Dutro emphasizes that issues of power and privilege matter centrally to how attention to trauma positions children. The book includes questions and prompts for discussion, reflection and practice and describes pedagogies and strategies designed to provide opportunities for children to bring the varied experiences of life including trauma to their school literacies in positive, meaningful and supported ways. This stunning book about trauma interrogates the very notion. Dutro excels at interweaving her stories with those of teachers and students and at challenging readers to find their way into the fabric. I recommend this book to teachers so that they might accept her challenge to explore and understand the importance of both witnessing and testimony in relation to trauma in literacy curriculum and pedagogy. Write This Way Kelly Boswell, 2015-02-20. Modeling is one of the most effective of all teaching strategies and yet many teachers overlook this powerful tool in writing instruction. When teachers think aloud and then craft a piece of writing in front of their students, they give student writers a peek into what is possible in their own writing. In this book, Kelly Boswell shows you how to transform student writers by infusing short bursts of purposeful teacher modeling. As students watch an adult writer think, talk and write, they can develop the skills needed in order to create writing that is both polished and purposeful. Tony Stead, educator internationally known literacy specialist and author says, "Finally! Not just another book about how to teach writing, but one that targets the power of modeled writing." What a delight it is to read this professional resource that highlights the importance of this strategy as the cornerstone to successful teaching and learning of the writing process.

Culturally Informed Literacy Instruction in the Elementary Classroom Priscilla L. Griffith, Jiening Ruan, 2023-05-25. Connecting the theory to practice, the TOS framework centers the cultural heritage and experiences of students and offers a roadmap to scientifically and pedagogically sound instruction. Aligned with current curriculum standards, chapters feature authentic examples and case studies, reflection questions and writing activities that will foster a culture of inclusion, community and academic rigor. The many practical strategies promote students' learning and appreciation of diversity through academic reading and writing as well as positive school, family and school community relations. Readers will come away with new ideas, tools and a thorough understanding of how to integrate culturally informed practices in ways that support the learning of all children. Accessible and comprehensive, this is an essential text for pre-service teachers in courses on ELA methods and literacy instruction as well as practicing teachers.
