existing welfare statuses This book seeks to examine the motivations of these NGOs and INGOs and to consider their ethical approaches to elephant health and welfare Are the motivations of these organizations similar enough to work together towards a common goal or are their ethical norms so different that they get in one another s way Using an ordinary language and ethics framework this text aims to identify the norms of cultures and organisations and reframe them in ways which may allow for more successful interactions

Tourism and the Millennium Development Goals Jarkko Saarinen, Christian M. Rogerson, Haretsebe Manwa, 2013-10-31 In 2000 United Nations adopted the Millennium Development Goals UN MDGs committing the member nations to a new global partnership to reduce extreme poverty and setting out a series of specific targets with a deadline of 2015 Related to the UN MDGs tourism is increasingly seen as a promising tool for poverty reduction ensuring environmental sustainability and developing a global partnership for development for example Thus the industry has become an important policy tool for community and regional development in many developing countries and the expectations for tourism and its social and economic outcomes have evolved to a high level However there are still many challenges to overcome in the relationship between tourism industry development and poverty reduction This book aims to discuss the promises challenges and outcomes of tourism in development with a specific aim of drawing together research related to tourism and UN MDGs The papers discuss what lessons can be learnt and conclusions drawn from the utilisation of tourism for development and poverty reduction What emerges from this collection is a set of interesting results and notions which both support and challenge the connections between tourism and development and the new role of tourism in global development This book is an extended version of a special issue published in Current Issues in Tourism

Sustainable Tourism in the Americas Edward W. Manning, Luis Márquez, 2023-09-30 Sustainable Tourism in the Americas introduces the reader to the establishment of sustainable tourism across the region It examines questions such as what is really meant by sustainable tourism Covered in eight chapters the book discusses the evolution and application of the concept in the Americas from its origins as well as documenting established success stories of sustainable tourism policy and implementation from several countries in the Americas The country and regional case studies critically examine what sustainable tourism means in their destination and address how in practice the concept of sustainability can be built to show results across different cultural and ecological situations ranging from local indigenous sites to urban environments It will be a valuable addition to the current lack of literature on this concept and of particular interest to those working within and studying tourism management and related themes

Tonga National Tourism Plan Nicholas Clark and Associates, 1993

Tourism and Protected Areas Robyn Bushell, Paul F. J. Eagles, 2007 Bringing together the diverse experiences of park agencies and managers conservation NGO s and international agencies this book examines the role of tourism in protected area management Using case studies from around the world it provides examples of successful partnerships between community public and private sectors It also explores how tourism can be used as a management tool for financing protected areas It concludes by summarizing the lessons learnt and the challenges facing protected areas in the future

Audiovisual Tourism Promotion Diego Bonelli, Alfio Leotta, 2022-01-03 This book deploys the concept of audiovisual tourism promotion to account for the promotional functions performed by a vast array of diverse media texts including tourism films feature films digital videos conceived for online circulation video games and TV commercials From this point of view this volume fills a major gap in the literature by providing the first comprehensive critical overview of audiovisual tourism promotion as a distinct media field In this book the study of audiovisual tourism promotion is characterised by an interdisciplinary approach which combines film studies media studies human geography sociology tourism studies history postcolonial and gender studies This book will appeal to a wide range of students and scholars from different disciplines

Exploring Culture and Heritage Through Experience Tourism Rawal, Yashwant Singh, Sinha, Rupa, Mukherjee, Sankar Kumar, Batabyal, Debasish, 2023-10-24 The impact of disasters and crises on culture heritage and religious tourism have been realized in recent years creating a need for solutions to heal and prevent future damage to these aspects of tourist regions There is a need for strategies in mitigating these challenges and preserving cultural sites for the future An emphasis on the importance of sustainability in cultural and heritage tourism discussions on digitalization stakeholder participation and socio economic livelihoods must be made to properly address this intricate issue This book explores the development marketing and societal implications of cultural and heritage tourism enterprises showcasing best practices and innovative business models Exploring Culture and Heritage Through Experience Tourism is an academic research book that delves into the intricate relationship between tourism culture and heritage It offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary exploration of this evolving field Drawing on the latest research and international frameworks this volume identifies new areas of culture and heritage tourism understand its scope and challenges and highlight its interlinkages with various sectors of the industry and the broader economy Designed for undergraduate and postgraduate students of travel and tourism management this book serves as a valuable resource It also meets the needs of universities with cultural and heritage tourism in their curricula and offers insights for industry leaders policymakers and researchers interested in multidisciplinary studies

Institutional Arrangements for Conservation, Development and Tourism in Eastern and Southern Africa René van der Duim, Machiel Lamers, Jakomijn van Wijk, 2014-11-16 This book presents an overview of different institutional arrangements for tourism biodiversity conservation and rural poverty reduction in eastern and southern Africa These approaches range from conservancies in Namibia community based organizations in Botswana conservation enterprises in Kenya private game reserves in South Africa to sport hunting in Uganda and transfrontier conservation areas The book presents a comparative analysis of these arrangements and highlights that most arrangements emerged in the 1990s through either a decentralized or centralized change trajectory that was sponsored by donors They aim to address some of the challenges of the fortress types of conservation by combining principles of community based natural resource management with a neoliberal approach to conservation evident in the use of tourism as the main mechanism for accruing benefits from wildlife The book illustrates the empirical relevance of these novel arrangements by presenting their growth in numbers and discuss how these arrangements differ in their form With respect to the conservation and development impacts of these arrangements we show that they have secured large amounts of land for conservation but also generated governance challenges and disputes on tourism benefit sharing affecting the stability of these arrangements to generate socioeconomic and conservation benefits

S. 680, the Tourism Policy and Export Promotion Act of 1991 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Commerce, Science, and Transportation. Subcommittee on Foreign Commerce and Tourism, 1992

Managing Coastal Tourism Resorts Sheela Agarwal, Gareth Shaw, 2007-10-19 The vast majority of existing academic research of coastal tourism resort management has been undertaken in northern and southern Europe at the expense of a wider global consideration This book aims to address this deficit and develop a global perspective on the management issues facing coastal resorts By drawing on examples it incorporates a detailed analysis of a range of economic socio cultural political and environmental issues which are being experienced to differing extents by coastal tourism resorts which are at different life cycle stages of development The major management themes highlighted include the processes of restructuring attempts to develop sustainable agendas and environmental issues of developing resorts in sensitive areas Written by key experts this book provides a critical assessment of the key management issues facing coastal tourism resorts globally In doing so it represents more than a mere amalgamation of existing literature as it aims to advance conceptual understanding of resort evolution and change
