

What happens in a child custody evaluation involving a mentally ill spouse?

The judge appoints a mental health professional to do an evaluation

An investigation takes place.
An investigation generally takes at least 2 months

During the investigation, the evaluator may

- Meet with you, your child's other parent, and your child
- Meet with adults who know your child well
- Review your child's school and health records
- Review any documents related to custody and safety
- Ask for the parents to have a psychological evaluation

After the investigation, the evaluator will write a confidential report
