Perkins, 2021-12-16 What is home The answer seems obvious But Telling Our Stories of Home an international collection of eleven plays by and about women from Lebanon Haiti Venezuela Uganda Palestine Brazil India UK and the US complicates the answer The answer includes stories as far ranging as enslaved women trying to create a home one by any means necessary and one in the ocean siblings wrestling with their differing devotion to home after their mother's death a family wrestling with the government's refusal to allow the burial of their soldier son in their hometown a young scholar attempting to feel at home after studying abroad a young man fleeing home due to his sexual orientation only to discover the difficulty of creating home elsewhere and Siddis Indians of African descent continuing to struggle for acceptance despite having lived in India for over 600 years These are voices seldom represented to a larger audience The plays and performance pieces range from 20 to 90 minute pieces and include a mix of monologue duologue and ensemble plays Short yet powerful they allow fantastic performance opportunities particularly in an age of social distancing with flexible casts that together invite the theme of home to be performed and studied on the page The plays include The House by Arz Khodr Lebanon Happy by Kia Corthron US The Blue of the Island by Velyne Trouillot Haiti Nine Lives by Zodwa Nyoni UK Leaving but Can't Let Go by Lupe Gehrenbeck Venezuela Questions of Home by Doreen Baingana Uganda On the Last Day of Spring by Fidaa Zidan Palestine Letting Go and Moving On by Louella Dizon San Juan US Antimemories of an Interrupted Trip by Aldri Anuncia o Brazil So Goes We by Jacqueline E Lawton US and Those Who Live Here Those Who Live There by Geeta P Siddi and Girija P Siddi India

Memory, Meaning, and Resistance Fran Leeper Buss, 2017-09-20 Fran Leeper Buss a former welfare recipient who earned a PhD in history and became a pioneer in the field of oral history has for forty years dedicated herself to the goal of collecting the stories of marginal and working class US women Memory Meaning and Resistance is based on over 100 oral histories gathered from women from a variety of racial ethnic and geographical backgrounds including a traditional Mexican American midwife a Latina poet and organizer for the United Farm Workers and an African American union and freedom movement organizer Buss now analyzes this body of work identifying common themes in women's lives and resistance that unite the oral histories she has gathered From the beginning her work has shed light on the inseparable compounding effects of gender race ethnicity and class on women's lives what is now commonly called intersectionality Memory Meaning and Resistance is structured thematically with each chapter analyzing a concept that runs through the oral histories e.g agency activism religion The result is a testament to women's individual and collective strength and an invaluable guide for students and researchers on how to effectively and sensitively conduct oral histories that observe record recount and analyze women's life stories

A Tree or a Person or a Wall: Stories Matt Bell, 2016-09-13 Here we have Matt Bell at his most inventive and uncanny parents and children murderers and monsters wild renditions of the past and stunning visions of the present all of which build to a virtuoso reimagining of our world A 19th century minister builds an elaborate motor that will bring about the Second Coming A man with rough hands locks a boy in a room with an albino ape An apocalyptic army falls under a veil of forgetfulness The story of Red Riding Hood is run through a potentially endless series of iterations A father invents an elaborate consuming game for his hospitalized son Indexes maps a checkered shirt buried beneath a blanket of snow they are scattered through these pages as clues to mysteries that may never be solved lingering evidence of the violence and unknowability of the world A Tree or a Person or a Wall brings together Bell's previously published shorter fiction the story collection How They Were Found and the acclaimed novella Cataclysm Baby along with seven dark and disturbing new stories to create a collection of singular power

June 1967 in Personal Stories of Palestinians and Israelis Regina F. Bendix, Aziz Haidar, Hagar Salamon, 2022 The clash of June 1967 called by Israelis the Six Day War and by Palestinians the Naksa setback is a critical milestone within the longstanding Israeli Palestinian conflict Despite all the scholarly attention ever since there remain unheard voices and untold stories It is the personal stories of people in the region that are at the center of this book How do they remember 1967 How were their lives affected even changed dramatically as a result of that short war Listening to their stories as told some 50 years later an incomplete tapestry of memories and understandings emerge This book is the product of a research collaboration among Palestinian Israeli and European folklorists cultural anthropologists and sociologists The personal stories were collected in the framework of interviews with men and women from all walks of life on the days before during and after this dramatic confrontation The book is comprised of eleven chapters based on a corpus of several hundred conversations as well as eight representative interviews Together they afford insight into differential memories and sensations visions of euphoria and despair newly revived hopes pain and disappointment disillusionment and repentance

Stories Without Borders Julia Sonnevend, 2016-09-09 How do stories of particular events turn into global myths while others fade away What becomes known and seen as a global iconic event In Stories without Borders Julia Sonnevend considers the ways in which we recount and remember news stories of historic significance Focusing on journalists covering the fall of the Berlin Wall and on subsequent retellings of the event in a variety of ways from Legoland reenactments to slabs of the Berlin Wall installed in global cities Sonnevend discusses how certain events become built up so that people in many parts of the world remember them for long periods of time She argues that five dimensions determine the viability and longevity of international news events First a foundational narrative must be established with certain preconditions Next the established narrative becomes universalized and a mythical message developed This message is then condensed and encapsulated in a simple phrase a short narrative and a recognizable visual scene Counter narratives emerge that reinterpret events and in turn facilitate their diffusion across multiple media platforms and changing social and political contexts Sonnevend examines these five elements through the developments of November 9 1989 what came to be known as the fall of the Berlin Wall Stories Without Borders concludes with a discussion of how global iconic events have an enduring effect on individuals and societies pointing out that after common currencies military alliances and international courts have failed stories may be all that we have to bring hope and unity

My Gawd! and Other Stories Fairbanks, 2018-03-22 My Gawd and Other Stories by Fairbanks just the one word like Moses like Prince My Gawd Is that allowed Can you write that If it was a film it would be rated R adults only But not rated X by any means this is not erotica That's the fun of the clever writing Its fiction It sometimes gets very close to the line but then it backs off There are only a couple of jolts in retrospect Some stories have no sex at all Does sex between insects count This is a collection of thirteen short stories set out as one per month plus New Years It is fun to take up the authors suggestion and read the last story first and then again at the end This tantalizing New Years story is written as a play and the other one is a humorous narrative poem The stories are full of interesting and varied characters young old male female ordinary eccentric naughty and nice Settings include the authors backyard Central Australia other rural backgrounds and Canberra Each short story is different holding the readers interest and moving along without dragging There are no boring bits at all There is poetry in the prose touching descriptions of setting and character

Two of the stories are longer giving the reader the chance to follow an interesting plot and the characters more fully Watch out for the famous Fairbanks twist Lots of marketing potential with this one Put it on your bedside table and read one story a night for fun and for titillation The next Fifty Shades The naughty outback Aussies version My gawd The Collected Short Stories of H. G. Wells H. G. Wells,2023-12-05 In The Collected Short Stories of H G Wells the reader is invited into a rich tableau of imaginative narratives that encapsulate the transformative power of science fiction and social commentary These stories range from speculative explorations of time travel and alien encounters to poignant reflections on human nature demonstrating Wells s remarkable literary skill in blending vivid storytelling with philosophical inquiry His distinctive prose marked by clarity and a prescient sense of speculative wonder situates these tales within the broader context of early 20th century literature where societal anxieties and technological advancements often informed artistic expression H G Wells often heralded as the father of modern science fiction was profoundly influenced by the rapid industrialization and sociopolitical upheavals of his time His experiences in Victorian England combined with his inquisitive mind and socialist ideals catalyzed his exploration of the human condition through speculative lenses This collection showcases Wells s ability to challenge contemporary thinking offering narratives that interrogate the ethical implications of scientific progress and the complexities of human relationships Readers looking to delve into the foundational works of science fiction will find The Collected Short Stories of H G Wells an essential addition to their library With its timeless themes and innovative concepts the collection not only entertains but also provokes critical thought about our future making it a key text for both enthusiasts and scholars alike

Co-memory and melancholia Ronit Lentin,2013-07-19 The 1948 war that led to the creation of the State of Israel also resulted in the destruction of Palestinian society when some 80 per cent of the Palestinians who lived in the major part of Palestine upon which Israel was established became refugees Israelis call the 1948 war their War of Independence and the Palestinians their Nakba or catastrophe After many years of Nakba denial land appropriation political discrimination against the Palestinians within Israel and the denial of rights to Palestinian refugees in recent years the Nakba is beginning to penetrate Israeli public discourse This book available at last in paperback explores the construction of collective memory in Israeli society where the memory of the trauma of the Holocaust and of Israel s war dead competes with the memory claims of the dispossessed Palestinians Against a background of the Israeli resistance movement Lentin s central argument is that co memorating the Nakba by Israeli Jews is motivated by an unresolved melancholia about the disappearance of Palestine and the dispossession of the Palestinians a melancholia that shifts mourning from the lost object to the grieving subject Lentin theorises Nakba co memory as a politics of resistance counterpoising co memorative practices by internally displaced Israeli Palestinians with Israeli Jewish discourses of the Palestinian right of return and questions whether return narratives by Israeli Jews courageous as they may seem are ultimately about Israeli Jewish self healing rather than justice for Palestine
